

ONTARIO ASSEMBLY.

THIRD LEGISLATURE—FOURTH SESSION

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 22.

THE ADDRESS.

On the thirteenth paragraph, Mr. MEREDITH said that if anything should be allowed to follow the course of the profession, the gentleman opposite, it would be found in the fact that although the Ministry said an amendment proposed the address was a matter of confidence they did not hesitate to vote for such an amendment when proposed by a member of their own side of the House. Moreover, had they been disposed to treat the Opposition side of the House fairly, they would have followed the same course with regard to the indemnity and the Ministerial salaries, as they did with reference to the address with reference to the same. However, the country could judge of them and their insincerity.

The House passed. Classes 14 to 17 passed without discussion.

The 18th paragraph, Mr. SCOTT said he thought it might be a fair suggestion that the public accounts should be prepared and submitted to the Legislature as an annual report, as was now the custom. The rule was to bring them down a year later, but he would support the amendment for the House to be called together in November or December of each year, but for some seasons past it had not been summoned till January. Complaints had been made as to this, and it had been argued that the House was not doing its duty in giving the House greater facilities for considering the matters brought before them. One reason given for postponing the date of the summoning of Parliament was that the public accounts might be brought down, but a matter of confidence they were not brought down till the year after. On the 9th January, 1871, Mr. Sandfield Macdonald presented the accounts in complete form for 1870. It was possible for Mr. Sandfield Macdonald to present these accounts fifteen days after the meeting of Parliament the same could be done now.

The paragraph passed, as also the nineteenth. On the last paragraph, Mr. HARDY said he wished to refer to the anonymous letter read yesterday by the member for the Toronto. He thought the hon. member should have informed himself of the facts stated in the letter before reading it. As to the man Colledge, the statement in the letter was wholly untrue. On enquiring of the Prison Inspector, it appeared that the man had been sent to the Central Prison and he was being drunk and disorderly. He was a first-class carpenter, and was made of considerable size. It was the custom to give the prisoners more than their usual ration of food, and in this case the man was allowed to remain ten days to finish a job on which he was engaged, so as to earn his fare. This was the sole purpose for stating that Colledge was employed at the Central Prison. He thought the hon. member should have informed himself of the facts stated in the letter before reading it. As to the man Colledge, the statement in the letter was wholly untrue. On enquiring of the Prison Inspector, it appeared that the man had been sent to the Central Prison and he was being drunk and disorderly. He was a first-class carpenter, and was made of considerable size. It was the custom to give the prisoners more than their usual ration of food, and in this case the man was allowed to remain ten days to finish a job on which he was engaged, so as to earn his fare. This was the sole purpose for stating that Colledge was employed at the Central Prison.

THE EARL OF DUFFERIN.

Mr. MOWAT—I move, seconded by Mr. Meredith: That the address be presented to the Right Hon. the Earl of Dufferin, Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada, and that the hon. member should have informed himself of the facts stated in the letter before reading it. As to the man Colledge, the statement in the letter was wholly untrue. On enquiring of the Prison Inspector, it appeared that the man had been sent to the Central Prison and he was being drunk and disorderly. He was a first-class carpenter, and was made of considerable size. It was the custom to give the prisoners more than their usual ration of food, and in this case the man was allowed to remain ten days to finish a job on which he was engaged, so as to earn his fare. This was the sole purpose for stating that Colledge was employed at the Central Prison.

THE LATE PRINCESS ALICE.

Mr. MOWAT said: The address to His Majesty the Governor-General, and the hon. member should have informed himself of the facts stated in the letter before reading it. As to the man Colledge, the statement in the letter was wholly untrue. On enquiring of the Prison Inspector, it appeared that the man had been sent to the Central Prison and he was being drunk and disorderly. He was a first-class carpenter, and was made of considerable size. It was the custom to give the prisoners more than their usual ration of food, and in this case the man was allowed to remain ten days to finish a job on which he was engaged, so as to earn his fare. This was the sole purpose for stating that Colledge was employed at the Central Prison.

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION.

Mr. MEREDITH moved for an order of the House to request His Majesty the Queen to call the attention of the Dominion Government to the fact that the expenditure during each year since 1870, on account of the settlement of the boundary between the Dominion of Ontario and the Province of Quebec, has been a heavy one, and that the Dominion Government should be called upon to contribute towards the same. The hon. member also moved for an order of the House to request His Majesty the Queen to call the attention of the Dominion Government to the fact that the expenditure during each year since 1870, on account of the settlement of the boundary between the Dominion of Ontario and the Province of Quebec, has been a heavy one, and that the Dominion Government should be called upon to contribute towards the same.

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION.

Mr. MEREDITH moved for an order of the House to request His Majesty the Queen to call the attention of the Dominion Government to the fact that the expenditure during each year since 1870, on account of the settlement of the boundary between the Dominion of Ontario and the Province of Quebec, has been a heavy one, and that the Dominion Government should be called upon to contribute towards the same. The hon. member also moved for an order of the House to request His Majesty the Queen to call the attention of the Dominion Government to the fact that the expenditure during each year since 1870, on account of the settlement of the boundary between the Dominion of Ontario and the Province of Quebec, has been a heavy one, and that the Dominion Government should be called upon to contribute towards the same.

General, congratulating his Excellency on his arrival in Canada, and his appointment as Governor-General of the Dominion; and tendering a respectful welcome to her Royal Highness the Princess Louise. Mr. MEREDITH—Mr. Speaker, there is no doubt that our new Governor-General follows a statesman of great eminence in the position which he has assumed, but I believe, from what we have seen of him in the British Empire, that he will perform his duties as well as did his predecessor. And if he will have the satisfaction of having discharged those duties as well as they can be discharged, (Hear, hear.) Whatever may be said in the height of political strife, and in the warmth of political passion, there can be no two opinions on this point: that amongst all classes of our people, and of all ranks of which this young Dominion is composed, there is one common sentiment of loyalty to the British Crown. (Hear, hear.) The motion carried, and was referred to a committee having instructions to prepare the address. The address, which was immediately introduced and adopted, was as follows:—

To His Excellency Sir John Douglas Sutherland Maxwell, Knight of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, Governor-General of Canada, and Vice-Roy of the Dominion of Ontario.

LOCAL DEPARTMENTAL REPORTS.

Public Works. The report of the Commissioner of Public Works was laid on the table of the Local Legislature on Wednesday. It shows that the recent and marked extension of the railway system of the Province has continued during the past twelve months. The mileage of completed lines has been more than doubled since 1867, and when the railways now under construction are completed, there will be a total of 3,834 miles of railway in the Province, exclusive of the portion of the railway lying west of Thunder Bay. Without the completion of the works in connection with the Canadian Pacific railway, which are being constructed by the Dominion Government, the extension of railways in the Province in 1878 aggregated 136 miles, viz.: Hamilton and North-West, 90 miles; Victoria railway, Kingston to Haliburton, 22 miles; Midland railway, west of Waukegan, 10 miles; Prince Arthur's Landing and Kamouristagan railway, 6 miles; Belleville and North Bay railway, 22 miles; North Simcoe railway, 33 miles; Credit Valley railway, Woodstock to Ingersoll, 10 miles; Brantford, Norfolk, and Port Hope railway, 24 miles. Of the Canadian Pacific railway, west of Thunder Bay, 153 miles are being constructed. The works for the extension of the Dominion Government, the extension of railways in the Province in 1878 aggregated 136 miles, viz.: Hamilton and North-West, 90 miles; Victoria railway, Kingston to Haliburton, 22 miles; Midland railway, west of Waukegan, 10 miles; Prince Arthur's Landing and Kamouristagan railway, 6 miles; Belleville and North Bay railway, 22 miles; North Simcoe railway, 33 miles; Credit Valley railway, Woodstock to Ingersoll, 10 miles; Brantford, Norfolk, and Port Hope railway, 24 miles.

How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money. The youth's defense was that he had been driven to desperation by poverty and had no other recourse.

THE ACCOUNTS FOR 1877. On Wednesday the annual accounts for 1877 were presented to the Assembly. There was a Tory Government in power, our excellent Reformers continued to work eloquent on the outrage of keeping back the statement of the public expenditure so long, and dilate in their wonted fashion on the slothfulness, incapacity, and abnormal cunningness of the Ministry. The total receipts for 1877 were $1,468,000, and the total disbursements were $1,468,000. The accounts were presented to the Assembly, and the members discussed the details of the government's financial operations for the year.

NEWFOUNDLAND AFFAIRS. Lively Discussion on the Confederation Question. Voices in Favor of Union with the Dominion. The Dominion of Newfoundland has been a subject of lively discussion in the House of Commons. The members have debated the merits of union with the Dominion, and the advantages it would offer to the island. Some members are in favor of union, while others are opposed. The discussion has been lively and full of interest, and it is expected that a decision will be reached in the near future.

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION. Mr. MEREDITH moved for an order of the House to request His Majesty the Queen to call the attention of the Dominion Government to the fact that the expenditure during each year since 1870, on account of the settlement of the boundary between the Dominion of Ontario and the Province of Quebec, has been a heavy one, and that the Dominion Government should be called upon to contribute towards the same. The hon. member also moved for an order of the House to request His Majesty the Queen to call the attention of the Dominion Government to the fact that the expenditure during each year since 1870, on account of the settlement of the boundary between the Dominion of Ontario and the Province of Quebec, has been a heavy one, and that the Dominion Government should be called upon to contribute towards the same.

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION. Mr. MEREDITH moved for an order of the House to request His Majesty the Queen to call the attention of the Dominion Government to the fact that the expenditure during each year since 1870, on account of the settlement of the boundary between the Dominion of Ontario and the Province of Quebec, has been a heavy one, and that the Dominion Government should be called upon to contribute towards the same. The hon. member also moved for an order of the House to request His Majesty the Queen to call the attention of the Dominion Government to the fact that the expenditure during each year since 1870, on account of the settlement of the boundary between the Dominion of Ontario and the Province of Quebec, has been a heavy one, and that the Dominion Government should be called upon to contribute towards the same.

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION. Mr. MEREDITH moved for an order of the House to request His Majesty the Queen to call the attention of the Dominion Government to the fact that the expenditure during each year since 1870, on account of the settlement of the boundary between the Dominion of Ontario and the Province of Quebec, has been a heavy one, and that the Dominion Government should be called upon to contribute towards the same. The hon. member also moved for an order of the House to request His Majesty the Queen to call the attention of the Dominion Government to the fact that the expenditure during each year since 1870, on account of the settlement of the boundary between the Dominion of Ontario and the Province of Quebec, has been a heavy one, and that the Dominion Government should be called upon to contribute towards the same.

in the pay of the Crown under Provincial Government. There is no disputing that. But on referring to these accounts we find that in 1877 Mr. Crooks was understood to say that it was very right to get full information, but if the hon. gentleman examined the reports on Public Schools were full, because they were required to be sent in by the inspectors as duty of the Dominion Commons, could have discharged just as efficiently—the sum of $1,774; and that Mr. G. W. Ross, while Dominion Inspector, had drawn from the Crown in Ontario for services as a Crown prosecutor—services which were not paid for by the Dominion Commons, could have discharged just as efficiently—the sum of $1,774; and that Mr. G. W. Ross, while Dominion Inspector, had drawn from the Crown in Ontario for services as a Crown prosecutor—services which were not paid for by the Dominion Commons, could have discharged just as efficiently—the sum of $1,774.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS. The report of the Education Department was submitted to the Local Legislature on Wednesday, and from it we glean the following facts relating to educational matters in the Province. The total expenditure was $5,073,000, and the total receipts were $3,215,000, leaving a deficit of $1,858,000. The report also shows that the number of pupils in the schools has increased, and that the quality of education has improved.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

A POLITICAL SENSATION. Sweeping Charges Against the Late Nova Scotia Government. A CHALLENGE ACCEPTED. HALIFAX, N.S., Jan. 24.—Accepting the challenge of the Chronicle, the Herald this morning formulates the following charges against the late Local Government (1874), and demands from the new Conservative Government a thorough investigation under oath.

1st. The taking of some $71,000 out of the Treasury without authority and applying it to other than public purposes. 2nd. The taking of money out of the Treasury for the purpose of bribery, and never accounting for it. 3rd. The improper and corrupt manipulation of the Crown Lands of the Province, and corrupt and illegal transactions between the supporters of the late Government and the House in regard to those lands. 4th. Dishonest transactions of several members of the late Government with the Government in reference to public printing, by which the Province was defrauded of several hundred thousand dollars, most of which was collected by the members of the Government themselves. 5th. The taking by members of the Government of large sums of money from upon false and fraudulent representations. 6th. The purchase of the support of members of Parliament by the bestowal of office and the payment of pecuniary rewards. 7th. The repeated purchase and sale of the support of members of the late Government supporters in the House, with the Government's full knowledge and consent. 8th. The illegal, improper and corrupt use of "road advances," so-called, by the late Government in reference to the Government's full knowledge and consent. 9th. The corrupt and illegal transactions between the Government and various railway companies and contractors, by which the Province was defrauded of an enormous sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

CANADIAN ITEMS. A Historical Society has been formed at Winnipeg. A fresh outbreak of smallpox is reported in London East. A Philharmonic Society has been successfully organized at Belleville. The Belleville chief of police urges the use of the lash in punishing wife-beaters. Three thousand tons of ice have already been stored away in Winnipeg, Man., this season. A young lady aged thirteen was married the other day at Conson to a bridegroom of twenty-eight. A number of arrests have recently been made in Quebec of persons having brass knuckles in their possession. The Carleton, which sailed from Halifax for Liverpool on Tuesday night, took 3,116 packages of Canadian butter. Molroy, the ballist, who shot Marston, of Winnipeg, has been remanded for eight days. Marston is recovering. The water supply was cut off on Thursday from 3,500 Montreal tenements, on account of non-payment of rates. The safe in the office at Montreal, of Mr. M. H. Gault, M.P., was broken open on Tuesday night and $300 stolen. There have been forty deaths from diphtheria this winter at the settlement of Middle-Stewie, N.S.; principally children. The taking by members of the Government of large sums of money from upon false and fraudulent representations. The purchase of the support of members of Parliament by the bestowal of office and the payment of pecuniary rewards. The repeated purchase and sale of the support of members of the late Government supporters in the House, with the Government's full knowledge and consent. The illegal, improper and corrupt use of "road advances," so-called, by the late Government in reference to the Government's full knowledge and consent. The corrupt and illegal transactions between the Government and various railway companies and contractors, by which the Province was defrauded of an enormous sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE CAPTOR CAPTURED. How the Tables were Turned on an Oakville Man. A Novel Case at Oshesburg—A Youth who had more Wit than Education. Oshesburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A novel case came before the Court to-day, the history of which is about as follows: A young man named Fritz fled from Pennsylvania some time since, having in his pocket a large sum of money. He first went into New Jersey, and from there to Canada. Meantime the authorities in Pennsylvania were endeavoring to trace him, and he was eventually captured by a policeman in Ontario. The case was heard before the Court to-day, and the youth was found guilty of larceny. The judge sentenced him to a term of imprisonment, and fined him a large sum of money.

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully request that your Lordship will convey to the public mind, irrespective of party politics, in the Guildhall, to memorialize the Government to appoint a Parliamentary inquiry into the present prolonged depression of trade, with the view of necessary, of modifying our so-called free-trade system. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF DUBLIN. The Irish Times says:—"We are enabled to state, on high authority, that Dr. M'Cabe has been selected as the successor of the late Cardinal Cullen in the Archdiocese of Dublin. The announcement will be officially made on the 12th inst."

THE ENGLISH MAIL. Interesting Summary of News. THE CITY AND SO-CALLED FREE TRADE. The following memorial to the Lord Mayor is in order of the day. We, the undersigned, bankers, merchants, manufacturers, and others of the city of London, respectfully