Grove Hill Bulletin THIS WEEK.

We heartily thank our friends for the very liberal patronage they have accorded us during the year 1915. We feel all the more gratified that while the proprietor is in Europe fighting the battles of Empire, of Freedom and of Right, those at home have so generously supported us in his absence. Assuring our patrons that we will do our utmost in the coming year, as in the past, to give them the best possible service, we wish them all a HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.
