

The Local News.

Lectures in the University have closed for the year. The final examinations will begin on Wednesday next.

W B Bruce, of the Bank of Montreal staff here, has been transferred to Chicago, and leaves for that city this week.

A militia order issued Saturday, states that infantry corps will hereafter be known as regiments instead of battalions.

Lieut H O Blair of Toronto, who is taking a military course here, is qualifying for the position of Adjutant of the 78th Highlanders.

A L McDougall, a student at Pine Hill College, Halifax, is here to conduct Presbyterian mission work at Maryland and Morrison's Mills, during the summer.

The Montreal Herald correspondent writing from Bloemfontein, April 6, says: "Captain Macdonnell is still very sick and a great number of the men are in the hospital sick with enteric fever."

Mr J D Freeman, and her son Ralph, left Friday night on the C. E. R., to attend the funeral of her father, the late Capt. James E. Buchanan, whose death occurred suddenly Thursday morning at Liverpool, N. S.

A small boy named Ryan, while playing upon some logs below the court house Friday afternoon, slipped off into the water. He was promptly fished out by George Clynick who happened to be near, and seemed none the worse for his experience.

T H Boyd, the baker who died at St. John, on Friday, was formerly a resident of Fredericton and owned some property here, one of his buildings on the Springhill road being known as Boyd's Cottage. He was 70 years old and left a wife and seven children.

The annual convocation exercises will be held in the college library on the evening of Monday May 28th. The alumni oration will be delivered by W P Dale of St. John, and G C Crawford will deliver the valedictory for the graduating class. Admission will be by ticket.

Mr and Mrs John J. Weddall, who have been on a trip to Bermuda for the benefit of Mr. Weddall's health, returned home Friday evening after an absence of four weeks. Mr. Weddall's many friends will be glad to know that his health has been greatly benefited by the trip.

The new file and drum band, lately organized at the R. C. R. I., played the corps and from the Cathedral Sunday morning. It was the band's first public appearance and it created a most favorable impression. The band consists of seven pieces and is under the competent leadership of Corporal Torrance.

Under the management of Norman Macdonald and Thos G Pheeny the new proprietors of the Watery House, this popular hostelry is doing a splendid business. Both the proprietors are most obliging and courteous, and the old Watery has taken a new lease of life with these gentlemen in control.

At the congregational meeting in the Methodist church Friday night, it was decided to repair the exterior of the church and make some extensive repairs to the parsonage. The proposition emanated from the board of trustees and was heartily endorsed by the meeting. It is understood that work will be commenced in the course of a few weeks.

A R Tibbitts, while bicycling on Queen street on Friday afternoon, was run into by another wheelman going in an opposite direction and sustained quite painful injuries. He was taken to hospital to the ground and considerably bruised about the left shoulder. His injuries are not serious enough, however, to prevent him from attending to his duties.

Rev J G Colquhoun who graduated from Pine Hill College, a few weeks ago, was in the city and preached very acceptably at St Paul's church, Sunday. He left Tuesday afternoon for Roseland, B. C., to engage in missionary work among the miners, and the many friends he made here during his work as catechist last year, will wish him every success in his new home.

Adam Moore, the staid and successful trader and sportsman, is starting this week on his annual pilgrimage to the Tobique and Nepisiquit rivers, in quest of fur bearing animals. He will be accompanied by a Mr. Backhouse of New York, who will spend a month hunting bears under Mr. Moore's guidance. Mr. Moore's son, and his hunting partner, Charlie Cremins, are already on the spot. They spent some weeks on the Nepisiquit last season, and met with great success, shooting and trapping no less than twenty bears, besides a number of sable, mink, and other small animals.

T. P. Hetherington has resigned his position as manager of the New Brunswick agricultural implement agency in this city, and has accepted an appointment offered him by the Dominion on a Yukon surveying party. He went down river this morning to visit his father, Thomas Hetherington, ex-M. P. for Queens, and will leave for Dawson City early next week. Mr. Hetherington, during his short stay here has made many friends, who will be glad of his good fortune, exceedingly regret his departure from this city.

The alarm of fire Saturday morning was for a slight blaze at the residence of L A Murrell, traveller for J. Clarke & Son, Sanders street. It appears that Mr. Murrell's little boy had applied a match to a pillow slip on a bed, "just to see it burn." Fortunately the fire was discovered before it had made much headway, otherwise the experient might have proved a costly one for the youngster as he got back into bed after applying the match and might have been suffocated or burned to death.
