DEATH OF MRS. BRENTON A. NORTHUP

Word has been received of the death of Helen, wife of Brenton A. Northup, son of Lieut-Col. Joseph Northup and Mrs. Northup, which occurred at Le Havre, France, on July 14th. Mrs. Northup was the daughter of Joseph La Mont, an eminent and distinguished French engineer. Mr. Northup, a graduate of Columbia University, was married in Nagasaki, Japan, and was spending his wedding trip in Paris, when the war broke out. He immediately enlisted in the aviation service, the original Lafayette Escadrille, and was twice decorated for bravery by the French Government for service at Verdun, where he was severely wounded. After several years of railway engineering in China he is now Chief Engineer on a large liner blying between New York and Mediterranan ports,

HABITANT

HABITANT

It is satisfactory to note that the usual work on the Habitant cemetery has been completed and reflects credit on those who were in charge. The poison ivy, which was last gaining headway, is almost exterminated. Those who have not yet coptributed will kindly remit to Mrs. Averyby the first of the month.

Miss' Cecil Barnaby, Halifax, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Ross.

Miss Rita Hayes, guest of Miss Laura Eaton, returned to Somerset on Sunday.

Habitant Community Tennis Clubheld the second of its successful teas on the grounds which were attractively decorated for the occasion with Japanese lanterns and flags, on Monday evening. The Candy booth in charge of Miss Ande Eaton and Miss Preda Woodworth was gay with red and white streamers interfacing the arch of spruce, while the ice cream booth of white and green was in charge of Miss Isabel Meek and Miss Vera Cox. The cold drink and sandwich table was presided over by Miss Myrtle Meek and Miss Vivian Melvin, while tea was poured by Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Jesse Davidson. All the booths were unusually attractive in color and arrangement. The tea tables were arranged in cosy spots, a beyy of pretty girls assisting. Tennis was enjoyed throughout the afternoon and evening.

HABITANT WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Women's Institute of Habitant held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. William Newcombe on Friday afternoon, Pres. Mrs. Fletcher McBride, presiding. The Medford Institute was on this occasion the guest of the sister Institute it being the 3rd anniversary of this organization. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode, the Laplonse to roll call being proverbs, many of which were clever and amusing while others were of a deeply spiritual nature. The greetings of Habitant were extended to Medford by our Pres, Mrs. McBride and responded to by the Pres., Mrs. Robert Palmeter, of Medford. The program was very interesting. Miss Mildred Holmes, reader, always a favorite was delightfully entertaining while vocal duets by Miss Myrtle Meek and Miss Isable Meek, piano duetts by Mrs. Delbert Munro and Mrs. George Fluck were greatly enjoyed. Mr. Henry Palmeter, of Pasadena, gave an amusing reading, which was the source of much pleasure. This was followed by a short address on Women's Institutes and the work they are accomplishing by Miss Hume, of the teaching staff of Dartmouth, who is an interesting and pleasing speaker. Regret was felt that Dr. Gosse was unable to address the meeting. The thanks of the visiting Institute was extended to Habitant, after which tea was served and an hour of social intercourse spent.

LAST SUNDAY'S SERVICES

Canning was fortunate indeed in having the opportunity of listening on Sabbath morning to Rev. W. J. Wright, of Grace Methodist Church, Parrsboro, who occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church and whose sermon was very thoughtful and helpful; and in having in Christ Church in the afternoon, Rev. L. J. Donaldson, Rector, of Trinity church, Halifax, whose forceful sermon was listened to by a large congregation. Dr. Patterson, of Acadia, occupied the pulpit of United Baptist church at the evening service, which was a very beautiful one. The danger of becoming satisfied with physical values rather than spiritual was forcibly brought before the congregation. A man's worth is very often measured in terms of dollars. A man cannot be measured in this manner. In family life too often the standard is material rather than spiritual and also in education and even in the church we find this but the true essence of value is always the spiritual worth. Rev. H. T. Wright presided at the service, the Benediction being pronounced by Rev. G. A. Logan, of Upper Canald Presbyterian church. We hope to have an apportunity very soon again of listening to the President of Acadia. was fortunate indeed

MARRIED AT YARMOUTH

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bain, Hebron, Yarmouth county, was the scene of an interesting event on Thursday, August 16 at 9.30 p. m. when their daughter, Nellie Crosby Bain, was united in marriage to Mr. Roland Coffin Spicer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Spicer, of Canning, Rev. Mr. McLuckie officiating. The house was attractively decorated for the occasion with plants and cut flowers. The bride, who was charming in a gown of blue with hat of peach color, was attended by her niece, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bain, who made a charming flower girl. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bain and on Saturday amid the good wishes of a host of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Spicer left for Dorchester, Mass., where they will reside. Previous to their departure for Hebron a shower was given in honor of the bride and groom elect by their friends in Canning. The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bain,
