Wolfville people will be glad to learn that the pulpit of the Baptist church is to be occupied on Sunday next by Rev. Dr. Keirstead, of McMaster University, Toronto. It has been a long time since people of this vicinity had the privilege of hearing Dr. Keirstead and it goes without saying that they will gladly avail themselves of the opportunity of again listening to him.

Saturday

For new lenses and spectacles complete, go to Williams, Graduate Optician.

From July 21, Mr. V. W. Mayor, Eye Specialist of Toronto, will be at J. F. Herbin's for consultation. Mr. Herbin's optical room is being fitted up for the purpose of applying the Shadow Test in eye examination, which is to be used in addition to other scientific methods for the correction of defects of sight, and the proper fitting of glasses. Privacy and comfort in examination will be thus afforded to all who take advantage of this opportunity.

The death of Frances, widow of the late Pte. Robert McGraw, occurred on Sunday evening last at the home of her father, Mr. Allen Atwell, at Melancon. Mr. McGraw was a returned soldier, wounded and gassed, and was for a time a patient at the Military Hospital at Kentville. He was discharged some months ago with a small pension. Shortly after they were married Mr. and Mrs. McGraw went to France, where he was later taken sick and although tenderly cared for by his young wife passed away. The remains were brought to Melancon for burial and the deceased was buried at her home on the 2nd. She was 33 and the bereaved family have much sympathy.

Help it Along

Red Cross Rally.

The public meeting at the Opera House on Sunday evening in aid of the Red Cross was largely attended in spite of the disagreeable state of the weather. Rev. Mr. Miller presided. Music was furnished by the Scout Band and an exceedingly well rendered solo was given by Private McPhill, Lieutenant G. B. Jones, of Halifax, was the chief speaker. His address was eloquent and forcible and attracted strongly the aid of the Red Cross. He is certainly a most talented speaker and his address was intensely interesting. Addresses were also given by Melton MacCreary of the Military Hospital, Kentville, and Captain MacCreary, of the same hospital, Rev. Mr. Wain, the new Methodist minister and Rev. Mr. Ruddick of the First Baptist church. Halifax also spoke highly of a visit of thanks to the speakers was made by Rev. J. P. Dixon, attended by Mr. DeWitt and presented by the chairman. The meeting was a decided success in every respect. Mr. Bond, manager of the Opera House, gave the free use of the house, which was much appreciated by those having the meeting in charge.

Distressing Accident. A very sad accident occurred at the home of Mrs. A. L. Gue on Monday evening. Two small children, ten and eight years of age, were playing in the kitchen and in some way overturned a kettle of boiling water and scalded themselves terribly. The little girl received the greater injury and only survived until about three o'clock the following morning. The little boy was not so severely injured and will probably recover. Mrs. Gue has the beautiful sympathy of citizens in her bereavement that she came to her home in the death of her little daughter.
