Mongolian Had Rough Passage.

SOME SEAMEN HURT.

The s.s. Mongolian, Capt. Peters, arrived here from Liverpool to-day at 8 a.m. after one of the most stormy voyages which her commander ever experienced. She left Liverpool on Tuesday, the 5th inst., and on the 6th ran into a hurricane of wind from the S. W. which after several hours veered to the N.W. with a tremendous confused sea, and the ship had a hard time of it wallowing in the waves. Gale succeeded gale on the voyage and the ship's speed was greatly retarded. Sunday, the 10th inst., was a particularly stormy day and sea after sea boarded the vessel and swept across her decks. One huge wave which came on board hurled a lamp trimmer named McPherson along the decks about ten hours and throwing the man against the bulwarks, severely injured him. His shoulder was found to be dislocated when picked up, three ribs were broken and he received several cuts and bruises. He was taken into the ship's hospital and Dr. Bailey set the fractured ribs and otherwise attended to the man, who is now improving. Three others of the crew were thrown about by the same sea and were injured, but not as badly as McPherson. Thursday and yesterday the weather was also very bad, and as the ship came in over the Banks the weather was intensely cold. Dr. Bailey was formerly on the Pomeranian. There is a new purser on the ship also who was heretofore on the Parisian, which vessel is now being repaired at Glasgow. During the blow of Thursday night the cargo shifted and gave the ship a decided port list. The ship brought 480 tons cargo and 12 bales and 7 baskets of mail matter. Her passengers were Mrs. John Browning, Miss Ivy Dean, A. H. Seymour, 6 intermediate and 7 steerage. The Mongolian sails at daylight for Halifax.

Got a Surprise.

At 3.15 this morning two policemen found a young man in Mr. W. J. Ellis' brickyard in the East End, and as so many larcenies have occurred of late, the officers became suspicious and arrested the man, who was found later to be a respectable mason, and who was discharged, he having assured the police of his innocence of any wrong doing. He had been working in the place and when found there was looking for some tools which he had left there.

Arrested for Forgery.

A few weeks ago it will be remembered a young man named Kenneth Snelgrove was 'sought after' by the police of Bell Island for raising a cheque in his own favour from $9 to $19. He had gone abroad but returned here within the past few days, and was arrested this morning by Sergt. Byrne. He belongs to Lower Island Cove. He passed the cheque at Mr. Martin's store, Bell Island, and to-day Mr. Sullivan despatched him to the Island under a police escort for examination before the Magistrate there.

Farewell Service.

To-morrow afternoon and night, and also on Monday night the meetings will be conducted by Ensign and Mr. Downey, at the Livingstone Street Barracks. On Monday night a lecture will be given by the Ensign. The Ensign and his wife will be leaving next week for British Guiana, W. L. as missionaries to labour amongst the coloured people, so all who would like to hear them before leaving for foreign service can do so by attending those services.

Mr. Joseph Frelich, brother of Mr. S. Frelich, this city, arrived from London by the Mongolian. He will reside in Newfoundland.

Financing a Show.

Probably no calling is so easy to enter for the totally unfitted as the stage. By the aid of a few pounds an engagement can be obtained. Week after week, in the columns of an English theatrical paper, can be seen advertisements, similar to the following: "Wanted: Ladies and Gentlemen for the Stage. Experience not necessary, but good appearance essential. Small premium, to be returned in salary. In nine cases out of ten the advertiser has little or no capital until the aspirant for histrionic honors joyfully parts with his or her premium."

With the money extracted from these deluded stage-struck individuals, the enterprising manager books a few halls in fit-up towns, hires a little weather-beaten scenery, engages one or two experienced actors, secures a piece for which there are no copyright fees, and commences his tour. The crash is not long in coming—the scenery and "properties" being seized by the hall-keeper for rent, whilst the manager, promptly absconds with as much as he can lay his hands on. Warned by parents and friends at the outset to have nothing to do with the stage, the disillusioned debutantes are ashamed to write home, and now begin the drifting process—drifting God knows where. In the case of young girls, the end does not bear thinking of.

Winter's Sunblind.

It will come as a surprise to the average householder to know that in the ordinary domestic grate four-fifths of the heat goes up the chimney. For four hundredweights of coal out of five he gets nothing for his money.

The city analyst of Manchester stated some time ago that out of every hundred tons of coal burnt in the factories of the Midlands, one ton remains in the air as soot. In every thousand pounds of coal there are, on the average, about eight pounds of sulphur, which escapes into the air and forms sulphur acid gas. Soot is said to encourage the growth of cancer; the acids in the smoke injure the lungs and brain.

London loses, through her smoke-cloud, fifty per cent. of the winter sunlight, and the annual cost of the output of coal smoke from domestic chimneys in London is estimated to be about $120,000,000. Smoke, in spite of many opinions to the contrary, does not act as a disinfectant. —London Answers.

Lost His Eyes.

Mr. Patrick Byrne, who is a laborer at Harvey & Co's, had a letter recently from his brother, Edward, who has been in Seattle the past 25 years, and who was here 22 years ago. In it he states that he recently was the victim of a terrible accident while at his vocation as a miner. While blasting there was a premature explosion and both his eyes were blown out. Mr. Byrne, we understand, is a well to do man, having made good money at the work. His brother here is endeavoring to get him home. The family originally came from Bay Roberts.

A HANDSOME PRESENT.—Last night a deputation of the Terra Nova Investment Club waited on Mr. Jno. Costello at his home and presented him with a handsome dinner set as a wedding present. Mr. Costello thanked the kind donors and afterwards entertained them.

The schr. Mary Whalen from Oporto to Grand Bank is now out over 60 days, and grave fears are entertained for her safety. She is owned by Patten and Forsay, and Capt. Patten who is in charge of her has his own son on board with 4 other men. Capt. Patten is part owner of the vessel.
