MR. WRIGHT TO HAVE ASSISTANT

The Board of Works Decides to Provide City Engineer With More Help.

FOLLOW RULES OF ROAD

Mayor Beattie Reported That the City Solicitor Is Preparing a Bylaw For City of London.

An assistant city engineer well be secured at once for London. At the meeting of the Board of Works, held last evening, City Engineer Wright called attention to the fact that he had no assistant, and that one was necessary.

had no assistant, and that one was necessary.

"We need an extra man," said Ald, Mitchell. Mr. Wright has more than he can handle at the present time. He has been doing alone what two or three did formerly and we should give him an assistant."

Ald, Saunders and Ald, Morgan also pointed out that the committee could not expect him to do all the work. A motion was passed to the effect that applications for an assistant city engineer be asked for at once.

Mayor Beattic reported that he had taken the matter of road regulations up with the city solicitor, and that he was preparing a bylaw to compel all vehicles to fellow the rules of the road under penalty.
