Great Outclearing of Children's Wash Dresses and Underwear Tuesday

Soiled or Mussed, Half Price--- Many Less Than Half Gingham and Print Dresses, White Dresses,

Skirts, Drawers, Pinafores, Gowns and Infants' Barrows and Slips

Room must be made for new fall stocks. Our buyers have returned from Europe, and we have already advice of heavy importations on the way. Some are already here. Summer stocks must go, and assortments in some lines are fuller than is usually the case, owing to the continued cool weather, which works out more in your favor when the time comes to clear the tables. Last week we advertised the final clearing of Ladies' Whitewear, the biggest sale of the kind we ever listed, which to our surprise were practically all cleared in the forenoon.

Tomorrow the same reductions will be applied to the Children's Wear. Half price and less for hundreds and hundreds of garments which you will find a complete list of below, the reductions on which bring the cost below the price you would in most cases pay for the bare material in the garments, say nothing of the trimmings and cost of making. If you have girls to dress don't miss this sale tomorrow. Come early and make sure of getting sizes for all. Mostly all are soiled or mussed from handling, but all are fast washing colors.
