Our hearts are watches, and every beat Is a tick that registers Time's retreat; In the Father's mansion, with marvels rife, Is the key thathas wound them up forlife. -Wm. H. Hayne.

Prof. A. E. Coldwell has handed us a small pamphlet entitled, "Congregational Churches in Nova Scotia," by Samual A. Green, reprinted from the proceedings of the Massachusetts Historical Society, February, 1888. We copy from it the following letter which will no doubt be read with a great deal of interest, furnishing as it does a glimpse of pioneer missionary work in this Province which is not found elsewhere. The spelling and capitalisation is produced intact and the whole letter is claimed to be a faithful copy of the original manuscript, now in the possession of the Society:—
