MUSIC AND DRAMA

GUY BROS. TONIGHT.

Guy Bros' company this year number among others such entertainers as "The Panamas," the three wonderful acrobats, Montague, with his sensational back somersault from a lofty pedestal; Nichols and Mott, Ivers and Brown, and Schaeffer and Guy. Guy Bros' Minstrels will be at the Grand tonight.

NANNETTE COMSTOCK, IN "THE CRISIS."

An engagement of great importance is announced for tomorrow (matinee and night) at the Grand, when Nannette Comstock will make her first appearance in this city as a star in Winston Churchill's successful play, "The Crisis." The play is not new in its only one presenting, "The Prince" this year in this country, the composite cast comprising Misses Ida Stanhope, Almyra Forrest, Jeannette Bageard, Marie Welsh, Stella Martine and Jess Dandy, and Messrs.
Arthur Donaldson, Ivar Anderson, Percy P. Ames and J. Francis Sullivan. Miss Esquard, Mr. Donaldson and Mr. Anderson created the parts they play. Besides the above well-known principals, there is a good singing chorus of 29 people. The security and costumes are magnificent.

"THE PRINCE OF PILSEN."

In the company which will be seen in "The Prince of Pilsen" at the opera house on Monday, Nov. 21, but three new in their parts at the beginning of the season. Both of last season's companies contributed to the present organization, which is the only one presented. "The Prince" this year in this country, the composite cast comprising
Misses Ida Stanhope, Almyra Forrest,

MARKS BROS. AT THE GRAND.

Marks Bros' dramatic and vaudeville company will come to the Grand for five nights and Saturday matinee, commencing Tuesday, Nov. 22. They will open with the comedy-drama, "The Emerald Lure." There will be a change of bill each night. Special high-class vaudeville novelties will be given between the acts, making it a continuous performance, and practically giving two shows in one. The following popular novelties will prevail during the engagement, viz., 10, 15 and 25 cents.

LONDON AND DISTRICT

—Mrs. S. McWhorter, Petrolia, spent the holiday with friends in this city.
—The London Old Boys of Toronto is visiting in Chicago and St. Louis, Mo.
—Miss Olive Hollingshead, Petrolia, has taken a position with a London firm.
—Mrs. (Dr.) Livingstone and daughter, of Melita, Manitoba, are visiting Principal Macquhen, South London.
—The Cooper property in Corunna has been sold by W. D. Hoveny, of Stratford, to W. H. Davis, of this city.
—The London Old Boys of Toronto are to meet on Nov. 21 and nominate officers for 1905. A committee will also be named to co-operate with the London council in making arrangements for next year's big gathering.

—Rev. J. A. Wilson, assistant pastor of Knox Presbyterian Church, Peterboro, has been chosen by the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Hamilton, to succeed Rev. A.
McWilliams, who some time since departed for Ontario. Other candidates considered were Revs. A. C. Wishart, of Beaverton, and Rev. D. McCullough, of Harrington.

—The marriage of Miss Jennie Sinclair, of this city, to Dr. Morrison H.
Castle, of Cleveland, took place on Monday, Nov. 15, at 2 o'clock, p.m., at the home of the groom's father, Mr.
Henry B. Castle, of Ashtabula, Ohio.
After an extended wedding trip to New York, Philadelphia, and other places, the bride and groom returned to Cleveland, where they will be at home at 121 Quincy street, Cleveland, after Dec. 1.
STILL UNCONSCIOUS.

George Braund, who was injured by the bursting of an empty wheel in the new McClary works on Wednesday afternoon, still lies unconscious in Victoria Hospital, and but small hopes are entertained of his recovery.

E. M. LIBERAL CONVENTION.

The Liberals of East Middlesex are again reminded of the importance of the convention to be held on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Business of the greatest importance is to be transacted, and every subdivision in the riding should be represented.

SHIRT HOLIDAY COULD.

The holiday police court was not a long one, the majority of the cases being adjourned until today. Two men were charged with non-support and were remanded until Monday. A man named Jerry Slaughter, accused of stealing a bundle of shirts from the store of J. & D. Ross, was similarly remanded. He was also remanded until Monday. Two first timers were given walking tickets.

FIREMEN WERE NOT NEEDED.

Smoke issuing from the windows of Wm. Stevely & Son's store on Richmond street, caused a passer-by to call out the firemen last night. It developed, however, that there was no cause for alarm, as the smoke came from the furnace, where a quantity of paper was being burned.

WEDDING AT FOREST.

Wednesday evening Rev. D. S. Hamilton, of the First Congregational Church, officiated at a wedding in Forest, where the bride, Miss Mary Scott, daughter of Mr. William Scott, was married to Mr. John Cooper, of Toronto. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Scott, and the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Garvin Cooper, of Toronto.

FORESTERS HAVE SUPPER.

A most enjoyable affair was the oyster supper given last night by Court Welcome, I. O. F., in celebration of its nineteenth anniversary. After the supper, Bro. Thomas Bro. Hunter and chair, and an interesting programme of toasts was introduced. On the platform were Bros. Nimmo and W. Legg, who gave the chief address. The addresses, dealing with the progress of the order, were delivered by High Chief Rangers Charles H. Merryfield and R. D. Cameron, Bros. Hunter and M. A. Donohue, and Superintendent of Deputies G. A. Mitchell, Miss Den-gate and Mrs. Kernohan rendered songs in good voice, and Miss Malone gave a recitation. It is proposed to hold a grand general initiation in the near future.

ECKERT-THOMPSON.

At the residence of her brother, P.
C. Daniel Thompson, on Wednesday evening, Miss Jennie Thompson was wedded to Mr. J. J. Eckert, of this city. The bride was of a quiet nature, only the immediate relatives being present at the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. J. Ross.
Mrs. Phillips suffered from several attacks of an internal ailment during the past six months, but hopes of her restoration to health are bright. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of blue, Mr. and Mrs.
Eckert left for a honeymoon trip in the west.

INVITED TO PASTORATE.

The congregation of the Forest, Central and North Flynn Congregational Churches are anxious to secure Rev.
G. A. McKenzie, who has lately been engaged, in evangelistic work with headquarters in London, as their pastor. Mr. McKenzie was formerly pastor of the Stratford Congregational Church. The above-mentioned churches will await his answer to the invitation, which they have given him, with expectation.

DEATH OF MRS. JEPSON.

On Wednesday afternoon the death occurred in this city of Mrs. Samuel M.
Jepson, the event occurring at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
George Fawcett, of 351 Adelaide street.
The late Mrs. Jepson was only a few weeks ago from a trip to the Northwest, whither she had gone in a vain attempt to regain her health. She had been in for some time, but her sudden death was not expected, and her bereaved relatives will thus have in an especially large degree the sympathy of all their friends. Mrs.
Jepson is survived by her husband and four children, Marshal, Ewart, Russell and Gwendoline. The parents and the following brothers and sisters are also left to mourn her untimely demise: Charles H. Fawcett, Elmwood avenue, city; Albert G., at home, Mrs.
J. D. Brock, Wilmot; Man, Edward Medicine Hat, Assa.; Miss Nettie, Winnipeg, Man.; Frederick J., Duluth, Minn.; Ernest B., Toronto; Mrs. Wilson, 1000 Waverley road. The funeral will be private.

CLARKE-BURWELL.

At Trinity Church, Detroit, the marriage took place yesterday afternoon, of Miss Cecil Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Burwell, of 985 Eighteenth street, to George Arthur Clarke, son of Mr. Charles Clarke, of Lambton, Ont. The bride was attired in a gown of white voile, trimmed with lace, and carried a bouquet of white flowers. Mr. Gilroy, the bride's sister, acted as matron of honor, and wore a gown of blue. The groom was assisted by Mr. Wm. Gilroy. After wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke left for Cleveland.
