NOYES IN COURT.

San Francisco, Oct. 22, via Skagway. Oct. 22.—In regard to the contempt charges against Judge Noyes, some highly sensational evidence was given by W. T. Hume, of Hubbard, Berman & Hume, Noyes attorneys. Hume said he had been corruptly approached by McKeezie and forced to give up half the profits of his law firm in order to obtain favorable decisions in Noyes' court. An attempt was made by the defense to show that Hume was over zealous in his prosecution of Noyes. Former Marshall Wavter told of his service of the writ of supercedas on Noyes and that Noyes said Judge of San Francisco circuit court was a sandlotter.

TROUBLE IN B. C.

Vancouver, Oct. 22, via Skagway. Oct. 22.—A special from Ottawa says that the visit of Maxwell there is in connection with the proposed change in the granting of fish trap licenses in British Columbia waters. John Babcock, an American who was recently a fish commissioner in California, is now fish commissioner of British Columbia, his appointment being from the provincial authorities and made contrary to the advice of the Dominion government. The matter is causing much comment.

Nearly all the naval force is now concentrated at Samar and is on patrol. The services of two colliers, Arethusa and Zafiro, were needed and pressed into use.

TOO MUCH NOISE.

Victoria, Oct. 21, via Skagway. The new fort will be cut from solid granite and will be the most formidable on the Pacific coast.

EMMA NOTT SNEAKS IN

Brings Mail and Will Take Mail This Evening.

The Emma Knott was a disappointment from beginning to end of her last trip down from Whitehorse—particularly the end. There were thousands of anxious people impatiently awaiting her whistle in order to be down at the wharf and give her the reception and heap upon her the result of the pent up feelings that her trip had awakened in the whole community. And what did the Emma Knott do? She cowardly sneaked in between two days—between Saturday and Sunday—and disappointed everybody. She had 25 sacks of mail on board, and no sooner was she landed at the postoffice that the clerks were awakened from their Sunday sleeping slumbers and had the whole of it distributed before breakfast time. And they did not Shanghai any of the Emma Knott crew to help them, either.

A number of people who were surprised to get mail on Sunday morning absolutely refused to believe that the Emma Knott could have made the trip from Selwyn, where she was fast heard from at seven o'clock on Thursday morning, in any such marvelous good time. It is 147 miles to Selwyn and the current on an average is only about three miles an hour. No, they believed that it had been brought in by the mounted police in canoes.

But there was the proud Emma Knott moored to the dock of the post-mill contracting company, the B. Y. N. and White Pass & Yukon, the officials of which sang in ghoulish glee: "What did we tell you? What the hotel has the Nugget got to now about now!"

In addition to the twenty-five sacks of mail the palatial river steamer Emma Knott brought a quantity of dog feed for the mounted police, freight for the Northern Commercial, poultry for Preston & Co., and packages for other firms.

Her passenger list included W. W. Bittner, the new manager of the Standard theater, Miss H. C. Haines, who came all the way from Brooklyn, N. Y., and had the boat delayed until tomorrow morning she would have made the Emma Knott a co-responder in a breach of promise of marriage suit. Miss Haines is to become Mrs. Frank W. Osborn, of the Klondike mill, some time this evening. Another passenger who is better known to Dawson people is Mrs. J. C. Prather, who was the first person to meet George O'Brien after the murders and was a witness in the trial. There was also Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Lynch, A. B. Thompson; J. H. McLeod and Miss Flossie O'Leary.

Purser J. S. Sterling, as handsome and courteous a purser as ever trod the deck of a palatial passenger ship, says all these passengers thoroughly enjoyed their rapid voyage from Whitehorse. This is what he says of the trip: "We left Whitehorse at four o'clock on Friday afternoon, the 15th, and made good time down thirty miles and across the lake, but seven miles before Hootalinqua the steamer broke her crank shaft, and we had to send her Whitehorse for repairs to her up again. The Sybil brought the material down and the repairs took some time to make so we did not get away until Tuesday morning. We had a scow with twenty tons of freight and we had freight for two days, for Tantalus, Indian river and Ogilvie. "We got through Five Fingers and Rink Rapids all right and reached ten miles below Selwyn on Wednesday night and got stuck on a bar. "While running a line from the steamer to the shore the deckhand in the boat got his leg tangled in the line and as the line tightened, it pulled the boat across the current and the mate and I swam to the shore, the deckhand clung to the overturned boat until he was rescued. He is laid up with a bad leg and the mate was sick two days from his submersion. That delayed us until Friday evening. "We had no particular trouble with the ice. In fact there was no ice in the river until we got to White River, where was coming in a good deal of slush ice. None came out of the Pelly or the Stewart. "No, we saw nothing of the mounted police."

The Emma Knott is going out again this evening at about five or six o'clock, and hopes to get a full load of passengers. She has sleeping accommodations, says the courteous purser, for twenty-eight, "for thirty at a pinch," and the rate asked is $50. The McDonald Iron Works received the order for a new crank shaft, and the mail contracting Co. will again entrust her with the mails, but with strict injunctions to turn it over to the steamer Flora should that steamer overtake her on the way up.

Montana Miner Shot. Butte, Mont., Oct. 12.—William J. McChaine, a miner, while on his way to work this evening, was shot in the heart and instantly killed by Patrick Hayes, a miner, just as he was leaving his boarding house. Hayes stood in the doorway and shot through a screen door as McChaine approached him. Hayes fled for the hills, and at this writing has not been caught.

I WAS OVER VERY SOON

Through Telegraphic Connection Today for a Short Time.

Direct communication was again had this morning, the overland wire being up for the first time since the 19th. For about an hour the line was kept hot, then another break occurred and it again went out of business. The present difficulty is thought to be only temporary and Local Superintendent Brown expects the wire to be in order by evening. While up this morning the line worked badly, the messages being sent through by relays. Telegrams now are being received only subject to delay.

GIVEN PEREMPTORY ORDERS

Major Wood Notifies the White Pass Octopus to Remove the Boilers at Once Which They Have Been Storing in the Street Adjoining the Dock.

The White Pass octopus, long since grown arrogant through the habit, which has become second nature due to the continued practice of its public-be-damned policy, was pulled up with a short turn this morning by no less personages than Major Wood and Captain Starnes. Some three or four weeks ago orders were passed around to see that all freight and other obstructions were removed from the public thoroughfares. At that time there was quite an amount of hay and feed piled on the edges of the street along Second and Third avenues, to say nothing of a large and varied assortment of boilers strewn about indiscriminately in front of the White Pass dock. The orders given by the police were generally complied with except in the case of the railroad rumpuses and they gave it no more attention than they do the weal and welfare of the people whose hard-earned dollars they so voraciously grasp. It is assumed that they consider themselves beyond the pale, except from the recognition of ordinances passed which do not please them and are not amenable to orders given to which it does not suit their convenience to comply. At any rate, the boilers and piles of iron remained where they for weeks have reposed so peacefully. The awakening did not arrive until this morning. Major Wood and Captain Starnes called upon Acting Agent Dudley, who is also traveling auditor for the company, and gave him peremptory orders to remove the boilers forthwith. By removal it is not meant that they shall be skidded a few feet so as to the 16-foot strip of ground to which a claim is ridiculously made by the company. When they are moved they shall be taken away entirely, and that at once, not in a day or two or in a week. Shortly after the interview with the officers, Mr. Dudley was seen and with a complacent smile said: "In nearly every instance we have our freight out of the boilers and it is now up to the consignees to get their stuff out of the way."

After all, there is a power in the territory higher than the White Pass railroad; though it may have been doubted for some time. In the matter of receiving the news of the world the people of the Hawaiian islands are in a much more predicament than are the people of the Yukon. No reports of the shooting of President McKinley had been received at Honolulu until the President was dead and Roosevelt inaugurated in his stead. It will not be long, however, until Uncle Sam will begin the construction of a cable line which will connect Hawaii with the outside world.

Billard Tournament. The Y. M. C. Club is arranging a billiard tournament to be given in the club parlors beginning Saturday evening, November 2. Suitable trophies will be offered as first, second and third prizes. The committee consists of W. D. Bruce, Chas. S. W. Barwell and E. J. Fitzpatrick. We fit glasses. Pioneer drug store.

THE MAIL MUDDLE

Bad Now But It May Be Worse Next Spring.

Never since the days of '98 has the mail question been more perplexing and more generally unsatisfactory than at present. With a total and complete disregard for the provisions of its contract, the B. Y. N. Co. has failed utterly to keep its agreements. The mail brought Saturday night by the Emma Knott was the first received since the 14th, whereas the contractors are required to deliver two mails a week during the season of navigation. Had it not been for the departure of the fearless little Flora, which is expected tomorrow and to which was considerably entrusted the transportation of a few bags of mail, it would have been largely a matter of conjecture when the next mail would have arrived. Word was received today that a canoe load of way mail was en route and which may be overtaken and picked up by the Flora, which passed Big Salmon at 4:30 p. m. yesterday and should arrive tomorrow. She also has mail but to how great extent is not known. Still another mail left Whitehorse in canoes Thursday. At the mouth of the Hootalinqua it was transferred to a scow which left at 5 o'clock Saturday morning. It may arrive within a week or it may not get in for a month, depending much upon the good luck and skill of the scow pilot and the state of the river. The B. Y. N. Co. will not worry over it; let the people do the worrying. They expect too much, anyhow.

The outgoing mail is in about the same shape. The Emma Knott with a large quantity aboard made a valiant start today, shortly after 2 o'clock. Postmaster Hartman gave her the mail only upon condition that she should the Flora on her return trip overtake the Knott the latter is to turn over to the former all the bags in her possession. With the departure of the Flora, the last chance to send mail until the river closes will have passed. What will be done next spring upon the opening of navigation is another problem. The White Pass people are wintering none of their boats here, nor is there any other boat on the up river run which will be available in the spring. It simply amounts to this: The breakfast witness a repetition of the present disgraceful conditions and Dawson will again go two weeks without a mail, unless it is forwarded by the police.

Cost Him His Life. Mattson, Ill., Oct. 12.—An unknown man, supposed to be James Rourke, after escaping from the detention hospital where he had been sent several days ago in a frenzy of delirium tremens, entered the home of John Herman, as the family were seated at the table. Flourishing a butcher knife, he drove away all the family but Mr. Herman, who stepped into an adjoining room for a revolver and shot Rourke in the breast, killing him instantly.

JUSTICE DUGAS IN CHAMBERS

Disposes of a Number of Cases Today.

Mr. Justice Dugas again sat in chambers this morning, hearing a number of motions brought by consent. The case of the Canadian Bank of Commerce vs. the Syndicate Lyonnaise, a French corporation, was brought up on a motion of Attorney Clarke to require the defendants to produce certain letters pertaining to the case. Mr. Clarke stated the examination had been had, at which time Mr. Paillard had undertaken to produce the letters in question, and now he says he can not find them. From the bench Justice Dugas reiterated the statement previously made that on account of his close acquaintance with all parties to the suit and his knowledge of the questions at issue, he did not wish to sit as the trial judge at the hearing of the case. If it were not in vacation his lordship would not hesitate to perform his duty, but the matter being brought up at this time only by consent he would take advantage of this prerogative and not allow the case to come to trial until the return of Justice Craig. The motion of Mr. Clarke was delayed until Monday next to enable Mr. Paillard to make a further search for the desired letters.

Marchbank vs. McKay also stands over until Monday. Macaulay vs. Bads came up on an application for judgment. The claim of plaintiff is for a certain quantity of draft beer which was furnished defendant at the price of $45 per barrel, the amount alleged to be due being $1498. A counter claim is set up by the defendant for non-fulfillment of contract. Judgment was given for $1498, the counter claim to be disposed of later.

In Brown vs. Jeha plaintiff's motion for an injunction and the appointment of a receiver was met with a motion by defendant asking that a motion be granted for costs, it being alleged that Brown had left the country and if the matter were proceeded with defendant should have some security for his costs in case of his success in the suit. The motion was enlarged until this afternoon.

In the case of Norwood vs. Marshall, a motion was brought up directing the disposition of 704 ounces of gold dust now in court, which is claimed by plaintiff. Mr. Falconer was a one-third owner in a group of six claims. The remaining two-thirds interest was bought by Norwood and Clarke, who in turn sold to Falconer for the sum of $18,682, the conditions being that upon the payment of that sum all interest in the property held by Norwood and Clarke should become extinct and they should convey the same to Falconer. Later, Falconer sold the two-thirds interest to Pauley and Marshall. The disagreement is over a clause in the agreement which states that all gold taken out during the working of the claims shall be applied upon the purchase money yet due. The plaintiff claims the gross output should be so applied, while the defendant insists that the running expenses of the claims should be deducted first. His lordship reserved his decision.

EARL OF MINTO MAY RESIGN

His Position of Governor General of Canada.

Ottawa, Oct. 21, via Skagway. Oct. 22.—In the event of Governor-General Minto resigning his position on account of the strained relations existing between Premier Laurier and himself, it is said Baron de Blaquiere will be appointed his successor. If so the baron would be the first Canadian ever appointed to the position.

London, Oct. 12.—The Daily Chronicle declares that the little time which the Earl of Minto, governor-general of Canada, spent with the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, is merely one of the evidences of the friction existing between the premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and the governor-general. This is partly due, says the Chronicle, to the Earl of Minto's refusal to sanction Sir Wilfrid Laurier's recommendations that the mayor of Montreal and the premier of Quebec receive the decoration of Knight Commander of St. Michael and St. George, and also to the Earl of Minto's interference with the Canadian militia matters, as an instance of which he claimed the commissions in the British army which Lord Roberts gave aside for the Canadians as being his personal gift, instead of the ministry's. Lord Roberts having eventually to step in and make the appointments himself on the recommendations of the Canadian government.

Seattle Market. Walla Walla, Oct. 12.—Seattle is just now getting a lot of Oregon hay for shipment to the Philippines by the government contractors. The hay is timothy of choice quality and is being sent over the Washington & Columbia River railway as rapidly as possible. Farmers in the vicinity of Weston and Athena, Or., produce quantities of fine hay and this year for the first time it is finding a market on the sound. It is being sold for $9 a ton at the depots of the road and buyers are making an effort to secure all that can be bought at present prices.

Crowe Would Surrender. Omaha, Neb., Oct. 12.—Chief of Police Donahue has received from Patrick Crowe, through a friend of the latter, an offer to surrender himself and stand trial before the courts if the reward of $50,000 hanging over his head for the alleged kidnapping of Edward Cudahy, jr., is withdrawn. Chief Donahue did not accept the proposition, but made a counter offer to waive the reward himself, saying nobody else could secure it. The chief says Crowe is tired of being hunted, and is willing to take chances of a trial if the reward is withdrawn, but expresses the fear that manufactured testimony would convict him if the reward were allowed to stand. He says Crowe is less than 500 miles from Omaha; and is not with his relatives.

Edward A. Cudahy, sr., was seen by a representative of the Associated Press and asked if the reward for Crowe would be withdrawn. In reply he said: "Yes, we will do anything to secure Crowe. This is the first I have heard of Crowe, but I presume his proposition is bona fide. I still believe Crowe as one of the abductors of my son, but if he surrenders he shall have a fair trial, and if he gives himself up under the circumstances named, the reward will be withdrawn. I have not heard from Crowe directly or indirectly myself, but Chief Donahue has the matter in hand and will act in any manner that will secure the presence of Crowe."

Mrs. McKinley's Condition. Canton, O., Oct. 12.—George B. Cortelyou, secretary to the late president, who came here from the meeting of the trustees of the McKinley National Memorial Society, in Cleveland, left for Washington tonight. He spent the day with Judge Day, who, with Secretary Cortelyou, is administrator of the estate of the late president, and attended to matters in connection with the estate. The apportionment is practically completed, the inventory will not be ready for filing for some time. The affairs of the late president, it is said, were found in good shape, and much progress has already been made in arranging the properties.

Mrs. McKinley's condition has not greatly changed since Mr. Cortelyou was here the last time, but such change as has occurred is for the better. This is most noticeable in the active part she has been able to take in the matter of business presented to her. She continues to do much driving, and visits the tomb of her late husband nearly every day. Mrs. Barber, his sister, is with her constantly. The memorial trustees, it is understood, will not attempt to determine the form of the memorial at present, but will devote all their energies to raising the funds. Mrs. McKinley has expressed no preference as to form up to this time.

Only 26 witnesses will be present at the execution, the number being limited by law. Over 1,200 requests for invitations were received by the warden. (The sentence passed on Czolgosz was that he should be executed during the week beginning Monday, Oct. 28th, hence the uncertainty of the exact date.)
