For a mousant the woman seemed damed, but, sollecting all her energies, she dashed out after him, and rashing up behind him, knocked him down, sained the child, and was carried back to the Court. There, with her child dinging to her breast, ahe made one of the most magnificent and touching appeals for atrict and imperial justice ever heard before the bar. The stem Judge and the bystandara were melted to tears, and the result was that the mother retained the possession of her darling, and the father is now looking towards the courts for relief.
