THE DUTY OF US ALL

During the past month the most of us have been "talking politics" more or less. It upsets business to a greater or lesser degree, it interferes with the ordinary routine of life, it causes many an exciting night—mayhap, many a weary morning.

And yet it is well that men should take this strenuous, vital interest in the public life of our country; it is well that they should be deeply interested in the government and well of our land.

To-morrow is polling day—the national Sabbath—when the men of Canada will go to the polls, we hope seriously and conscientiously, to record their convictions.

In West Kent the contest has been keen and the result will be awaited with interest. Two men to-morrow ask their fellows for the right to represent them in Parliament and the voter will be called upon to make his choice.

The Planet believes that the interests of West Kent and its good people will be best promoted and conserved by the election of Herbert S. Clements as our parliamentary representative. On broad, national lines it appeals to us that the policy he represents is most calculated to advance Canada's interests at home and abroad.

But more. We believe that in choosing Mr. Clements the people will select the man who is energetically and wholeheartedly devoted to the interests of the people of this constituency. His platform is a sturdy and vigorous local one, it is of the people for the people, and the man is filled with the zeal and enthusiasm necessary to ensure the betterment of conditions to which he has so heartily pledged and consecrated himself.

Herbert S. Clements is one with the people, he is one with the working man, the mechanic, the clerk and the farmer. Their interests are his interests. He is not associated with big and wealthy corporations, he is not after large bonuses for private speculations, he has not a crowd of Toronto trust promoters pushing his claims. He is fighting the battle of the people—and will fight the battle of the people—because he is one of them. And we believe the people will stand by him.

His opponent is a wealthy man. He has had four years as Kent's parliamentary representative. Has he done anything to better us, anything distinctly beneficial to us, anything wholly in the interests of the people? Or has he allied himself with big corporations and private speculators and devoted himself to the interests and aggrandizement of Mr. Geo. Stephens?

Let us think these matters over before we vote on the morrow.

We all of us have a duty to ourselves, our fellows and our constituency to perform to-morrow. Let us do it honestly and conscientiously and according to our own best judgment.

Let us vote according to this standard. Do not vote for Clements because The Planet says so, do not vote for Stephens because metropolitan promoters and corporation bonus-seekers try to force our hands. Vote because we believe and as we believe. Let the ballot be the conscientious verdict of our honest judgment.

If we do this we have no reason to fear the result.

A CONTRAST.

In a speech delivered this month, Sir Arnold Foster, the English Secretary of State for War, said as follows:—

"There have been party interferences with the administration of the Army. My view, after having made some study of these interferences, is that they are bad for the army and bad for the nation; and so far as we can rescue the administration of the army from the interference of party so far, I am sure, we will benefit the great force on behalf of which I am here to speak."

Why does this not apply to Canada?

But in Canada we find the Liberal Minister of Militia authorizing and approving of party interference by the Minister of Agriculture in appointments recommended by the General Officer Commanding.

WHAT IS AN AUDITOR-GENERAL FOR?

A story is told about a darkey settlement into which a new family moved. Naturally the neighbours looked them over—when they met to talk about the newcomers an old darkey said was asked his impressions. "Don't know nuffen about them, but seems to me they're a pow'ful lot of featherbeds for folks as don't keep no chickens."

The Auditor-General has to keep his eye on the featherbeds which the grafters sleep on and Canada can ill spare that officer.

He was appointed by Alexander Mackenzie when he described his position as like "the besieged living on his arms night and day."

Mr. McDougall's experience has been gained during eighteen years of Conservative rule and eight years of Liberal administration. The Act which gave him his power was of Alexander Mackenzie's own framing and has remained unamended until the present time. He had no complaint to make until Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Government reduced his functions to nothingness.

His protest has been unheeded and expenditures of which he does not approve are carried through with an absolute disregard of fair dealing.

Is the country prepared to ignore the reasonable request of an old and tried official for larger powers necessitated by constant misuse of the moneys voted by Parliament?

Clements and Victory!

Vote for Clements!

Work for Clements!

Cheer for Clements!

It's the wave of victory!

The City, too, is with Clements.

The young man for the young men.

Now work hard till the polls close.

On the home stretch for victory.

Roll up the big Clements majority.

No big bonuses to private corporations.

Have you had your ear to the ground lately?

Get ready to cheer to-morrow night.

Now, for a last strong pull. All together!

Watch the returns roll in from the townships.

Listen to the hum of the Clements workers to-morrow.

Read Herbert S. Clements' manly letter to his fellow-citizens.

Just crystallized fruit juices. Pleasant to take. Nature's tonic-laxative. A morning glass puts stomach, liver and bowels right for the whole day.

AT ALL DRUGGISTS, 25¢ AND 50¢ A BOTTLE

The size of that Clements' majority will be a surprise, all right. See if it isn't.

The only thing now in doubt is the size of the Clements' majority. Everyone give it a boost.

All the bonus-seeking corporations are with Stephens, but the People are with Clements.

Don't forget The Morning Planet will tell you all about it Friday at the breakfast table, and place your orders.

Everyone is welcome at the Grand to-morrow night to hear the returns hot from the wire. Balcony reserved for ladies and their escorts.

NORWOOD CASE

The Following Letter From John E. Kelly Will Interest All Who Are Suffering From Kidney Trouble.

Mr. Kelly has been a great sufferer, as his intimate friends know, and has tried many remedies, but as he says over his own signature he found Bu-Ju Kidney Pills the best remedy he has ever taken, and has been greatly benefited. Bu-Ju Kidney Pills are a scientific combination that cure diseases of the kidneys and many painful conditions resulting from their improper action.

Bu-Ju Kidney Pills may be had at any drug store. Read what Mr. Kelly writes:

Norwood, June 17, 1904.

Clafin Chemical Co., Windsor, Ont. Gentlemen: I have taken eight boxes of "Bu-Ju" and have been greatly benefited by them. My disease is of long standing, but "Bu-Ju" Pills are the best I have taken yet, as they did me more good than any others.

Yours truly,

JOHN E. KELLY

GOOD CONCERT

The anniversary entertainment of the Epworth League of the Park street Methodist church was held last Monday evening and a large crowd was present to show their appreciation of the excellent work which is being done by the League.

Besides an excellent musical program a splendid address was given in harmony by Rev. Mr. McCamus, of Sarnia, who preached the anniversary services of the League in the Park street church on Sunday. Among the many things he brought out in his address was that he did not consider organic union of the different churches essential to their harmonious relations.

Rev. G. H. Cobblestick presided over the program, which was as follows: Opening prayer—Rev. G. H. Cobblestick.

Chairman's address—Rev. Mr. Cobblestick.

Recitation—Miss Edna Hicklin.

Trombone solo—Roger Philip.

Baton swinging—Percy Moss.

Solo—James Trotter.

Duet—Messrs. Hallman and Hallman.

Address, "Harmony"—Rev. Mr. McCamus.

Solo—Miss May Peate.

Solo—Miss Pearl White.

THE LOCAL BUDGET

Vote for Clements on Thursday! Errand boy wanted. Apply E. M. Coyne, tailor.

Eleven years of constant use in Blythe, Ont., is Dr. H. J. Milne's experience with "The D. & L." Emulsion. Do you suppose he would have continued ordering it unless it was the best?

Many will be glad to know that Dr. Margaret McKellar, of the Indian mission, India, will speak in the First Presbyterian Church Sunday evening. Miss McKellar, who is to speak at the annual Presbyterial meeting in Blenheim, on Tuesday next, will be the guest of Mrs. MacGillivray Sabbath and Monday. As Miss McKellar is one of our foremost missionaries and a most inspiring speaker, many will be glad to have the opportunity of hearing her.

Thousands upon thousands of the best known people in Canada have greatly benefited by the use of Allen's Lung Balsam. It cures deep-seated coughs and colds as well as all cases of Croup, Quinsy, Bronchitis, and similar affections.

Mr. J. B. Jarvis, second son of Mr. F. S. Jarvis, manager of the Merchants Bank, has formed a partnership with Mr. R. B. Elgie, of Toronto, as wholesale lumber dealers, under the firm name of Elgie-Jarvis Lumber Co., of Toronto. Mr. Elgie has been in the Canadian lumber trade for about ten years and Mr. Jarvis has been four years in the same line in New Orleans, so that with an extensive experience such as this, the young firm begins business under most favorable auspices. Mr. Jarvis' many young friends here will wish him a full measure of success.

Do the Right Thing when sore chest and tickling throat warn you that an all-winter cold threaten. Use the staunch old remedy, Perry Davis' Painkiller, and get rid of the pest in twenty-four hours. 25 and 50¢.

No man can be provident of his time who is not prudent in the choice of his company.

Mirrors are a nuisance in the house of a man whose face is branded with eczema. His own reflection shames him. Let him anoint his inflamed, itching skin with Weaver's Cerate and purify his blood with Weaver's Syrup.

HALLOWEEN ACCIDENT

A crowd of young people were on Grant St., last Monday night. They had a bottle with phosphorus in it and were rubbing it on their hands, and watching the effect when they touched anything. In some way the bottle exploded and set fire to the coat of Miss Hallman. In an effort to extinguish the blaze Mr. Davidson, one of the party, had his hands badly burned.

WORTHY PROJECT

That the churches at the present time are taking a great interest in the young men, was evidenced at Sarnia, last Sunday evening, when Rev. Mr. Cobblestick was requested to address the young men and managers of the First Methodist Church after the evening services on the manner in which the Park Street Young Men's Club is managed.

Rev. Mr. Cobblestick preached the anniversary services of the Young People's Society in the Sarnia Methodist Church. Sarnia, like Chatham, has no Y. M. C. A., for their young men and the Methodist Church are considering the project of supplying the wants of the young men in a new Sunday School Hall, which they are erecting.

The Sarnia Church has just celebrated their twenty-first anniversary and they are marking their coming of age by launching out on this new work.
