Secretary of War Root Says He Won't Have to Explain Remarkable Statement.

Washington, Dec. 11. - The statenents attributed to General Mac-Arthur, as contained in last night's dispatch from Honolulu, in which he is alleged to have predicted war in !he hould a fire occur.

It would cost the occupant of such a immediate future between the United premises $1.41 to have his premises States and Germany, have come to the It is no wonder the business public notice of Secretary of War Root. In an interview with the Associated Press oday, the secretary said that the only information he had with the subject was what he had seen in the newspapers. He did not, however, regard it as a case calling for action, inasmuch as the dispatch quotes Gen. Mac. Aithur as saying that the statements in Col. Jones' report to Gov. Carter did any particular and utterly misrepresent them in some. Secretary Root made the assertion that remarks of this character delivered in private conversation would not necessarily hield an officer from the requirement of an explanation, but he said that Gen. MacArthur's denial carries with
