A Personal Panic.

Now, what care I for all this din In Wall Street, far away, When troubles of my own begin To fill me with diemay? Those millions who have sped from My feelings do not theil! My feelings do not thrill As much as what has happened to My own ten dollar bill!

The shrinkage shown by values great
Awakena little fear
Compared to this reverse of fate
Which bids me financier.
Some lunch; some bonbons superfine;
Some flowers with compilments,
And that ten dollar bill of mine
Is only thirty cents.
Washington

Washington Star The Song of the Motorist.

Oh. I am an Auto-mobil-list,
And I shall sail the bounding pike,
I give my high-geared wheels a twist
And go wherever I like.
I bound along o'er the country roads,
Past fresh green fields and farms,
And with what Joy my heart explodes
As I bless the thank-you-marms!

at the ways with butter and oggs. When I hit a grocer's cart, the done in a while the grocer's legs. And the grocer came apart to smash bang into a loved of hay, And scatter it left and right, with a Yeav-bo- bo, and Tara-di-da, Is a course of sheer delight.

No cares have I of the sort that chills. The man who is soon to "bust" Wherever I note my unsaid bills. I so out and raise the dust. I raise it there and I raise it there. Till it resches the spreading skies, And I find nousth and plenty to spare. To threw in my creditors' eyes.

So its PA for my trusts' Automobile, And Hi for the bounding nile! Let others rave over the horse and wheel The tame and the arduous blic. Let others rave over the brigantine. That plows through the realms of the couch.

Its I for the car of easoline.

With its glorious Honk-bonk-bonk!

New York, Nov. 19.—The market during the morning developed weakness under sales from various houses of fairly influential character. London sold Erie and liquidation of long stock in St. Paul continued. Weakness in the bond market, as in the case of the four per cent. bonds of the Rock Island Co., which were against the old R. I. stock dollar to dollar, is believed to represent sales of collateral in loans. Announcement of two million dollars additional gold import engagements bring the total to $68,975,000. shows no important changes from yesterday.

In view of an expected reaction which must affect the gross earnings of the railroads, it is interesting to calculate the effect on such dividend payers as Atchison common. The Atchison operating ratio was 65.51 per cent. of gross in the year ending June 30, 1907, and the company could cover present dividend requirements with such a ratio of expenses even if gross were to decrease 25 per cent. The operating ratio in July, August and September of this year was nearly 72 per cent, a shrinkage of 81.2 per cent, on gross earnings would bring net results down to just about the amount needed to cover dividends. It is thus evident that the best dividend paying stocks will depend for maintenance of dividends on reduction of recent expense ratio. This is exactly what is usually brought about by a severe business contraction in all lines. The market will continue to feel the influence of necessities of holders, but stocks are cheap and attractive.—Ennis & Stoppani.

The following quotations are reproted by A. E. Carpenter Stock. Veal calves.—Calves sold at $3 to $6 per ewt.
Sheep and lambs.—The run of sheep and lambs was fairly large, and prices were quoted at $4 per ewt. for export sheep and $5 to $5.35 for the Lest lambs, with common to inferior at $4

Yards' west end market the receipts of the stock for the week ending Nov. 16 were 4,315 cattle, 2,542 sheep and lambs, on change, except for canners, which ruled lower on account of the heavy offerings, but the demand from canners was good for them, and sales were made freely at 65 to 90c per 100 lbs. Really choice beeves continue very scarce, but the supply of good stock was ample to fill all requirements. The demand from local and outside buyers was active. Cable advices from Liverpool on Saturday noted no improvement in trade, but they reported prices firm.

There was little or no demand here from exporters, and trade in this direction was slow. Sales of good cattle here were made at 4½ to 4½c; fair at 3½ to 4c; common at 2½ to 3c, and inferior at 1½ to 2c per lb. A weaker feeling has developed in the market for export sheep since this day week, and prices ruled about steady, at 3¼ to 3½c, and culled sheep were dull of sale at 3c per lb. The demand for lambs was good, and as the offerings were somewhat larger than usual, an active trade was done at 5¾ to 6c per lb. The trade in calves was fairly brisk, and prices ruled steady, with sales of choice stock at $12 to $15; good at $8 to $10; fair at $5 to $7, and common at $3 to $4 each.

A stronger feeling has developed in the live hog situation, and prices have advanced 25 to 35c per 100 lbs. since this day week. A fairly active trade was done here in hogs, and sales of selected lots were made at $6.25 to $6.50 per 100 lbs., weighed off cars.

The shipments from Cobalt Camp were above the average last week, La Rose being the heaviest shipper. The City of Cobalt shipped for the first time, two cars, one of high grade and the other second grade ore. The shipments were cars, one of high grade and the ones, second grade ore. The shipments were as follows: La Rose, 11 cars, 619,100 pounds; Nipissing, 3 cars, 182,460 pounds; McKinley-Darragh, 2 cars, 121,270 pounds; City of Cobalt, 2 cars, 191,230 pounds. COBALT NOTES

Larder City, the centre of business for the new northern gold field, is now being laid out by Messrs. Tighe Bros. Any passenger who makes the inane remark that "airships come high, but we have to have them, will be arrested at the first stop.

When a passenger thinks that he sees a mirage of an iceberg, he will know that he is nearing the clouds over Boston.

In case of air-sickness passengers are cautioned against leaning over the rail. The Board of Health in Kokomo. Indiana, or some other seaport, might object.

Airships do not descend at Pittsburgh. Spiral stairways leading down to the city have been cut out of the smoke. Passengers should not be alarmed at the sudden rise of the ship when passing over Lincoln, Nebraska. The great elevation attained is due to a celebrated, local, hot-air producer.

The airship will be a great boon to magazine poetry. About two thousand years after airships have begun their light the four-dollar magazines will contain sonnets to the airship that employ such limpid and novel phrases as a "As swift as swallows on the wing."—

A PROUD PEACOCK. Countess of Warwick's Aged Albino is Most Exclusive.

Excepting her various causes, Lady Warwick, who he now in this country. finds chief recreation in her garden and in the society of her various pets. Among the latter must be numbered some 60 peacocks, which are to be seen about the grounds at Lady Warwick takes immense pride in these birds, and tends them with great care. There is one pure white bird which never mixes with the others, but stands aloof in "spiendid isolation."

Mr. Maloney—I will make you withdraw from the House.

Mr. Maloney—You are a dirty cur.

Sir John Forrest—You are a whelp.

At this noint the chairman spoiled the fun by interfering.

The honors remained with Sir John, who got in (it will be observed) four insults to Mr. Maloney's three.
