For Insect Bites.
Many people do not know how easily they can protect themselves and their children against the bites of gnats and other insects. Weak carbolic acid sponged on the skin and hair, and in some cases the clothing, will drive away the whole tribe.
The safest plan is to keep a saturated solution of the acid. The solution cannot contain more than 6 to 7 per cent, and it may be added to water until the latter smells strongly. This may readily and with perfect safety be applied with a sponge.

successful teachers whose work has come under our observation. This should be

Chief Attraction.

Among the chief attractions in the precedence of the Cook & Wills circuit last Saturday was the yellow wagon, which carries through all of Canada that most desirable of cures—"Williams' Royal Crown Remedy." This is what Mr. Weir says, whose life it saved: "This is a most marvelous cure. I became pale as a corpse; my blood seemed to be turned to water. I had dizziness and a ringing noise in my head; my hands and feet were cold all the time, and my limbs were completely swollen up to the body. Some doctors called it consumption of the blood. I got so weak that I could not walk, and finally took to my bed." Mrs. Weir says: "All Mr. Weir has told you is true. At times he lay for days unconscious and unable to take nourishment of any kind, and was reduced to a mere skeleton of 84 pounds; and I fully believe if we had been one day later in getting 'Williams' Royal Crown Remedy' he would be in his grave to-day. So it may well be said 'Williams' Royal Crown Remedy' saved John Weir's life. The best druggists keep Royal Crown Remedy; but if your druggist does not, remedy direct to Isaac Williams Company, London, and they will send it to you by first express. The price at which Royal Crown Remedy is sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with any other medical treatment. Six bottles for short time, inasmuch as three or four years ago John A. Cottam (who is a London boy, and used to be sergeant in the Seventh Band) knew little or nothing of shorthand.

Moral: Go ahead, boys.

The Scottish Demonstration.

Last night the general committee of the St. Andrew's Society of London and Clan Fraser made final preparations for the great picnic, Highland games, and demonstration at Fort Stanley on Tuesday next.
It was reported that complete arrangements had been made to have the pipers' band of the Forty-eighth Highlanders, Toronto, in attendance. This will be a most unique addition to the piping talent of London and St. Thomas. The drummers, too, will appear in Highland costume. For the games committee it was reported that a list of 30 events had been prepared and printed, valuable prizes being offered in each case.
The Highland and Irish dances in costume and the baby show will be special features.
Full particulars as to train service is given in our advertising columns today.

Death of John Tanton.

A pioneer of London died yesterday when Mr. John Tanton passed away at his home on King street. Mr. Tanton came to this city from St. Giles, Devonshire, England, in 1849, when the town of London was surrounded by virgin forest.
He went into business and literally grew up with the city. He was the oldest established grain merchant on the market and the name of his firm (John Tanton & Son) has been familiar to the farmers of the country side for a couple of generations. Deceased was of a retiring disposition and did not seek civic honors to any extent, yet he filled the position of school trustee for No. 3 ward for several terms with much ability.
Although he had been ailing for some time the end came suddenly and he breathed his last at noon yesterday after a painful attack of his malady of two days' duration. Mr.
Tanton was 65 years and 6 months old, and was of Conservative principles. He was a member of Dundas Street Methodist Church, a Mason, and a member of St.
George's Society. Mrs. Tanton (nee Rebecca Fitzgerald, sister of F. A. Fitzgerald), a son, B. P. Tanton, and a daughter, Edna R. M. Tanton, survive him. The funeral will be private to Mount Pleasant at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The Longest Word.

The longest word in the English language is not "smiles," although there is a mile between its first and last letters (s-m-i-l-e-s).
One of the happiest words, however, is healthy, real, rugged, robust, rousing, red faced health. There is neither boon nor blessing like it. Yet thousands have lost it and it stays lost. This need not be.
Myriads have regained their health by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. An invaluable remedy for consumption or lung scrofula, bronchitis, asthma, cough, heart disease, fever and ague, intermittent fever, dropsy and many other diseases.
