OFFICIAL.

LONDON, Nov. 25.

The Governor, Newfoundland:

France—The Germans have been obliged to fall back in places on the Rhin front.

Italy—Important successes on the Carso summit and near the Church of San Martino. Over five hundred prisoners captured.

Serbia—Enemy report capture of Novitsa and Prishtina.

BONAR LAW.

GREECE'S REPLY SATISFACTORY.

LONDON, Nov. 25.

Although the full text of the Greek Government's reply to the Entente

Powers has not yet been made public in England, there is every indication that the British Government is satisfied with the position taken at Athens.

The assurances given by Greece distinguish in a marked degree from her previous expressions of benevolent neutrality. They are neither vague nor excessive, but promise explicitly that no military measures will be taken against the Serbian, French or British troops in case they retreat to Greek territory. Whether this guarantee of safety to the allied troops will carry Greece to the extent of opposing with her army any German forces which might attempt to pursue the Allies across the Greek border probably will not be ascertained until full details are received. In regard to the assurances to London, however, it may be inferred that Greece has yielded on every essential point raised by the Allies. The situation therefore might be regarded as having been cleared.

GERMANS DISAPPOINTED.

BERLIN, Nov. 25.

Advices received here to-day from Oslo on the Danube, Serbia, disappointed the hopes of those who have been expecting the immediate production of copper from the mines at Yor, in northern Serbia, belonging to a French Company. Before they rereated, the Serbians destroyed the mining works, flooding the shafts, and tore down the buildings of the mines. A staff of German engineers has been sent to inspect the properties to determine whether it will be possible to resume operations.

LONDON BUDGET.

LONDON, Nov. 25.

Cordial relations between Greece and the Entente Powers have been established with the Greek Government's assurances that no attempt will be made to interfere with allied troops, should they under any contingency, be forced to cross the Greek frontier, and that, as heretofore, railway and other facilities will be afforded. That the assurances and guarantees that they will be abided by, are satisfactory to the allies is shown in the fact that Greek grain ships, which had been held up at Malata, have been allowed to proceed to their destinations, relieving what would have been a very serious shortage in bread supplies, if their detention had been prolonged. It is understood that the Allies also promised Greece monetary indemnity after the war for any damage which might be done through the occupation of Greek territory.

With this thorny question out of the way, the British public centred its interest upon the attitude of Roumania and the intervention of Russia. It is pretty well established that Russia has concentrated a great army near the Roumanian frontier. Despatches state that large numbers of heavy guns have arrived at Odessa from Japan, for its use. However the direction in which this army will move will be dictated by the policy the Roumanian Government adopts. Berlin shows some uneasiness but beyond that, and the statement by the Roumanian Premier, M. Bratiano that relations between Russia and Rou-mania were never better there is nothing better to go on.

T. J. EDENS,

Duckworth St. and Military Road.

As a result of the success of the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians in capturing command of Kossovo plain the Serbian Government has moved to Scutari, while the army is defending the little fringe of Serbia which lies between the Sitnica River and the Albanian and Montenegrin frontiers.

It can be provisioned from Scutari, from which place the Montenegrins have built good roads during their occupation. The Austrians are still in possession of the Serbians, but the Bulgarians are pushing toward it, while the army of General Von Gallwitz is reported to be on its way down the Vardar Valley to help the Bulgarians to attack the Anglo-French forces.

Heavy cannonading continues on the western front. Winter has put a stop to any big movement on the western front, while the Italians are persisting in their offensive, and are daily getting nearer Gorizia across the Isonzo, and to Rovereto and Riva in Trentino.

CANADIAN TROOPS ARRIVE IN

ONTARIO.

OTTAWA, Nov. 25.

It is officially announced through the press censor's office that the troop-ship Missanabe, which sailed from Canada with troops, has arrived safely in England.

GERMANY CLOSES SWISS FRON-

TIER.

GENEVA, Nov. 25.

Germany has again closed the Swiss frontier from Basel to Constance. It will probably remain closed for a week. Reason for action unknown.

GERMAN-AUSTRIAN OFFICERS IN

CHINESE ARMY.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 25.

The assertion is made by the Peking correspondent of the Novoe Vremya that German and Austrian officers are now being employed in the Chinese army, particularly in arsenals.

RELIEF OF BELGIUM.

GALVESTON, Nov. 25.

It was learned to-day that the commission for the relief of Belgium has carried five steamers, which will carry cargoes of wheat from this port within the next few weeks. The first of these ships, the steamer Photinia docked to-day.

GIVEN A SEAT IN THE CABINET.

LONDON, Nov. 25.

Herbert Samuel, Postmaster General, has been given a seat in the Cabinet. He has been appointed Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, the post recently vacated by Winston Spencer Churchill. Samuel will hold the position of Postmaster General. He will draw no salary as Chancellor of the Duchy.

BODIES OF GERMAN AVIATORS

FOUND.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 25.

The bodies of two German aero-naute pilot and observer of an aero-plane of the Albatross type, were discovered to-day in a marsh near Deinsk. The men had been frozen to death. The Albatross was permitted to cross the Russian lines. It escaped then but was cut off by a fleet of Russian aircraft.

WILL UNDERGO AN OPERATION.

GENEVA, Nov. 25.

Abbas Hilmi, former Khedive of Egypt, arrived here yesterday to undergo an operation on his tongue.

WILL BE KEPT BUSY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.

A pile of more than 3,000 telegrams was heaped on the desk of the White House to-day, all urging President Wilson to have the United States participate in the conference of neutral nations in an attempt to restore peace in Europe. The messages were sent from all parts of the country at the instance of the Women's Peace Party and made a pile several feet high.

The President has been informed that the conference will be held whether any action or not, but a verbal appeal will be made to him to-morrow by the Committee, headed by Miss Jane Adams, of Chicago.

TARA'S CREW REPORTED SAFE.

LONDON, Nov. 25.

Word was received to-day of the missing crew of the British boarding steamer Tara, sunk in the Mediteranean by a submarine. It was announced recently that the crew had been able to reach the Egyptian coast, but that it had been lost sight of after landing at an unnamed point in Northern Africa. To-day's announcement from the Admiralty follows: "News has been received that Capt. Williams and the rest of the survivors of the crew were seen at Eliziat, two days west of the Gulf of Sullum, at the border between Egypt and Tripoli; all well."

A NECESSARY BILL.

LONDON, Nov. 25.

A bill was introduced in the Commons to-day to restrict during the war increases in rents, and the calling in of mortgages on small dwelling houses in certain areas. The proposed measure applies to districts in which war munitions are manufactured, and where much bitterness has been aroused by the attempt of landlords to exploit the unusual demand for dwellings.
