Cynthia was too busy to cut these out to fill all requests, so an army of volunteer cutters arose.

At the time preliminary steps were being taken in London to build a children's hospital as a memorial to men of Canada, and especially those of Western Ontario, who had given heir lives in the great war, someone had an inspiration to turn the stocking-foot pattern to still better ac-count, through raising money for a mail box subscription.
So the Fund Grew.

When the dimes, shin plasters and dollars showered in, ambition grew to make the contribution a memorial When the $500 for this was ex ceeded, the question was raised, "Why not a cot?" And cot it is to be. True, in the meantime, many other revenue-producing articles have appeared on the Mail Box route, seeds, bulbs, music, crochet patterns. But
