Let to-morrow take care of to-morrow; Leave things of the future to fate: What's the use to anticipate sorrow? Life's troubles came never too late ! If to hope overmuch be an error, 'Tis one that', the wise have preferred; And how oft have hearts been in terror Of evils—that never occurred!

Have faith-and thy faith shall sustain the Permit not suspicion and care
With invisible bands to enchain thee, With invisible bands to enchain thee,
But bear what God gives ther to bear.
By this Spirit supported and gladdened,
Be never by "forebodings" deterred;
But think how of thearts have been saddened
By fear—of what never-occurred I

Let to-morrow take care of to-morrow Short and dark as our life may appear, We may make it still darker with sorrow-Still shorter by folly and fear! Half our troubles are half our invention, And often from blessings conferred Have we shrunk in the wild apprehension Of evila that never occurred
