AROUND TOWN.

—Fancy Dress Carnival in Tantram Rink Friday evening 22nd inst.

—Thermometers registered from 11 to 14 below zero on Sunday night.

—Music Hall has lately blossomed out with new signs which he who runs may read.

—Mr. Edward Murphy, Contractor for Cape Tormentine wharf, was in Sackville yesterday.

—It is officially announced that there will be a revision of the Dominion electoral lists this year.

—A number of Sackville snow-shoes enjoyed a tramp last Monday evening. The ladies appeared to be largely in the majority.

—A train will leave Port Elgin for Sackville after 11 o'clock on Tuesday night. The price of return tickets will be one dollar.

—The land damage cases in Stipendiary Cahill's Court, have been further postponed to next Tuesday on account of the continued absence of a witness.

—A fine fall of snow last Saturday made excellent sleighing, but an old fashioned snow-storm on Tuesday has blocked up some of the cross-roads and made travelling heavy.

—The Sackville Cornet Band furnished abundant music, and their skillful playing elicited warm encomiums from the skaters. The ice was in good condition and all seemed to enjoy themselves. Under the present management the rink is in charge of Mr. Nugent, who is well suited for the position.

LOCAL MATTERS.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.
The Post is indebted to Mr. John E. Outhouse, formerly of Wood Point but now a manager of a silver mine at Shafter, Texas, for late copies of California papers.

RAND CONCERT.—There will undoubtedly be a large attendance at the Coppy's Hall, Port Elgin, next Saturday evening to hear the Sackville Cornet Band. The "boys" play well and have prepared an excellent programme.

SMELT FISHING.—The Chatham World says petitions, signed by 350 small fishermen of the Miramichi, have been forwarded to Ottawa, praying for an extension of the time for bag-net fishing to March 1st.

NEW VESSEL.—The frame of Hon. Gaius S. Turner's new ship is completed, and both for model and excellent workmanship is said to be equal to the best ever framed under the skillful direction of foreman Daw. The vessel will be launched in May, or first part of June next.

N. B. & P. E. Ry.—It will be seen by advertisement on next page that another change has been made in the time table of this road. The change has been made in the interest of the travelling public to enable passengers to connect with the Montreal and Oxford Accommodation, whenever practicable. The time table of last week was printed on the first page of this issue before the present change was made, and is, of course, unreliable.

SALVATION ARMY.—The Band of Household Troops have had, quite a lively time since they left Sackville. They were returned-egged by some roughs at Spring Hill while playing outside before commencing their concert, and some of the respectable portion of the community had to interfere in their behalf. At Truro, while playing in the street, a frightened horse backed into their ranks, and the owner and a friend, while trying to extricate the horse, were assaulted by some of the Army.

CAPE TORMENTINE PIER.—The farmers in the vicinity of Cape Tormentine are taking advantage of the sledding to haul stones to the crib, and Mr. Murphy has a number of teams in the woods getting out timber. Contracts for supplying the square timber required have been awarded to Oswald Smith, of Richibucto, and James Brown, of Westford. The supplies for the pier will be supplied by the St. John Bolt and Nut Company. Nearly 500 feet of the stone embankment is now completed.
