Advertising Pays.

Never before, in the history of newspaper advertising, have the papers of the country, morning, evening and Sunday, been so crowded with Sub-Collectors at the various points full page advertisements. Many advertisers are especially conspicuous by the frequency of their full pages, and they are the advertisers most notable for their success. They undoubtedly find that it pays more than ordinarily to have full pages for themselves, to attract first attention December 16th, one of the most inter- of the reader when he opens the esting minor holidays in the Jewish paper in which their ad. is dominant; calendar, will be celebrated for a peri- and that advertisements which overod of eight days.
