

The Months Of Mary.

BY D. A. MAG.

However the seasons may vary, However the festivals fall, The months that are sacred to Mary, I ween are the sweetest of all!

The First Pope.

No name can ever be of more interest to the Catholic mind than that of St. Peter. We know that many of the Popes have been enrolled in the calendar; thirty have sealed the faith of Christ with their blood.

But, nevertheless, to the figure of the first memorable Pontiff the Catholic mind ever turns as the first link that binds the Church to its Divine Founder and what is human in it, to the eternal and supernatural.

St. Peter's life might well be divided into two parts by the biographer; the first his preparation among the disciples of St. John and our Saviour for His great destiny; the second begins with the first Feast of Pentecost, and continues to his crucifixion in Rome in '67.

Once he had embraced this life of sacrifice he became the Apostle of faith and love. The gospel narrative proved that he was regarded by our Lord from the beginning with special favor and affection.

"UPON THIS ROCK." The two prerogatives with which our Saviour endowed St. Peter as head of the Church were primacy of jurisdiction and personal infallibility.

build My Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give to thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven. And whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be loosed also in heaven.

THE PRINCIPLE OF INFALLIBILITY.

It will appear very strange that outside the Church so much difficulty is found with the doctrine of Papal infallibility unless we take into consideration the immediate consequence of such belief on the conscience.

One set in this portion of St. Peter's life must not be forgotten. It will serve to show still more clearly the divine character of Catholic faith. It is his great sin of denial.

THE FIRST DAYS OF THE CHURCH.

St. Peter began the active work of his Pontificate on the first day of Pentecost. The advent of the Holy Ghost produced wonderful effects in the little room of Jerusalem.

In these days of labor we find St. Peter performing the acts of jurisdiction that belonged to his office as Pontiff. He was the first mover in the election of a new apostle in the room of Judas Iscariot; he was the spokesman of the rest as we have seen on the day of Pentecost.

BONE FOOD

Soft and crooked bones mean bad feeding. Call the disease rickets if you want to. The growing child must eat the right food for growth.

Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment for soft bones in children. Little doses everyday give the stiffness and shape that healthy bones should have.

of prejudice of race by receiving a Gentle convert into the Church; he was the first to propound in the Council of Jerusalem the question to be discussed as to the Mosiac observance; and, finally, we find him acting as president at that council in 49.

THE LAST TRAGIC SCENE ON THE VATICAN HILL.

In Rome, the last tragic scene in St. Peter's life took place, it was a scene, too, worthy of the great Pope. The enemies of the Church viewed his success with horror.

Franciscan Tertiaries Among the Poor.

Time, which changes everything, has just wrought what to many persons may seem like a miracle by transforming the "House of all Nations," reputed once to be the most luxuriously equipped abode of vice in New York city, into a home for poor, unemployable servant girls.

HIS LIFE LIKE THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH.

The life of St. Peter is not unlike that of the Church. With the powers of the world against its influence on the souls of men every year and generation brings with it an ever-increasing harvest.

FEAST OF ST. PETER IN ROME.

The Feast of St. Peter is a day on which the Romans annually display their love and reverence for their first Bishop in an impressive and solemn manner.

of it in churches all over Christendom is becoming more and more common every day. It is a magnificent emblem of the Papacy itself. The metal of it once formed a statue of Capitoline Jove, who ruled the world from the Capitol Hill and was molded to represent the Prince of Apostles in commemoration of Leo the Great's victory over Atilla, "the scourge of God."

She.—Why, Black! Where on earth did you come from? He.—I came clean from Pittsburgh.

Colfax.—And so you think she was glad to see you? Dumley.—Oh, yes; almost the first thing she said was that she wished she had known I was coming.

"There's something the matter with this clock," said the office boy. "It won't strike."

"Heavens!" exclaimed the excited captain of industry, "and it's union-made, too!"

Inquisitive Party.—Do you write album verses? Poetical Party (whose hearing is very defective). No, not all I'm verses; but most of them are, I'm sorry to say.

Mrs. Hornhand.—It beats all how many of these here actors git intew public life after while.

Farmer Hornhand.—Why I see here ev'ry day in th' papers about "Actin' Sec'tary so-an-so," "Actin' Gov'nor so-an-so," 'an' all that.

"Don't you know," said the tall man at the free lunch counter, "I'd be satisfied with the world if I could find a pearl in this oyster soup."

"Some people want so much," sighed the little man; "I'd be satisfied if I could find an oyster."

He was a noble lord, and he was in an awful rage with one of his footmen. "It is intolerable!" he exclaimed. "Are you a fool or am I?"

"O, my lord," replied James with humility, anxious to appease the great man, "I am sure you wouldn't keep a servant who was a fool."

The Royal Month and the Royal Disease.

Sudden changes of weather are especially trying, and probably to none more so than to the scrofulous and consumptive. The progress of scrofula during a normal October is commonly great.

The six-year-old daughter of a certain naval officer was unconsciously ludicrous the other day. The child was sewing, when her older sister asked: "Why don't you use a pattern?"

The little miss replied with a dignity greater than her knowledge: "I don't need a pattern. I sew by ear."
