

tments outside the province, while are afraid to come and try their The most influential business men ties, as well as the workingmen, osed to Mr. Martin." Columbia enjoying prosperity reins;

redly.

or two ago, when I arrived there, was flourishing in this privileg-of Canada, and I do not see why rity could be continued to-day the reasons I have mentioned pable depression in business.

think this state of affairs will ts only temporary. With the de-McInnes and Martin everyflourish once more. I believe imbia is the richest province in natural resources to an enquiry about the gen s, Sir Hibbert said the Liberalives would be too happy to have r. "Dame rumor says they will August or October." are the chances of the Liberal-there will be a sweep such as en seen before in Ontario, and a Cont. The fact is, in this o find a man who serious ify the government be a candidate in Nova Scotia, tou county Mr. Bell and I will candidates." what you have seen and from what then, the Laurier governme ited? ent is, in fact, demoralized.

ion in the min ems to be no cohesion in the min-arty, which is already sliding to t related some amusing illustra the disintegrating process now go-n the Liberal party, and, in concluing to a question as to the Marisaid ot been able to be there for a , but we received good news. The nt of Prince Edward Island canain itself except by force. #In ia our friends are full of confi-In New Brunswick, 1 do not think will carry more than two

DIED.

TT-In this city, on the 17th inst., Wallace Barnett, a native of ck, England, aged 66 years.

Span.

RDSON-On the 19th inst. at the ily residence, cor. Oatherine and de streets, Victor'a West, Ralph B. andson, ared 75 years, a native of ham Co., England.

-On Thursday, the 17th inst., at 42 eet, city, Isabelle Mann, w he late James Tyson, late of Selkirk, tland, aged 67 years.

Mr Eborts was proposed by Adam Nomination but Decimed.	whence there is infect communication with Johannesburg. Gen, Hamilton's column is at Bosel bank; which is close to the river abot three miles northwest of Wolvehoek. Roberts' headquarters may be en- pected to also cross the Vaal river an create a diversion on the flank of an Federal force in the neighborhood (Vereeniging. As he has only about 1 miles to travel, the speedy announcement may be expected that the British con- mander-in-chief himself has gained foothold in the Transvaal, and that h will remove the Federal position south of Johannesburg in the middle of the con- ing week. Gen, Rundle ought to be close to Both ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Buller's for will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Han 1 liton occupied Heilbron on Thesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterne anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided to day to make no change in the attitude.	 minute the init of the verse to were heard as to the facilities for transportation. The roads leading to the scene of the regatta, usually very dusty at this season of the year were used by hundreds of pedestrians, the dust having been effectively laid by the rains of the previous evening. This Worship Mayor Hayward, beaming with good nature at the successful termination of the Queen's Birthday festivities, with Mrs. Hayward, Miss Hayward and members of the reception committee, during the afternoon entertained hundreds to lunch and refreshments on the civic barge, which was resplendent in a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. Numerous visitors from the Sound cities of paid a visit to the barge and were hosail. The races were in every way excellent, and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt calling of the different events. 	Four Goals to Two. Four Goals to Two. In the first match of the lacrosse sea- son played at the Oak Bay grounds yes- terday afternoon before some fifteen hundred spectators, the blue of Victoria went down before the stick-handlers in maroon from New Westminster. The Victoria players were beaten by a score of four goals to two. It was twelve minutes past three when the teams lined up—the new rule where- by teams coming on the field twenty min- utes late lose a goal by default, making in the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neithers team a vantage point. Nor was there the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much gams, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, Norman Goal Chont A. W. Gray W. Lorimer Point A. W. Gray W. Lorimer Doint A. W. Gray W. Lorimer Doint A. W. Gray W. Lorimer Doint A. W. Gray W. Lorimer Cold. W. B. Galbrath E. M. Burns " T. Gifford M. Finlaison " T. Gifford M. Finlaison " T. D. Field W. B. Galbrath E. M. Burns " T. Gifford M. Finlaison " T. Market A. Latham W. Scholefield H. Field H. Latham W. Stenhene	The third game was even more ragged well from the face, but their passing was greatly inferior to that of the visitors. There shooting, too, was still bad, and soon after the game opened, a capital chance was missed. They, however, re- turned to the attack and after two at- tempts. Tite ran down and after some team work Stephens passed to Burns, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whastle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four munutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- tor the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless hot may blaying the ball, the goal would not have been allowed.	On Saturday and Sunday, March and 11, severe engagements were fough The Boers repulsed a number of from attacks, but the steady swing of t British cavalry around their left fla compelled a retirement. This sealed t fate of Bloemfontein. A panicky feeling swept over the cir- ian population. The raiway station w besieged by refugees waiting the depu- ture of trains. Several special trai- had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatio Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean in the day sent bio.car with instruction
Mills. G. Brown, proposed by P. C. Mac Gregor, seconded by Alex, Wilson; assenting, A. G. McSandless, Jas, Bell, Bowan 1 1 H. Octteral, Jas, Targe, A. G. Hay, Barrie 1 1 agent, S. Perry Mills. Barrie 1 1 R. Hall, proposed by T. B. Hall, seconded by D. Spencer: assenting, A. G. McCandless, Jas, D. Cox, J. H. Bast Lillooet- 1 Baker, seconded by R. C. Maceffergor; assenting, A. G. McCandles, J. M. C. Mareffergor; assenting, A. G. McCandles, J. G. Odox, J. H. Bast Lillooet- 1 Joseph Martin, proposed by B. R. Scabrooke and C. A. Holland. Assenting, John Kinsman. Edward Brags, 1 1 J. H. Turner, proposed by J. B. Godacre: assenting, John Kinsman. Edward Brags, 1 1 1 J. Stuart Yates, proposed by John Bell. W. The candidates assenting, John Kinsman, Edward Brags, 1 1 1 Bereist Paice 1 1 1 1 1 J. Stuart Yates, proposed by John Bell. W. The candidates assenting, John Kinsman, Edward Brags, 1 1 1 Bereist Paice 1 1 1 1 1 J. Stuart Yates, proposed by John Bell. W. The candidates assenting, John Kinsman, Edward Brags, 1 1 <td< td=""><td>whence there is infect communication with Johannesburg. Gen, Hamilton's column is at Bosel bank; which is close to the river abot three miles northwest of Wolvehoek. Roberts' headquarters may be en- pected to also cross the Vaal river an create a diversion on the flank of an Federal force in the neighborhood (Vereeniging. As he has only about 1 miles to travel, the speedy announcement may be expected that the British con- mander-in-chief himself has gained foothold in the Transvaal, and that h will remove the Federal position south of Johannesburg in the middle of the con- ing week. Gen, Rundle ought to be close to Both ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Buller's for will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Han 1 liton occupied Heilbron on Thesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterne anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided to day to make no change in the attitude.</td><td>were heard as to the facilities for trans- portation. The roads leading to the scene of the regatta, usually very dusty at this season of the year were used by hundreds of pedestrians, the dust having been effectively laid by the rains of the previous evening. This Worship Mayor Hayward, beam- of ing with good nature at the successful termination of the Queen's Birthday fes- tivities, with Mrs. Hayward, Miss Hay- ward and members of the reception com- anittee, during the afternoon entertained hundreds to junch and refreshments on of the civic barge, which was resplendent in a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. Numerous visitors from the Sound cities of aid a visit to the barge and were hos- pitably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The races were in every way excellent, and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a facture of which was the prompt call- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- iastically applauded races of the series were the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature, af- General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- oared lapstreak amateur event, for the to- championship of British Columbia. Our of bors ware naise the four- mand in the series was the prompt call-</td><td>In the first match of the lacrosse sea- son played at the Oak Bay grounds yes- terday afternoon before some fifteen went down before the stick-handlers in marcon from New Westminster. The Victoria players were beaten by a score of four goals to two. It was twelve minutes past three when the teams lined up—the new rule where- by teams coming on the field twenty min- utes late lose a goal by default, making in the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neither the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many miffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team gractice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, S. Norman Goal A. W. Gray W. Lorimer Point A. W. Gray W. Lorimer District. The fifted A. Belfry D. Field. W. B. Galbrath E. M. Burns "T. Gifford M. Finlaison "T. C. District. A. Turnbull W. Scholefield H. Field H. Latham W. Stenhene</td><td>the result would have been different, for he had an open goal. If—but then, the its did not occur. The third game was even more ragged than the second. Victoria started off well from the face, but their passing was greatly inferior to that of the visitors. There shooting, too, was still bad, and soon after the game opened, a capital chance was missed. They, however, re- turned to the attack and after two at- tempts, Tite ran down and after some team work Stephens passed to Burns, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whastle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four munutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carried the fifth with z action of the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria to the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic-</td><td>Bloemfontein: The following breezy and probable somewhat fanciful story of Preside Steyn's flight from Bloemfontein is giv by a New York Herald corresponde with the Boer forces. On Saturday and Sunday, March and 11, severe engagements were foug The Boers repulsed a number of from attacks, but the steady swing of t British cavalry around their left fla compelled a retirement. This sealed the fate of Bloemfontein. A panicky feeling swept over the civis in population. The railway station w besieged by refugees waiting the dep ture of trains. Several special train- had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatio Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box cas where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds we could obtain no places in the trains is in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when the English would arrive. About else o'dock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came calloping in with word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrifi to the day event bingered. He had, ean to the day event bing car with instruction</td></td<>	whence there is infect communication with Johannesburg. Gen, Hamilton's column is at Bosel bank; which is close to the river abot three miles northwest of Wolvehoek. Roberts' headquarters may be en- pected to also cross the Vaal river an create a diversion on the flank of an Federal force in the neighborhood (Vereeniging. As he has only about 1 miles to travel, the speedy announcement may be expected that the British con- mander-in-chief himself has gained foothold in the Transvaal, and that h will remove the Federal position south of Johannesburg in the middle of the con- ing week. Gen, Rundle ought to be close to Both ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Buller's for will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Han 1 liton occupied Heilbron on Thesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterne anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided to day to make no change in the attitude.	were heard as to the facilities for trans- portation. The roads leading to the scene of the regatta, usually very dusty at this season of the year were used by hundreds of pedestrians, the dust having been effectively laid by the rains of the previous evening. This Worship Mayor Hayward, beam- of ing with good nature at the successful termination of the Queen's Birthday fes- tivities, with Mrs. Hayward, Miss Hay- ward and members of the reception com- anittee, during the afternoon entertained hundreds to junch and refreshments on of the civic barge, which was resplendent in a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. Numerous visitors from the Sound cities of aid a visit to the barge and were hos- pitably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The races were in every way excellent, and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a facture of which was the prompt call- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- iastically applauded races of the series were the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature, af- General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- oared lapstreak amateur event, for the to- championship of British Columbia. Our of bors ware naise the four- mand in the series was the prompt call-	In the first match of the lacrosse sea- son played at the Oak Bay grounds yes- terday afternoon before some fifteen went down before the stick-handlers in marcon from New Westminster. The Victoria players were beaten by a score of four goals to two. It was twelve minutes past three when the teams lined up—the new rule where- by teams coming on the field twenty min- utes late lose a goal by default, making in the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neither the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many miffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team gractice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, S. Norman Goal A. W. Gray W. Lorimer Point A. W. Gray W. Lorimer District. The fifted A. Belfry D. Field. W. B. Galbrath E. M. Burns "T. Gifford M. Finlaison "T. C. District. A. Turnbull W. Scholefield H. Field H. Latham W. Stenhene	the result would have been different, for he had an open goal. If—but then, the its did not occur. The third game was even more ragged than the second. Victoria started off well from the face, but their passing was greatly inferior to that of the visitors. There shooting, too, was still bad, and soon after the game opened, a capital chance was missed. They, however, re- turned to the attack and after two at- tempts, Tite ran down and after some team work Stephens passed to Burns, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whastle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four munutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carried the fifth with z action of the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria to the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic-	Bloemfontein: The following breezy and probable somewhat fanciful story of Preside Steyn's flight from Bloemfontein is giv by a New York Herald corresponde with the Boer forces. On Saturday and Sunday, March and 11, severe engagements were foug The Boers repulsed a number of from attacks, but the steady swing of t British cavalry around their left fla compelled a retirement. This sealed the fate of Bloemfontein. A panicky feeling swept over the civis in population. The railway station w besieged by refugees waiting the dep ture of trains. Several special train- had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatio Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box cas where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds we could obtain no places in the trains is in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when the English would arrive. About else o'dock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came calloping in with word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrifi to the day event bingered. He had, ean to the day event bing car with instruction
gor, seconded by Alex. Wilson; as- ting, A. G. McCandless, Jas. Barrie arrive agent, John Klusman. A. Hall, proposed by T. B. Hall, sec- ced by Capt. W. Grant; assenting. John Klusman. J. Heincken, proposed by J. D. Heincken, proposed by J. A. G. McGandless J. G. Cox, J. Berrie arrive agent, W. C. Moresby. Seconded by D. Spencer; assent- lactors et al. West Lilloot- seen Martin, proposed by D. Lewis B. Seconded by R. C. MacGregor; as- ting, John Bell. W. T. Hardaker, R. Brooke and C. A. Holland. Assent B. Seconded by I. Hardaker, R. Brooke and C. A. Holland. Assent B. Seconded by J. Goodarce; as- ting, John Bell. W. T. Hardaker, R. Brooke and C. A. Holland. Assent B. Seconded by J. Goodarce; as- ting, John Klusman. Guward Brags, V. Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. Byrn. Stuart Yates, proposed by John Stewart, R. T. Williams, H. Catterall, Stewart, R. T. Williams, R. Catterall, Stewart R. T. Williams, R. Catterall, Stewart R. T. Williams, R. Catterall, Stewart, George Jay. It Esquinalt the same quietness pre- ted as in the city. The candidates minated are: agenting, John Jardine and J. E. William Flasher and John Muir; as- tin, Sones, Win. R. Scate, Dorogen, Geo, Skinner. Neria assenting, John J. Bard, Fred. Villiam Henry Holys, and Annet assenting. John F. Chnriers, Al- tri assenting, John J. Bard, Fred. William Flasher and John Muir; as- tin, Henry Cogan, James Phair, Imare Balvard Pooley, barristerat, Fernhill, Esquinalt road, proposed William Flasher and John Muir; as- tin, Henry Cogan, James Phair, Imare Schward Pooley, barristerat, Fernhill, Esquinalt road, proposed by Thomas Argyle, and Annet William Flasher and John Muir; as- tin, Henry Cogan, James Phair, Imare Balven, Tow M. Eberts and M. Townishion but Declined. Art NANAIMO. Mr. Dunsmuir Pressed to Accept th Nomination but Declined.	Gen. Hamilton's column is at Bosel banks, which is close to the river about three miles northwest of Wolvehoek. Roberts' headquarters may be ex- pected to also cross the Vaal river an create a diversion on the flank of an Federal force in the neighborhood of Vereeniging. As he has only about 1 miles to travel, the speedy announcement may be expected that the British con- mander-in-chief himself has gained foothold in the Transvaal, and that he will remove the Federal position south of Johannesburg in the middle of the con- ing week. Geu, Rundle ought to be close to Boll ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Buller's fore will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron he Federals be true, it will be a totally un expected development, as Gen. Ian Han 1 iton occupied Heilbron on Theesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterne anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided to day to make no change in the attitude.	ch- out this season of the year were used by hundreds of pedestrians, the dust having been effectively laid by the rains of the previous evening. His Worship Mayor Hayward, beam- of ing with good nature at the successful termination of the Queen's Birthday fes- tivities, with Mrs. Hayward, Miss Hay- ward and members of the reception com- mittee, during the afternoon entertained hundreds to lunch and refreshments on of the civic barge, which was resplendent in a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. Numerous visitors from the Sound citles of aid- ite course was kept fairly well cleared; and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a facture of which was the prompt call- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- iastically applauded races of the series were the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature, af- General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- oare lapstreak amateur event, for the to- championship of British Columbia. Our of box ware nalay bay the crowed	In the first match of the lacrosse sea- son played at the Oak Bay grounds yes- terday afternoon before some fifteen hundred spectators, the blue of Victoria went down before the stick-handlers in marcon from New Westminster. The Victoria players were beaten by a score of four goals to two. It was twelve minutes past three when the teams lined up-the new rule where- by teams coming on the field twenty min- utes late lose a goal by default, making in the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neither the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game-but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, S. Norman Goal C. PointF. Lynch e. A. Belfry D. Field. W. B. Galbrath E. M. Burns C. D. Peele C. Blain Centre A. Urnbull M. Finlaison a. Turnbull W. ScholefieldH. Field H. Latham W. Stonhens	its did not occur. The third game was even more ragged than the second. Victoria started off well from the face, but their passing was greatly inferior to that of the visitors. There shooting, too, was still bad, and soon after the game opened, a capital chance was missed. They, however, re- turned to the attack and after two at- tempts, Tite ran down and after some tam work Stephens passed to Burns, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after- wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whistle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four munutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in. Cullin cheek- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to cheek the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carried for the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the time and had the new rule set on the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six	The following breezy and probab somewhat fanciful story of Preside Steyn's flight from Bloemfontein is giv by a New York Herald corresponde with the Boer forces. On Saturday and Sunday, March and 11, severe engagements were fougi the Boers repulsed a number of from attacks, but the steady swing of t British cavalry around their left fla compelled a retirement. This sealed t fate of Bloemfontein. A pancky feeling swept over the civ ian population. The railway station w besieged by refugees waiting the depu ture of trains. Several special trai had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatio Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear gnard, stationed o side the town, came calloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif up the day sout lingered. He had, ean in the day a cant his can with instruction
ing, A. G. McCandless, Jas. Bell, Catterel, Jasa. Tarze, A. G. Hary, ind, S. Perry Mills. Martin, proposed by T. B. Hall, sec. do y Capt. W. Grant; assenting, A. McBielian, L. Goodacte E. B. Marager, John Kinsman. D. Helmcken, proposed by J. er, seconded by D. Spencer; assent-A. G. McCandless J. G. Cox, J. H. rer, seconded by R. O. MacGregors; assent-A. G. McCandless J. G. Cox, J. H. seph Martin, proposed by Dr. Lewis h. seconded by R. O. MacGregors; assent-Responded by J. C. Bodreet- rer, Jacobie By R. MacGregors; assent-Responded by L. Goodacte; assenting, John Kinsman. Bdward Bragg, N. Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. Syn. Stewart, R. T. Willama, H. Catteral, ring, Joavid Kirkwood. L., Catteral, N. Proposed by J. Catteral, N. Bowell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. Stewart, R. T. Willama, H. Catteral, ring, Joavid Kirkwood. L., Catteral, Natting, George Vebb, W. Rescuence by J. Cherrer, Al- Rescuence by J. Stantson, farmer, Rocky A. Goo, Bay road, Victoria, proposed by Tohn S., Adama Jones, real sins the city, The candidates ring, poposed by Sohn F. Charters, Al- rinasenting, John F. Charters, Al-	The second secon	 this season of the year were used by hundreds of pedestrians, the dust having peer effectively laid by the rains of the previous evening. His Worship Mayor Hayward, beamond in the second previous evening. His Worship Mayor Hayward, beamond in the second peer the second peer	y bin played at the Olin Bay grounds yesterday afternoon before some fifteen hundred spectators, the blue of Victoria went down before the stick-handlers in marcon from New Westminster. The Victoria players were beaten by a score of four goals to two. It was twelve minutes past three when the teams lined up—the new rule where-by teams coming on the field twenty minutes late lose a goal by default, making in the blayers punctual. The ground was din the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neithers team a vantage point. Nor was there is the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game-but the game was not an ideal in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Nictoria Market. Definition of the game state of the sector failed and the sector failed. There were too many mifted passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria Contar Contar Charles of team for the sector of the contar contar the sector of the contar the sector of the sector of the sector of the sector of the contar contar the sector of the contar the sector of the sector	The third game was even more ragged well from the face, but their passing was greatly inferior to that of the visitors. There shooting, too, was still bad, and soon after the game opened, a capital chance was missed. They, however, re- turned to the attack and after two at- tempts. Tite ran down and after some team work Stephens passed to Burns, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whastle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four munutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- tor the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless hot may blaying the ball, the goal would not have been allowed.	somewhat fanciful story of Preside Steyn's flight from Bloemfontein is giv by a New York Herald corresponde with the Boer forces. On Saturday and Sunday, March and 11, severe engagements were foug! The Boers repulsed a number of from attacks, but the steady swing of t British cavalry around their left fla compelled a retirement. This sealed t fate of Bloemfontein. A panicky feeling swept over the civ ian population. The railway station w besieged by refraces waiting the depi ture of trains. Several special trai had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatio Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains is in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean on the sen and the actor with instruction
Anterin, Jake La, L. G. May, J. S. Perster, S. Perry Mills, Porster 1 Hall, proposed by T. B. Hall, sec. Dewdney- 1 Hall, proposed by T. B. Hall, sec. Dewdney- 1 The seconded by D. Spencer, assenting, A. G. McGandless J. G. Cox, J. H. Skinner 1 Seconded by D. Spencer, assenting, A. G. MacGragors, assenta, G. MacGragors, assenta, Seconded by R. C. MacGragors, assenta, S. A. Bantly, M. McTernan, W. H. Skinner 1 R. McPhillips, proposed by B. R. Beaker Yale- 1 1 Beaker Yale- 1 1 1 R. McPhillips, proposed by B. R. Beaker Yale- 1 1 Beaker Yale- 1 1 1 1 Murth, McDonald. Beaker Yale- 1 1 1 R. M. McDillips, proposed by J. Cavity and grags. 1 1 1 1 Beaker Yale- 1 1 1 1 1 B	Roberts' headquarters may be er pected to also cross the Vaal river an create a diversion on the flank of an Federal force in the neighborhood Vereeniging. As he has only about 1 miles to travel, the speedy announcemer may be expected that the British con mander-in-chief himself has gained foothold in the Transvaal, and that h will remove the Federal position south of Johannesburg in the middle of the con ing week. Gen, Rundle ought to be close to Both ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Buller's for will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoris bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected derelopment, as Gen. Ian Han 1 ibton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a te a debate which exceeded in bitterne anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude	 been effectively laid by the rains of the previous evening. His Worship Mayor Hayward, beam-of ing with good nature at the successful termination of the Queet's Birthday festivities, with Mrs. Hayward, Miss Hayward, and members of the reception committee, during the afternoon entertained he hundreds to lunch and refreshments on of the civic barge, which was resplendent in a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. Numerous visitors from the Sound cities of paid a visit to the barge and were hos pitably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The races were in every way excellent, and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt calling. What were of course the most enthus, assically applauded races of the series were the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature, affers and regret was expressed at the detect of the James Bay boys in the four-oarse prolonged chees and the James Bay boys in the four-oarse proces of the James Bay boys in the four-oarse proces of the James Bay boys in the four-oarse mane on the lader was expressed at the detect of the James Bay boys in the four-oarse mane of the bames Bay boys in the four-oarse mane of the bames Bay boys in the four-oarse mane of the bames Bay boys in the four-oarse mane of the bames Bay boys in the four-oarse mane of the bames Bay boys in the four-oarse mane of the bames Bay boys in the four-oarse bames of the bames Bay boys in the four-oarse mane band the mane Bay boys in the four-oarse mane band the four-oarse band the ban	 Inducred spectators, the blue of Victoria went down before the stick-handlers in maroon from New Westminster. The lit Victoria players were beaten by a score of four goals to two. It was twelve minutes past three when the teams lined up—the new rule where-by teams coming on the field twenty minutes late lose a goal by default, making in the players punctual. The ground was in the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neithers team a vantage point. Nor was there is the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, S. Norman. Goal Charler Charler Charler Charler	than the second. Victoria started off well from the face, but their passing was greatly inferior to that of the visitors. There shooting, too, was still bad, and soon after the game opened, a capital chance was missed. They, however, re- turned to the attack and after two at- tempts. Tite ran down and after some team work Stephens passed to Burns, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bleycle riding, after- wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whestle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four munutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carried the fifth of fifth and the fifthe fifth and the fifthe fifthe f	Steyn's flight from Bloemfontein is giv by a New York Herald corresponde with the Boer forces. On Saturday and Sunday, March and 11, severe engagements were fong The Boers repulsed a number of front attacks, but the steady swing of t British cavalry around their left fla compelled a retirement. This sealed t fate of Bloemfontein. A panicky feeling swept over the civ ian population. The railway station w besieged by refugees waiting the dep ture of trains. Several special trai had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatio Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box os where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear gnard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardiest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean on the seven the cave with instruction
Hall, proposed by T. B. Hall, sec- by Capt. W. Grant: assenting. Generation of the straight by Capt. W. Grant: total. J.	pected to also cross the Vail river an create a diversion on the flank of an Federal force in the neighborhood of Vereeniging. As he has only about 1 miles to travel, the speedy announcement may be expected that the British con mander-in-chief himself has gained foothold in the Transvaal, and that he will remove the Federal position south of Johannesburg in the middle of the con ing week. Gen, Rundle ought to be close to Boll ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Bullet's for will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron he Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Han ition occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterne anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t	 and previous evening. This Worship Mayor Hayward, beam- oing with good nature at the successful termination of the Queen's Birthday fes- ent ivities, with Mrs. Hayward, Miss Hay- ward and members of the reception com- a mittee, during the afternoon entertained he hundreds to lunch and refreshments on of the civic barge, which was resplendent in a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. the visit of the barge and were hos- paid a visit to the barge and were hos- pitably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The course was kept fairly well cleared; and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt call- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- iastically applauded races of the series were the courses of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- oared lapstreak amateur event, for the to-championship of British Columbia. Our of bors ware health we the creation of the series ware dustreak amateur event, for the to- championship of British Columbia. Our of bors ware night mateus event for the to- marked lapstreak amateur event, for the to- marked lapstreak amateur event, for the to- championship of British Columbia. Our 	went down before the stick-handlers in marcon from New Westminster. The Victoria players were beaten by a score of four goals to two. It was twelve minutes past three when the teams lined up—the new rule where- d by teams coming on the field twenty min- utes late lose a goal by default, making the players punctual. The ground was d in the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neither team a vantage point. Nor was there she faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal i one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much e erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster. S. NormanGoalCheney W. LorimerD. Field. W. B. Gaibraith e. A. BelfryD. Field. W. B. Gaibraith E. M. Burns	There shooting, too, was still bad, and soon after the game opened, a capital chance was missed. They, however, re- turned to the attack and after two at- tempts, Tite ran down and after some team work Stephens passed to Burns, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after- wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whistle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four minutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carried for fifth and the fifth and first players were show, Vic- toria the fifth and first players were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and first players were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria fifthe fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria fifthe fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria fifthe fi	by a New York Herald corresponde with the Boer forces. On Saturday and Sunday, March and 11, severe engagements were foug The Boers repulsed a number of from attacks, but the steady swing of t British cavalry around their left fla compelled a retirement. This sealed t fate of Bloemfontein. A panicky feeling swept over the cir ian population. The railway station w besieged by refugees waiting the depu- ture of trains. Several special trai- had been reserved for this final rush, a her were soon jammed to suffocatic Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean in the day cant his can with instruction
by Capt. W. Grant; assenting, A. Liellan, L. Goodacre E. B. Mari gent, John Kinamaa. D. Helmcken, proposed by J. seconded by D. Spencer; assent . G. McCandless J. G. Cox, J. H. On; agent, W. C. Mocreby. ph Martin, proposed by Dr. Lewis seconded by R. O. MacGregor; assent . G. Andrew W. T. Hardaker, J. les. B. Perry Mills; agent e. McChillips, proposed by B. R. Oake and C. A. Holland. Assent . A. Bantly, M. McTiernan, W. H. H. H. McChonald. 'I Turner, proposed by B. R. Gasconded by J. C. Goodacre; assent as so the dry. T. Burns; agent, R. ra. tra. tra. tra. tra. seconded by J. T. McImoyi; ass g. John Kinsman. Edward Brags g. Donegan, Jame quietness pre- las in the city. The candidates aid Fraser, accountant, Vietoria proposed by John Jardine and I. matt; assenting, Gronze Webb, W. ale Joseph Atkins. Josen proposed by Roland Stineer. liam Henry Hayward, farmer, load Praser, accountant, Vietoria proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. mas: assenting, Gronze Waba K. V. James Phair, John Weir, as , Henry Cogan, James Phair, am F. Ballen. South Vietoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and hetward Mr. D. M. Eberts and therma frees angoased by Adam 'I there and John Muir; as , Henry Cogan, James Phair, am F. Ballen. South Vietoris it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and M. There was monoased by Adam	create a diversion on the flank of an Federal force in the neighborhood of Vereeniging. As he has only about 1 1 miles to travel, the speedy announcemen may be expected that the British com mander-in-chief himself has gained foothold in the Transvaal, and that h will remove the Federal position south of Johannesburg in the middle of the con ing week. Geu, Rundle ought to be close to Both ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Buller's for will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Ham 1 liton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterne anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t	His Worship Mayor Hayward, beam- of ing with good nature at the successful termination of the Queen's Birthday fes- ent tivities, with Mrs. Hayward, Miss Hay- ward and members of the reception com- a mittee, during the afternoon entertained he hundreds to lunch and refreshments on the civic barge, which was resplendent in m- a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. Numerous visitors from the Sound cities of paid a visit to the barge and were hos- ail- pitably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The course was kept fairly well cleared; and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt call- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- iastically applauded races of the series were the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature, General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- dared lapstreak amateur event, for the to-championship of British Columbia. Our of bors wave place and the thorman of the tor- than ward haves a most attractive feature.	al maroon from New Westminster. The Victoria players were beaten by a score of four goals to two. It was twelve minutes past three when the teams lined up—the new rule where- by teams coming on the field twenty min- nutes late lose a goal by default, making the players punctual. The ground was d in the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neither team a vantage point. Nor was there see the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, S. NormanGoal Change W. Lorimer PointF. Lynch e. A Belfry D. Field R. Galbrath E. M. Burns	There shooting, too, was still bad, and soon after the game opened, a capital chance was missed. They, however, re- turned to the attack and after two at- tempts, Tite ran down and after some team work Stephens passed to Burns, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after- wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whistle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four minutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carried for fifth and the fifth and first players were show, Vic- toria the fifth and first players were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and first players were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria fifthe fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria fifthe fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria fifthe fi	On Saturday and Sunday, March and 11, severe engagements were fough The Boers repulsed a number of from attacks, but the steady swing of t British cavalry around their left fla compelled a retirement. This sealed t fate of Bloemfontein. A panicky feeling swept over the cir- ian population. The raiway station w besieged by refugees waiting the depu- ture of trains. Several special trai- had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatio Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca- where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre- dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean in the day sent bia car with instructio
Leinan, L. Groundre E. B. Mar D. Heimcken, proposed by J. seconded by D. Spencer, assenties, ph Martin, proposed by Dr. Lewis seconded by R. C. MacGregor, J. ph Martin, proposed by Dr. Lewis seconded by R. C. MacGregor, Seconder E. McPhillips, proposed by B. R. B. Merphillips, proposed by B. R. H. H. M. McDonald. Turner, proposed by E. Han- seconded by J. T. Horland, Assenties, S. John Kinsman. Edward Brags, Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. r. mart Yates, proposed by John seconded by J. T. McIlmoyl; assenties, John Kinsman. Edward Brags, Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. r. mart Yates, proposed by John seconded by J. T. McIlmoyl; assenties, John Kinsman. Edward Brags, Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. r. mart Yates, proposed by John seconded by J. T. McIlmoyl; assenties, The charge Gay. Caspinali the same quietness pre- as in the city. The candidan and I. Resistand- ated are: rege Bizantson, farmer, Roety proposed by John Jardine and I. poposed by John Jardine and I. sussenting, Frank Jones, Jonegan, Geo, Skineer. iam Henry Hayward, farmer, id Williams Hizgins, publisher, id Wilnsme Hizgins, publisher, id Williams Hizgins, publisher, Henry Cogan, James Phair, We haven Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mart Suber weas pronosed by Adam Ebertse was pronosed by Adam	Vereeniging. As he has only about 1 miles to travel, the speedy announcement may be expected that the British con mander-in-chief himself has gained foothold in the Transvaal, and that h will remove the Federal position south of Johannesburg in the middle of the con ing week. Gen, Rundle ought to be close to Both ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Bullet's for will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Han itton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitternet anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude.	15 termination of the Queen's Birthday fes- ent ivities, with Mrs. Hayward, Miss Hay- ward and members of the reception com- mittee, during the afternoon entertained he hundreds to lunch and refreshments on of the civic barge, which was resplendent in ma- a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. Numerous visitors from the Sound cities of paid a visit to the barge and were hos- pitably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The races were in every way excellent, and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, by ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- iastically applauded races of the series were the courses of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as alwars, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- oared lapstreak amateur event, for the to- championship of British Columbia. Our of host were head was the prompt cal- ing of the dinferent events.	It was twelve minutes past three when the teams lined up—the new rule where- by teams coming on the field twenty min- utes late lose a goal by default, making in the players punctual. The ground was in the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neither team a vantage point. Nor was there the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, S. Norman Goal Cheny W. Lorimer Polnt	soon after the game opened, a capital chance was missed. They, however, re- turned to the attack and after two at- tempts, Tite ran down and after some team work Stephens passed to Burns, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after- wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whistle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four minutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in. Cullin cheek- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to cheek the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carried the fifth of the fifth and the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic-	and 11, severe engagements were foug The Boers repulsed a number of from attacks, but the steady swing of t British cavalry around their left fla compelled a retirement. This sealed t fate of Bloemfontein. A panicky feeling swept over the cir- ian population. The railway station w besieged by refugees waiting the depu- ture of trains. Several special trai- had been reserved for this final rush, a had been reserved tor this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatic Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca- where they sat in disconsolate grou- upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re- when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre- dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean in the day sout bis car with instruction
D. Helmcken, proposed by J. seconded by D. Spencer; assentizes, function in the second of t	1 miles to travel, the speedy announcement may be expected that the British con mander-in-chief himself has gained foothold in the Transvaal, and that h will remove the Federal position south of Johannesburg in the middle of the con ing week. Geu, Rundle ought to be close to Both ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Buller's for will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally us expected derelogment, as Gen. Ian Han 1 iton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there since UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 26By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitternet anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude.	ent tivities, with Mrs. Hayward, Miss Hay- ward and members of the reception com- a mittee, during the afternoon entertained hundreds to lunch and refreshments on the civic barge, which was resplendent in a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. Numerous visitors from the Sound cities of paid a visit to the barge and were hos- and othing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt call- ing of the different events. Met were the contests between the Indians- prologed cheering greeting the appear- ance on the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature, af- General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- orared lapstreak amateur event, for the to- championship of British Columbia. Our of box ware nale the the discussion of the tor- teess in the James Bay boys in the four- orared lapstreak amateur event, for the to the market in the the the tor- the torest of the the the the the the torest of	It was twelve minutes past three when the teams lined up—the new rule where- by teams coming on the field twenty min- utes late lose a goal by default, making in the players punctual. The ground was in the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neither team a vantage point. Nor was there the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, S. Norman Goal Cheny W. Lorimer Polnt	chance was missed. They, however, re- turned to the attack and after two at- tempts, Tite ran down and after some team work Stephens passed to Burns, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after- wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whistle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four munutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in. Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria care the fifth and the fifth and the fifth and the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow.	The Boers repulsed a number of from attacks, but the steady swing of t British cavalry around their left fla compelled a retirement. This sealed t fate of Bloemfontein. A panicky feeling swept over the civ- ian population. The railway station w besieged by refugees waiting the depi- ture of trains. Several special trai- had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatic Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains is in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eigo'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardiest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean on the sent in care with instruction
 acconded by D. Spencer; assenti- G. McCandless J. G. Cox, J. H. m; azent, W. C. Moresby. ph Martin, proposed by Dr. Lewis ph Martin, proposed by B. R. morth Yale— ph Martin, McTiernan, W. H. H. H. McDonald Turner, proposed by E. B. Han- seconded by J. Coodacre; as- s. John Kinsman. Edward Brags. Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. rn. mart Yates, proposed by John seconded by J. Therann, W. H. mart Yates, proposed by John seconded by J. Therann, K. Catterall, wart, R. T. Williams, H. Catterall, wart, R. T. Williams, H. Catter- rent, George Jay. Esguimalt the same quietness pre- as in the city. The candidates ated are: proposed by John A. keison— proposed by John Jardine and J. N. E. Kootenay— ms: assenting, George Webb, W. be, Joseph Atkins. dia Fraser, accountant, Victoria moroposed by Noland Staart feo. F. Bushby; assenting John A. y James Phalr, John Weir, rid Williams Higgins, publisher, Jaboro Bay road, Victoria, pro- by Thomas Argyle, and Aaron assenting, John F. Charters, Al- deX. Jones, Wm. R. Scate, Doug- W. Muir, Joseph J. Baird, Fred- Weils. mith. Enguinal road, proposed Williams Fisher and John Muir; as- , Henry Cogan, James Phair, res Edward Pooley, barrister-at- res Edward Pooley, barrister-at- res Herror War, D. M. Eberts and Mr. Mr. Dunsmuir Pressed to Accept filmores. Momination but Declined. 	mander-in-chief himself has gained foothold in the Transvaal, and that h will remove the Federal position south of Johannesburg in the middle of the con- ing week. Geu. Rundle ought to be close to Boll ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Bullet's for will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Han itton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there since UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterne anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t	 a mittee, during the afternoon entertained he hundreds to junch and refreshments on of the civic barge, which was resplendent in a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sightseer. Numerous visitors from the Sound cities of paid a visit to the barge and were hosail- pitably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The course was kept fairly well cleared; and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, by in the different events. What were of course the most enthus instically applauded races of the series were the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature of the James Bay boys in the four-oared lapstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of how were more on the course was haven to the series more display and the James Bay boys in the four-oared lapstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of how were more on the course was not and the dusky denizens of the dames Bay boys in the four-oared lapstreak amateur event, for the to-championship of British Columbia. Our of how was not all the dusky the crew was ender the series was ender the series was not and the dusky denizens of the dusky denizens of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature of the James Bay boys in the four-oared lapstreak amateur event, for the to-championship of British Columbia. Our of how was not and the series was not be to the series was not and the series was not and the series was not and the series was not attractive feature. 	by teams coming on the field twenty min- utes late lose a goal by default, making the players punctual. The ground was in the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neither team a vantage point. Nor was there team a vantage point. Nor was there the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team_practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster. S. NormanGoal Cheney W. Lorimer	tempts, Thite ran down and after some team work Stephens passed to Burns, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after- wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whistle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four minutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in. Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carnied for fifth of the fifth and first of the fifth and first players were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carned the fifth of fifth with a score of the fifth and first players were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria fifth and first players were slow, Vic- toria fifthe fifth and first players were slow, Vic- toria fifthe	British cavalry around their left fla compelled a retirement. This sealed t fate of Bloemfontein. A panicky feeling swept over the civ ian population. The railway station w besieged by refugees waiting the depu- ture of trains. Several special trai- had been reserved for this final rush, a had been reserved tor this final rush, a where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean in the day sout bin car with instruction
A. G. McChillings, W. C. Moresby, ph. Martin, proposed by Dr. Lewis Prentice	foothold in the Transvaal, and that h will remove the Federal position south of Johannesburg in the middle of the con- ing week. Gen, Rundle ought to be close to Both ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai- way, in which part of Buller's ford will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Ham 1 iton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there since UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 26By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitternet anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude.	he hundreds to junch and refreshments on of the civic barge, which was resplendent in a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. Numerous visitors from the Sound cities opiably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The races were in every way excellent. The course was kept fairly well cleared; and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt call- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- iastically applauded races of the series were the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature, af- General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- ioared lapstreak amateur event, for the to-championship of British Columbia. Our of bors was pained was the promption of the tor-	m utes late lose a goal by default, making the players punctual. The ground was in the best of condition and the sun r, shone across the field, giving neither team a vantage point. Nor was there see the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, s. NormanGoal Change W. Lorimer PointF. Lynch e. A Belfry D. Field R. Galbrath e. M. Burns	team work Stephens passed to Duras, who gave the ball to Wilson and the lat- ter scored, after 6½ minutes play. C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after- wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whistle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four munutes of lively play and Turubull ran in. Cullin cheek- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to cheek the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carties of the fifth and the fifth and the fifth and the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carties of the fifth with a scatter of the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and fire fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic-	compelled a retirement. This sealed t fate of Bloemfontein. A panicky feeling swept over the civ- ian population. The railway station w besieged by refragees waiting the depi- ture of trains. Several special trai- had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatic Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains is in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardiest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean on the set a set in set in structure ph Martin, proposed by Dr. Lewis North Yale	Johannesburg in the middle of the con- ing week. Gen. Rundle ought to be close to Both ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Buller's ford will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Han 1 liton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterne anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude	 a wealth of bunting and laden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. Numerous visitors from the Sound cities paid a visit to the barge and were hospitably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The races were in every way excellent. The course was kept fairly well cleared; and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt calling of the different events. What were of course the most enthus instically applauded races of the series were the courses of the dusty denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature of the James Bay boys in the four-oared labstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of how were most provide and the James Bay boys in the four-oared lapstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of how were most provide and the tore was public motions. 	in the best of condition and the sum r. shone across the field, giving neither team a vantage point. Nor was there the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, S. NormanGoal Cheney W. Lorimer PointF. Lynch e. A. Belfry D. Field H. Galbrath e. M. Burns "	C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after- wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whistle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four mnutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in. Cullin cheek- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carned the fifth of the fifth and the fifth and the fifth and the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria he fifth and fix games were slow, Vic- toria carned the fifth of the fifth or the fifth and six games were slow.	A panicky feeling swept over the civ ian population. The railway station w besieged by refugees waiting the depu- ture of trains. Several special trai- had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatic Other men, women and children piled. discriminately into cattle and box ca- where they sat in disconsolate grou- upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re- when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre- dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean or the day sout his new the instruction
g, John Bell, W. T. Hardaker, J. les. B. Perry Mills; agent e Jay. E. McPhillips, proposed by B. R. Boke and C. A. Holland. Assent- A. Bantly, M. McTiernan, W. H. H. H. McDonald. I Turner, proposed by E. B. Han- seconded by L. Goodacre; as- g. John Kinsman. Edward Brags, Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, E. rn. seconded by J. T.McImoyl; as- g. David Kirkwood. L. Catterall, ewart. R. T. Williams, H. Catter- gent, George Jay. Esquimait the same quietness pre- as in the city. The candidates iated are: proposed by John Jardine and I. nette; assenting, George Webb, W. ald Fraser, accountant, Vietoria proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. imm Henry Hayward, farmer, tosin, proposed by Roland Stuart, Seo. F. Bushby; assenting John A. ay, James Phair, John Weir. "d Williams Higgins, publisher, Cadboro Bay road, Victoria, pro- by Thomas Argyle, and Aaron assenting, John F. Charters, Al- McAdam. Tres Baward Pooley, barrister-at Fermill. Esquimait road, proposed Thiam Fisher and John Muir; as- h. Henry Cogan, James Phair, m F. Bullen. South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. re Sangster. Eberte was promosed by Adam	Johannesburg in the middle of the con- ing week. Gen, Rundle ought to be close to Both ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Bullet's fore will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally un expected development, as Gen. Ian Han itton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitternet anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude	 a weath of building and haden with good things to refresh the tired sight-seer. Numerous visitors from the Sound cities paid a visit to the barge and were hosail-pitably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The races were in every way excellent. The course was kept fairly well cleared; and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt calling of the different events. What were of course the most enthusiastically applauded races of the series were the contests between the Indiansprolonged cheering greeting the appearance on the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. af General regret was expressed at the defeat of the James Bay boys in the four-oared lapstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of box ware halp of the dister event. 	a in the best of condition and the sun shone across the field, giving neither team a vantage point. Nor was there the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game—but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many will shots, too much e erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster. r. S. Norman	C. Hand, a young Vancouverite, then enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after- wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whastle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four mnutes of lively play and Turubull ran in, Cullin cheek- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to cheek the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria carried the fifth with a scatter of	ian population. The railway station w besieged by refugees waiting the depi- ture of trains. Several special trai- had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatic Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains is in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardiest lingered. He had, ean on the gave sout his car with instruction
ag. John Bell. W. T. Hardaker, J. agent like. B. Perry Mills: agent agent E. McPhillips, proposed by B. R. meet Yale- coke and C. A. Holland. Assent- agent A. Bantly. M. McThernan, W. H. H. H. McDonald. H. H. M. McDonald. Beebe is John Kinsman. Edward Brags. agent Yale- is asenting. Frank Jones. agent Yale- gent Yale- agent Yale- gent Yale- agent Yale- gent Yale- agent Yale- is in the city. The candidates agent Yale- gent Asine trap: freen gent Asine agent	Gen, Rundle ought to be close to Both ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Buller's force will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Han 1 iton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there since UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterner anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attinge	 the Numerous visitors from the Sound cities of paid a visit to the barge and were hosail-pitably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The races were in every way excellent. The course was kept fairly well cleared; and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt calling of the different events. What were of course the most enthusiastically applauded races of the series were the contests between the Indiansentee. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the destension of the James Bay boys in the fourts or the James Bay boys in the fourts. Our of how were heaving of British Columbia. Our of how were heaving the strest were the fourtes. 	 team a vantage point. Nor was there is the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game-but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, S. Norman Goal Control of C. L. Cullin C. Point F. Lynch A. Belfry D. Field. W. B. Galbraith E. M. Burns C. D. Peele C. Blain Centre A. Uurbull K. Scholefield H. Field H. Latham W. Stenhens 	enlivened the proceedings by a clean ex- hibition of trick bicycle riding, after- wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whistle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four muntes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria care the fifth and fix games were slow, Vic- toria care the fifth and fix games were slow, Vic- toria the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria care the fifth and fix games were slow, Vic-	besieged by refugees waiting the depi ture of trains. Several special trai- had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatio Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w. word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrifi even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean or the day cant his car with instruction re Jay. Murphy. E. McPhillips, proposed by B. R. cohe and C. A. Holland. Assent. A. Bantly, M. McThernan, W. H. A. H. H. McDonald. H Turner, proposed by E. B. Han- a. seconded by L. Goodacce; as- ig. John Kinsman. Edward Brags. Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. Start Yates, proposed by John seconded by J. T. McIlmoyl; as- ag. David Kirkwood. L. Catterallicewart, R. T. Williams, H. Catter- gree Bizantson, farmer, Rocky, proposed by John Jardine and L. ande Fraser, accountant, Victoria proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. and Fraser, accountant, Victoria group assenting, John Y. Charters, Alian MeN. Jones, Wm. R. Scafe, Doug- vid Williams Higgins, publisher, vid Williams Higgins, publisher, weik W. Jones, Wm. R. Scafe, Doug- weik W. Jones, Wm. R. Scafe, Doug- weik Ward Pooley, barrister-at resedward Pooley, barrister-at merk Ballen. Suth Victoria it will be a straight Born. am F. Ballen. Sunt Victoria it will be a straight Bart Victoria it will be a straight	ley by now, and it is expected to hear of a decisive action on the Harrismith rai way, in which part of Bullet's for will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoris bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally un expected development, as Gen. Ian Han itton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitternet anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude	of paid a visit to the barge and were hos- all- pitably entertained by Mayor Hayward. The races were in every way excellent, The course was kept fairly well cleared; and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, by a feature of which was the prompt call- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- iastically applauded races of the series were the contests between the Indians- prolonged cheering greeting the appear- ance on the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as alwars, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- dist of the James Bay boys in the four- dist of the James Bay boys in the four- dist one lapstreak amateur event, for the to-championship of British Columbia. Our of bors were head to be the series of the series of the series of the series by the crew	 the faintest suspicion of a breeze to mar the sport. It was an ideal day for the game-but the game was not an ideal one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster. S. NormanGoal Cheney W. Lorimer Point A. W. Gray G. L. Cullin C. Point Cheney B. W. Lorimer D. Field .W. B. Galbraith e. A. Belfry D. Field .W. B. Galbraith e. C. Blain	wards passing the hat. Then after a man in the grand stand, who had a whistle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four mnutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria careful the 5 fith with a scalar of the fith and six games were slow.	had been reserved for this final rush, a they were soon jammed to suffocatio Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear gnard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardiest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean on the day cant his car with instruction
cooke and C. A. Holland. Assent: Bast Yale 1 A. Bantly, M. McThernan, W. H. Ellison 1 H. H. McDonald. Sundgrass 1 H Turner, proposed by R. B. Han- Sundgrass 1 as sconded by L. Goodacre: as- Taylor 1 g. John Kinsman. Edward Brags, Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. Revelstoke- 1 rm. Yales, proposed by John Revelstoke- 1 g. David Kirkwood. L. Catteral, Green 1 1 g. David Kirkwood. L. Catteral, Betcher 1 1 gent dare: The candidates Nelson- 1 1 gent as in the city. The candidates Nelson- 1 1 as in the city. The candidates Nelson- 1 1 asted are: Armstrong. 1 1 rge Bizantson, farmer, Rocky Proposed by John Jardine and J. E. S. E. Kootenay- 1 nette; assenting, Frank Jones, Sumth 1 1 ans; assenting, John Weir. Yames assenting John F. Charters, Ad- 1 1 wells	way, in which part of Buller's for will co-operate in the direction of Va Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Han 1 liton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 28By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterner anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attlinde	The races were in every way excellent, Tan The course was kept fairly well cleared; and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt call- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- ing of the different events. The nave of the series of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- oared lapstreak amateur event, for the to- championship of British Columbia. Our of bors ware plaine mutches of the the course of the series was expressed at the de- ter the series amateur event, for the to- the series ware plaine mutches of the series ware plaine to the series of the series the the series of the series by the crew of bors ware plaine mutches of the series of the series of the series of the series series of the series of the series by the crew of bors ware plaine mutches of the series of the series of the series by the series ware plaine mutches of the series	L. game—but the game was not an ideal i one. There were too many muffed passes, too many wild shots, too much erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. S. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster. F. S. Norman Goal C. L. Cullin C. Point	man in the grand stand, who had a whistle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four mnutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria careed the 5 fth with a scalar of the state.	they were soon jammed to suffocatic Other men, women and children piled discriminately into cattle and box ca where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as hate as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear gnard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean in the day sout his new th instruction
A. Bantiy, M. McThernan, W. H. A. H. M. McDonald. I Turner, proposed by E. B. Han- aseconded by L. Goodacre; as- g. John Kinsman, Edward Bragg, Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. rn. thart Yates, proposed by John seconded by J. T.McImoyl; as- g. David Kirkwood. L. Catteral, ewart, R. T. Williams, H. Catter- gent, George Jay. Esquimait the same quietness pre- las in the city. The candidates proposed by John Jardine and I. nette; assenting, George Webb, W. . proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. Iam Henry Hayward, farmer, liam Henry Hayward, farmer, liam Henry Hayward, farmer, liam Henry Hayward, farmer, wid. Williams Higgins, publisher, vid Williams Higgins, publisher, Nelso, John K. Charters, Al- McRae. 1 Redford. 1 McRae. 1 Jones, Wm. R. Scafe, Doug, 1 Welke Ward Pooley, barrister-at 1	Reenan's Pass. Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally m expected development, as Gen. Ian Han 1 liton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there since UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 28.—By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterner anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude of	and nothing of an unpleasant character occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt call- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- iastically applauded races of the series were the contests between the Indians- prolonged cheering greeting the appear- ance on the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- tion or the course of the dusky denizens or end lapstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of bors were placed with the crew	Processes, too many wild shots, too much e-erratic judgment and other deficiencies in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. S- The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster, S. Norman Goal W. Lorimer Point A. Belfry D. Field.W. B. Galbraith e. M. Finlaison m. Center M. Finlaison Center M. Scholefield H. Field W. Scholefield H. Field m. W. Bratham	whestle and made things unpleasant, had been attended to, the teams again took the field. As in the other games, Vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four minutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in. Cullin cheek- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria care the fifth and fact he new for the fifth and fact he for the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria care the fifth and fact he for the fifth and fact he for the fifth and six games were slow.	Other men, women and children piled. discriminately into cattle and box ca where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear gnard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean in the day sout his car with instruction
H. H. M. McDolaini, Turner, proposed by E. B. Han- a, seconded by L. Goodacre; as- g. John Kinsman. Edward Bragg, Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. rn. Revelstoke- mcRee 1 Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. rn. Revelstoke- mcRee 1 1 rm. Taylor 1 1 rn. McRae 1 1 rm. Taylor 1 1 rescatoke- 1 1 1 rescatoke- 1 1 1 revelstoke- 1 1 1 retatokant	Should the Pretoria bulletin announce ing the reoccupation of Heilbron h Federals be true, it will be a totally un expected development, as Gen. Ian Han 1 iton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterner anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude of	 occurred to mar the afternoon's pleasure, a feature of which was the prompt call- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- iastically applauded races of the series were the contests between the Indians- prolonged cheering greeting the appear- ance on the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- oared lapstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of box ware place in the four- dist championship of British Columbia. 	e, erratic, judgment and other deficiencies team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster. S. NormanGoal	the held. As in the other games, vic- toria carried the ball down from the face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four mnutes of lively play and Turubull ran in, Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria careful the fifth and be fifth with a scalar of the source of the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria careful the fifth and six games were slow.	where they sat in disconsolate grou upon their belongings. Hundreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear gnard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrifi even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean in the day sont his car with instruction
H Turner, proposed by E. B. Han- a, seconded by L. Goodacre; as g. John Kinsman. Edward Bragg, Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. yrn. Stuart Yates, proposed by John seconded by J. T.McIlmoyl; as- ng, David Kirkwood. L. Catteral, gent, George Jay. Esquimalt the same quietness pre- lewart, R. T. Williams, H. Catter- gent, George Jay. Esquimalt the same quietness pre- fletcher fletcher gent, George Jay. Tesquimalt the same quietness pre- gent data are: are as in the city. The candidates nated are: brooked by John Jardine and I. mette; assenting, George Webb, W. ale, Joseph Atkins. nald Fraser. accountant, Victoria proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. ams; assenting, Frank Jones, so Donegan. Geo. Skinner. lliam Henry Hayward, farmer, hosin, proposed by Roland Stuart, vid Williams Higgins, publisher, Cadboor Bay road, Victoria, pro- l by Thomas Argyle, and Aaron ; assenting, John F. Charters, Al- merk Edward Pooley, barrister-at: Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- n, Henry Cogan, James Phair, south Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. ge Sangster. Eborte wass promosed by Adam	Tederals be true, it will be a totally ni expected development, as Gen. Ian Ham 1 liton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 28.—By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterner anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attlude	by an- ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthus- iastically applauded races of the series were the contests between the Indians- prolonged cheering greeting the appear- ance on the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- oared lapstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of bors ware nlaps more series were changed on the course of the series of the dusky denizens to the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- oared lapstreak amateur event, for the	 in play, which are the result of lack of team practice. The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster. S. NormanGoal Cheney W. Lorimer	face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four mnutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria conned the fifth with a school of the fifth and the fifth with a school of the fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria conned the fifth with a school of the fifth and six games were slow.	upon their belongings. Hindreds w could obtain no places in the trains le in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear gnard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean in the day sout his car with instruction
h. seconded by L. Goodnarde; as- ig, John Kinsman. Edward Brag, Stuart Yates, proposed by John seconded by J. T.McIlmoyl; as- ag, David Kirkwood. L. Catterall, lewart, R. T. Williams, H. Catter- gent, George Jay. McRae 1 Stuart Yates, proposed by John seconded by J. T.McIlmoyl; as- ag, David Kirkwood. L. Catterall, lewart, R. T. Williams, H. Catter- gent, George Jay. Image: Constant Science Scienc	Tederals be true, it will be a totally ni expected development, as Gen. Ian Ham 1 liton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 28.—By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterner anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attlude	 and ing of the different events. What were of course the most enthusiastically applauded races of the series were the contests between the Indiane-prolonged cheering greeting the appearance on the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the defeat of the James Bay boys in the four-flist championship of British Columbia. Our of box ware health was been better the the desider of the dusky dustreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of box ware health was the crew of the dustreak amateur event in the context of the dustreak amateur event in the dustreak amat	The teams lined up as follows: The teams lined up as follows: Victoria. New Westminster. S. Norman	face and Tite and Blaine put in two good shots. There was four mnutes of lively play and Turnbull ran in, Cullin check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria cound the fifth with a scatter of	could obtain no places in the trains is in vehicles and on horseback. Even as late as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear gnard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif two miles away. This news electrif even the tardiest lingered. He had, ean in the day sout his car with instruction
Bodwell, T. J. Burns; agent, R. rm. thart Yates, proposed by John seconded by J. T.McIlmoyl; as- ag, David Kirkwood. L. Catteral, gent, George Jay. Esquimalt the same quietness pre- las in the city. The candidates hated are: arge Bizantson, farmer, Rocky, roopsed by John Jardine and I. nette: assenting, George Webb, W. ale, Joseph Atkins. nald Fraser, accountant, Victoria proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. liam Henry Hayward, farmer, hosin, proposed by Roland Stuart. liam Henry Hayward, farmer, hosin, proposed by Roland Stuart. vid Williams Higgins, publisher, vid Williams Higgins, publisher, vid Williams Higgins, publisher, wirkes Edward Pooley, barrister-at Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- rules Edward Pooley, barrister-at Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- netter was promosed by Adam South Victoria it will be a straight Between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. Between Mr. D. M. Eberts	expected development, as Gen. Ian Han 1 iton occupied Heilbron on Tuesday an nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 26.—By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterner anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude of	 iastically applauded races of the series were the contests between the Indiansprologied cheering greeting the appearance on the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. af- General regret was expressed at the defense feat of the James Bay boys in the four- list oared lapstreak amateur event, for the to-championship of British Columbia. Our of how were placed were the series of the series of the series were placed with the columbia. 	 The teams lined up as follows: Victoria, New Westminster, S. NormanGoal Cheney W. Lorimer PointA. W. Gray G. L. Cullin C. PointF. Lynch A. Belfry D. Field .W. B Galbraith E. M. Burns "T. Gifford T. M. Finlaison "C. D. Peele C. Blain Centre	bay and Turnbull ran in, Count check- ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria count the fifth with a scalar of the fifth and six games were slow.	Even as hate as daybreak Tuesd there was no certainty as to when t English would arrive. About eig o'clock all uncertainty was set at re when the Boer rear guard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrifi even the tardlest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ean in the day sout his car with instruction
Trn. Green 1 itnart Yates, proposed by John Kane. 1 itnart Yates, proposed by John Seconded by J. T.McIlmoyl; as- Seconded by J. T.McIlmoyl; as- ig, David Kirkwood. L. Catterall, Seconded by J. T.McIlmoyl; as- Seconded by J. T.McIlmoyl; as- ig, David Kirkwood. L. Catterall, Fletcher 1 ewart, R. T. Williams, H. Catterall, Fletcher 1 gent, George Jay. Basin the city, The candidates 1 hated are: Armstrong. 1 , proposed by John Jardine and J. Burnett: 1 , proposed by Thos, Adam and J. E. Burnett. 1 , and Fraser, accountant, Victoria Fernie. 1 so Donegan. Geo, Skinner. Smith 1 liam Henry Hayward, farmer, Neli. 1 robosin, proposed by Roland Stuart Fernie. 1 Gaboro Bay road, Victoria, pro- 1 1 roby Thomas Argyle, and Aaron Alberai 1 arles Edward Pooley, barrister-at Frenhill, Esquimalt road, proposed 25 Yuliam Fisher and John Muir; as 5 1 1 ri	nothing has been heard from there sinc UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 25.—By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterner anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no chance in the attitude of	were the contests between the Indians- prolonged cheering greeting the appear- ance on the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature, af. General regret was expressed at the de- feat of the James Bay boys in the four- list cared lapstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of hore ware plants with the crew	Yictoria New Westminster, r. S. Norman Goal Cheney yw. Lorimer Point A. W. Gray yg. C. L. Cullin C. Point F. Lýnch A. Belfry D. Field.W. B. Galbraith e. E. M. Burns "T. Gifford r. M. Finlaison C. D. Peele C. Blain Centre A. Turnbull uw S. Scholefield H. Field H. Latham W. Stenhens "W. W. Elfedd H. Latham	ed him, and the ball lobbed over on to Norman's schoulder, and rolled in. One of the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria cound the fifth with a sortion of	there was no certainty as to when the English would arrive. About eight o'clock all uncertainty was set at rewine the Boer rear gnard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in word that the British were less the two miles away. This news electrif even the tardiest lingered, He had, ear in the day sent his car with instruction in the day sent his car with instruction.
seconded by J. T.Mclimoyi; as- ge, David Kirkwood. L. Catteral, gent, George Jay. Esquimalt the same quietness pre- saged are: arge Bizantson, farmer, Rocky proposed by John Jardine and I. and Fraser, accountant, Victoria proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. ands: assenting, George Webb, W. ale, Joseph Atkins. arst: assenting, Frank Jones, is Donegan. Geo. Skinner. liam Henry Hayward, farmer, hosin, proposed by Roland Stuart. Cafboo- liam Henry Hayward, farmer, hosin, proposed by Roland Stuart. Caboro Bay road, Victoria, pro- by Thomas Argyle, and Aaron assenting, John F. Charters, Al- merkes Edward Pooley, barrister-at: Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- riefs Edward Pooley, barrister-at: Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- nerkes Edward Pooley, barrister-at: Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- nerkes Edward Pooley, barrister-at: Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. Bearser, area proposed by Adam	UNDER THE BAN. Chicago, May 26By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterner anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude of	ance on the course of the dusky denizens or the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. af- General regret was expressed at the de- less feat of the James Bay boys in the four- dist oared lapstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of bors was plain by outclassed by the crew	r-S. Norman	of, the Westminster players was in the goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria cound the fifth with a scalar of the sector of	o'clock all uncertainty was set at re- when the Boer rear gnard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardiest lingerers, but Pre- dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ea- in the day sont his car with instruction
ig. David Kirkwood. L. Catterali, ewart, R. T. Williams, H. Oatter- gent, George Jay. Houston	Chicago, May 26.—By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterner anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude of	ance on the course of the dusky denizens of the forest. The naval races proved, as always, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the de- ess feat of the James Bay boys in the four- dist oared lapstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of bors was plainby outclassed by the crew	 M. Lorimer	goal at the time and had the new rule been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria cound the fifth with a series of	when the Boer rear gnard, stationed o side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrifi even the tardiest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ea in the day sent his car with instruction ewart, R. T. Williams, H. Carter- gent, George Jay. Esquimait the same quietness pre- las in the city. The candidates nated are:	Chicago, May 26.—By a close vote, and a ter a debate which exceeded in bitterner anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t day to make no change in the attitude of	as always, a most attractive feature. General regret was expressed at the de- ess feat of the James Bay boys in the four- dist oared lapstreak amateur event, for the championship of British Columbia. Our of bors was plainly outclassed by the crew	e. A. Belfry D. Field. W. B. Galbraith e. E. M. Burns T. Gifford r. M. Finlaison a C. D. Peele C. Blain Centre A. Turnbull II K. Scholefield H. Field H. Latham W. Stenhene	been enforced, whereby players were not allowed to check the goal tender unless he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- toria council the fifth with a series of	side the town, came galloping in w word that the British were less th two miles away. This news electrif even the tardiest lingerers, but Pro- dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ea in the day sont his car with instructive gent, George Jay. Esquimalt the same quietness pre- fas in the city. The candidates anted are: orge Bizantson, farmer, Rocky proposed by John Jardine and I. mette: assenting, George Webb, W. ale, Joseph Atkins. naid Fraser. accountant, Victoria proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. ams: assenting, Frank Jones, s Donegan. Geo. Skinner. lliam Henry Hayward, farmer, hosin, proposed by Roland Stuart. Clifford	ter a debate which exceeded in bitternet anything during the session, the Methodi general conference practically decided t 1 day to make no change in the attitude	af- General regret was expressed at the de- sess feat of the James Bay boys in the four- list cared lapstreak amateur event, for the to- championship of British Columbia. Our of hors ware plain by our dessed by the crew	e E. M. Burns T. Gifford r. M. Finlaison a C. D. Peele C. Blain Centre A. Turnbull nr K. Scholefield H. Field H. Latham W. Stenhene	he was playing the ball, the goal would not have been allowed. The fifth and six games were slow, Vic- topic around the fifth with a sprice of	two miles away. This news electrif even the tardiest lingerers, but Pre dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ea in the day sent his car with instruction
I as in the city. The candidates nated are: Ourtis 1 nated are: Armstrong 1 nated are: Armstrong 1 nated are: Armstrong 1 nette: assenting, George Webb, W. S. E. Kootenay- 1 nette: assenting, George Webb, W. S. E. Kootenay- 1 nette: assenting, George Webb, W. S. E. Kootenay- 1 nate, Joseph Atkins. Frank Jones, Smith 1 proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. Smith 1 1 ans: assenting, Frank Jones, Smith 1 1 resource and the city. Adam and J. E. Smith 1 1 ans: assenting, John Weir. 1 1 1 Ag. James Phair, John Weir. 1 1 1 1 Cadboro Bay road, Victoria, proby Yilliam Fisher and John Muir; aspentes Edward Pooley, barrister-at Thomson 1 1 1 Redford. 1 1 1 1 1 1 arbes Edward Pooley, barrister-at Frenhill, Esquimalt road, proposed 1 <td< td=""><td>anything during the session, the Methodia general conference practically decided t 1 day to make no change in the attitude of</td><td>dist oared lapstreak amateur event, for the to- championship of British Columbia. Our</td><td>IF K. Scholefield H. Field H. Latham</td><td>The fifth and six games were slow, Vic-</td><td>even the tardiest lingerers, but Pro- dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ea</td></td<>	anything during the session, the Methodia general conference practically decided t 1 day to make no change in the attitude of	dist oared lapstreak amateur event, for the to- championship of British Columbia. Our	IF K. Scholefield H. Field H. Latham	The fifth and six games were slow, Vic-	even the tardiest lingerers, but Pro- dent Steyn still lingered. He had, ea nated are: Armstrong. 1 orge Bizantson, farmer, Rocky, Armstrong. 1 proposed by John Jardine and I. Burnett. 1 mette: assenting, George Webb, W. Burnett. 1 ale, Joseph Atkins. Burnett. 1 naid Fraser. accountant, Victoria Pernie. 1 proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. Smith 1 ams; assenting, Frank Jones, Smith 1 so Donegan. Geo. Skinner. It 1 Iliam Henry Hayward, farmer, Neili. 1 hosin, proposed by Roland Stuart. It 1 Geo. F. Bushby; assenting John A. ay. James Phair, John Weir. 1 vid Williams Higgins, publisher, It 1 Cadboro Bay road, Victoria, pro- Netil. 1 McAdam. Summar P. Bullen, Summar Provincial Party 2 McAdam. John Muir; aspanter and John Muir; aspanter. 5 1 arles Edward Pooley, barrister-at: Fronkil, Esquimalt road, proposed 5 Villiam Fisher and John Muir; aspanter. 5 1 South Victoria it will be a straight	general conference practically decided t 1 day to make no change in the attitude of	to- championship of British Columbia. Our	IF K. Scholefield H. Field H. Latham	The fifth and six games were slow, Vic-	in the day sent his car with instruction
, proposed by John Jardine and I. mette; assenting, George Webb, W. ale, Joseph Atkins. nald Fraser, accountant, Victoria proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. s Donegan. Geo. Skinner. lliam Henry Hayward, farmer, hosin, proposed by Roland Stuart Geo. F. Bushby; assenting John A. ay, James Phair, John Weir. Cadbooo Bay road, Victoria, pro- by Thomas Argyle, and Aaron i assenting, John F. Charters, Al- McAdam. arles Edward Pooley, barrister at Fernill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- n, Henry Cogan, James Phair, am F. Bullen. Summation but Declined. Beatract wass promosed by Adam	1 day to make no change in the attitude	of boys were plainly outclassed by the crew	G Tite " S C Dede	attacks on the Westminster flags but	in the day, sent ms car while instruction nette; assenting, George Webb, W. ale, Joseph Atkins. ald Fraser, accountant, Victoria proposed by Thos, Adam and J. E. ams; assenting, Frank Jones, s Donegan. Geo. Skinner. liam Henry Hayward, farmer, hosin, proposed by Roland Stuart Peo. F. Bushby; assenting John A. ay, James Phair, John Weir. vid Williams Higgins, publisher, Cadboro Bay road, Victoria, pro- by Thomas Argyle, and Aaron assenting, John F. Charters, Al- MeN. Jones, Wm. R. Scafe, Doug. W. Muir, Joseph J. Baird, Fred- McAdam. Tress Edward Pooley, barrister-at- Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- n, Henry Cogan, James Phair, am F. Bullen. South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. ge Sangster. W. Momination but Declined.	the church in regard to gard playing day				to wait for him a few miles north.
ale, Joseph Atkins. hald Fraser, accountant, Victoria proposed by Thos. Adam and J. E. ams: assenting, Frank Jones, s Donegan. Geo. Skinner. liam Henry Hayward, farmer, hosin, proposed by Roland Stuart Geo. F. Bushby: assenting John A. ring Jones Muire, John Weir. assenting, John F. Oharters, Al- McN. Jones, Wm. R. Scafe, Doug- t. W. Muir, Joseph J. Baird, Fred- McAdam. arles Edward Pooley, barrister-at- Frenhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- n Henry Cogan, James Phair, am F. Bullen. South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. ge Sangster. Elector was promosed by Adam	ing, theatre-going and other forms	of much heavier and annarently in better	Wilson O. Home A. McQuade	attacks on the Westminster flags, but Cheyne was a stonewall, and then, too,	closed and locked the presidency and t ald Fraser, accountant, Victoria Smith 1 proposed by Thos, Adam and J. E. Cassar	a lamusement which, since 1872, have been	een condition Aming to a misunderstanding	F. Smith	the players in maroon, had a habit of all falling back in a bunch to defend their	State house, and turned the keys over iams: assenting, Frank Jones, Somegan, Geo, Skinner. se Donegan, Geo, Skinner. Ciliford	the vote to accept the minority report	ing about the turning of the buoy, this event		goal They needed to for a time for	to the English Then he mounted es Donegan. Geo. Skinner. illiam Henry Hayward, farmer. Geo. F. Bushby: assenting John A. ray, James Phair, John Weir. arid Williams Higgins, publisher, Cadboro Bay road, Victoria, pro- d by Thomas Argyle, and Aaron t. assenting, John F. Charters, Al- McN. Jones, Wm. R. Scafe, Doug- R. W. Muir, Joseph J. Baird, Fred- tarles Edward Pooley, barrister-at- Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed William Fisher and John Muir; as- n, Henry Cogan, James Phair, South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. rge Sangster. Eberte was pronosed by Adam	which recommends that no action be take	(en. The first arout on the programme was	Malins.	the Victoria home had bucked up and	horse, rode to the market square a
Illiam Henry Hayward, rarmer, hosin, proposed by Roland Staarfi Geo. F. Bushby; assenting John A. ray, James Phair, John Weir. rivid Williams Higgins, publisher, vid Williams Higgins, publisher, is assenting, John F. Charters, Al- MeN. Jones, Wm. R. Scafe, Doug- t. W. Mair, Joseph J. Baird, Fred- McAdam. arkes Edward Pooley, barrister-at- Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- n, Henry Cogan, James Phair, am F. Bullen. 1 1 South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. rge Sangster. John S. Summary, Sanger Sangster. 1 1 Mondam. John S. Summary, Sanger Sangster. John S. Summary, Sanger Sangster. 1 1 Minethaming John S. Summary, Sanger Sangster. John S. Summary, Sanger Sangster. 1 1	wild disorder due mainly to attempts	of called shortly after 1 p.m. It was for to ten-oared cutters from Her Majesty's	or Timekeepers-Dave Patterson and H.	were making things interesting. Their passing was wild, though. They had un-	and a Boer guard valloped through t
Geo. F. Bushby: assenting John A. ray, James Phair, John Weir. Cadboro Bay road, Victoria, pro- dy Thomas Argyle, and Aaron McN. Jones, Wm. R. Scafe, Doug. R. W. Muir, Joseph J. Baird, Fred- McAdam. arles Edward Pooley, barrister-at- Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed William F. Ballen. South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. rge Sangster. Eborte wass pronoged by Adam	I amenu the section of the book of discinit	lille abing at Magnimalt course nound leland	Victoria mho mone defending the south	doubtedly the best of the game, but did	square, calling out that the Lancers w ray, James Phair, Joan Welf. avid Williams Higgins, publisher, Cadboro Bay road, Victoria, prod dy Thomas Argyle, and Aaron t: assenting, John F. Charters, Al- R. W. Muir, Joseph J. Baird, Fred- Yackadam. iarles Edward Pooley, barrister-at- Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed William Fisher and John Muir; as- in, Henry Cogan, James Phair, South Victorin it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. Tree Sangster. The Ebore was promosed by Adam				not make as good use of the opportuni- ties as did the visitors, whose only open-	entering the town. This proved tr Cadboro Bay road, Victoria, pro- it by Thomas Argyle, and Aaron it assenting, John F. Charters, Al- McAdam. Nelli	before the vote was taken.	miles. There were three crews from the Warspite, two from the Arethusa, one	he laison and Burns carried it up to the visi-	I in a man another of a goal (Prese built	and a group of officers advanced to
i by Thomas Argyle, and Alfor : assenting, John F. Charters, Al- McN. Jones, Wm. R. Scafe, Doug- W. Muir, Joseph J. Baird, Fred- McAdam. arkes Edward Pooley, barrister-at- Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed William Fisher and John Muir; as- n, Henry Cogan, James Phair, iam F. Bullen. South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. rge Sangster. Eborts wass, promosed by Adam		each from the Virago, Leander, Pheasant	at well. Three times they made a deter	again doing the scoring.	certain whether there would be any
: assenting, John F. Charters, Al- MeN. Jones, Wm. R. Scafe, Doug- R. W. Muir, Joseph J. Baird, Fred- McAdam. arkes Edward Pooley, harrister at- Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Nilliam Fisher and John Muir; as- n, Henry Cogan, James Phair, iam F. Bullen. South Victorin it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. ge Sangster. Eberts was proposed by Adam	BULLER AND HIS "BOYS."	and one from the Royal Artillery. At the	le minad attack on their appanant's face	I the sixth goal was an up and down	and into the square where the cheers
MeN. Jones, Wm. R. Schle, Doug Government 32 A. W. Muir, Joseph J. Baird, Fred- McAdam. Government 32 arles Edward Pooley, barrister-at- Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Government 23 Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- n, Henry Cogan, James Phair, am F. Bullen. Fred- babor 5 South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. AT NANAIMO. Wr. Dunsmuir Pressed to Accept th Nomination but Declined.	Contra Pater Day	start the R.A. crew forged ahead, out	ut but Cheyne, who, during the course of	had the best of the play. Norman being	a crowd of British partisans assu McAdam. McAdam. McAdam. McAdam. 16 arles Edward Pooley, barrister-at- Fernhil, Esquimalt road, proposed Labor 16 Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- n, Henry Cogan, James Phair, am F. Bullen. 16 South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. 9 South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. AT NANAIMO. Wr. Dunsmuir Pressed to Accept th Nomination but Declined.	General Sir Redvers Buller, in a lette	Time go anow home the victors after a ho	OPI attack and Tarak and descent	called on a few times in the 26 minutes.	them a peaceful welcome. Not till the arkes Edward Pooley, barrister at- Fernhill, Esquimalt road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- n, Henry Cogan, James Phair, am F. Bullen. South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. ge Sangster. Eberts was proposed by Adam	I fighting on February 14 and literal	ing race. The R.A. crew was second and	played with Nelson, carried the bal	bis atich At langth thangh Banga man	to the north and naing his entry Fernhill, Esquimair road, proposed Villiam Fisher and John Muir; as- n, Henry Cogan, James Phair, am F. Bullen. South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. ge Sangster. Eberts was proposed by Adam	fought every day and nearly every nig	ad- The double scull school boys' race was a, Henry Cogan, James Filan, am F. Bullen, South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. ge Sangster. Eberts was promosed by Adam Nomination but Declined.	I miretion for the British coldiers, reall	14. WAD AV TAP JPHIL IFULL THE COLICEALO	te call for the old Tulip and his bottles	carrying it down and passing to Tite,	transferred to a Cape cart, which of veyed him to Modder river bridge, wh am F. Bullen, South Victoria it will be a straight between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. ge Sangster. Eberts was pronosed by Adam Nomination but Declined.	the mennes in which they have menhe	a school (Isosr Scholeneid Struke,	Dalden met the much han Anone the days and	who swept it in front from the side,	his train was waiting for him.
between Mr. D. M. Eberts and Mr. ge Sangster. Eborts was proposed by Adam Nomination but Declined.	fought, and endured during the last for	ort- gigs five ears, proved most interesting	At 1 in the state franking for an I	Snell and Chevne showed up very well.	The telegraph operator sat at his
Eborts was proposed by Adam Nomination but Dechaed.	hight has been something more than h	ay. There were crews from the Warspite	g, in to the Westminster flags. Lynch	and Mike Finlaison, Colin Blaine, A. Beltry, C. L. Cullin, E. M. Burns, W.	in the post office, talking in Dutch of the wire to the operator at Braudf Ebowte was proposed by Adam Nomination but Decinetar	al man; proued in a burning sun by da	300 Leander, Arethusa, Icarus, Pheasant and	ad his brother who carried the ball well	Belfry, C. L. Cullin, E. M. Burns, W. Lorimer and Wilson, the latest addition	he was describing the occupation.
	ne man; brolled in a burning sun by da	and the island shar repure infor and, Ar	And the first of the second second of the second	to the team, did good work for Victoria.	"Click, click-the British have enter lenning; seconded by John Sinciair, Nanaimo, B. C., May 26(Special)	he man; brouled in a burning sun by da drenched in rain by night, lying but 30 yards off an enemy who shoots you		Finleison and the over ready Mike made	The next match to be played here is	the town-click, click-they are Land -click, click-some officers have come ssentors being H. C. Dougal, Jos- Nicholson, Jr., John Irvine, J. S. The nominations went off here very	man; brouled in a burning sun by da drenched in rain by night, lying but 30 yards off an enemy who shoots you you show as much as a finger; they con hardly eat or drink by day, and as the	hey ter a nard race, testing the metter of the	a good run passing it to Blaine who	was scheduled for June 9 but as that	to the square-click, br-r-r-r the I.
land, W. Kynaston and John quietly. A small crowd gathered at the	man; brouled in a burning sun by da drenched in rain by night, lying but 30 yards off an enemy who shoots you you show as much as a finger; they con hardly eat or drink by day, and as the	hey ter a nard race, testing the metter of the	ad a good this passing it to astalle white	is election day, it will be played on either	cers are riding into the square-b
dn. Sangster was proposed by W. dark horses, but no thunderclaps surprised.	man; brouled in a burning sun by da drenched in rain by night, lying but 30 yards off an enemy who shoots you you show as much as a finger; they con hardly eat or drink by day, and as the	hey ter a nard race, testing the metter of the	ad threw to Stephens, who, however, failed	the 2nd or 16th	"What's that?" queried the operator npson and seconded by George ed them. Upon Mr. Dunsmuirs arriv	he man; brouled in a burning sun by da drenched in rain by night, lying but 30 yards off an enemy who shoots you you show as much as a finger; they con hardly eat or drink by day, and as the were usually attacked at night they g but little sleep, and through it all the were as cheery and willing as could be	hey ter a nard race, testing the merite of the got men in no slight degree, the Phensan hey crew came in the victors by a good lead be," over their rivals. The Jearns crew was issecond and the Leander third.	as threw to Stephens, who, however, falled to put it into the net. Scholefield saved	No. of the second s is: S. Reid, R. Porter and S. Sea from Victoria he was met by an influe	he man; brouled in a burning sun by da drenched in rain by night, lying but 30 yards off an enemy who shoots you you show as much as a finger; they cou hardly eat or drink by day, and as the were usually attacked at night they g but little sleep, and through it all the were as cheery and willing as could be a "Mabel always said she would ney	hey ter a nard race, testing the merite of the got men in no slight degree, the Phensan hey crew came in the victors by a good lead be" over their rivals. The Icarus crew was second and the Leander third.	as threw to Stephens, who, however, falled to put it into the net. Scholefield saved of from the throw out and threw well in e front of the goal and Frank Smith se	SUMMARY.	Brandfort. No answer.
tial deputation and strennously press	he man; brouled in a burning sun by da drenched in rain by night, lying but 30 yards off an enemy who shoots you you show as much as a finger; they cou hardly eat or drink by day, and as the were usually attacked at night they g but little sleep, and through it all the were as cheery and willing as could be a "Mabel always said she would ney marry any but a professional man."	hey ter a nard race, testing the merite of the got men in no slight degree, the Phensan hey over their rivals. The learns crew was second and the Leander third. One of the most inferesting events of ver the afternoon's sport followed—the race between Indian war cances. There were	as threw to Stephens, who, however, failed to put it into the net. Scholefield saved of from the throw out and threw well in the front of the goal and Frank Smith se recured and shot, but missed. Then Stephens for a shot, but missed.	SUMMARY. 1WestminsterH. Latham19 min.	"Repeat that last."
. White, the Government candidate however, firmly declined, preferring th	he man; brouled in a burning sun by da drenched in rain by night, lying but 30 yards off an enemy who shoots you you show as much as a finger; they cou hardly eat or drink by day, and as the were usually attacked at night they g but little sleep, and through it all the were as cheery and willing as could be a "Mabel always said she would ney marry any but a professional man."	hey ter a nard race, testing the merite of the got men in no slight degree, the Phensan hey over their rivals. The learns crew was second and the Leander third. One of the most inferesting events of ver the afternoon's sport followed—the race between Indian war cances. There were	as threw to Stephens, who, however, failed to put it into the net. Scholefield saved of from the throw out and threw well in the front of the goal and Frank Smith se recured and shot, but missed. Then Stephens for a shot, but missed.	SUMMARY. 1WestminsterH. Latham19 min.	"Repeat that last." "Click-br-r-r-r"(in English). W the are you talking about? S withdrawn in North Victoria, but honor of representing the district in	he man; brouled in a burning sun by da drenched in rain by night, lying but 30 yards off an enemy who shoots you you show as much as a finger; they cou hardly eat or drink by day, and as the were usually attacked at night they g but little sleep, and through it all the were as cheery and willing as could be a "Mabel always said she would ney marry any but a professional man."	hey ter a nard race, testing the merite of the got men in no slight degree, the Phensan hey over their rivals. The learns crew was second and the Leander third. One of the most inferesting events of ver the afternoon's sport followed—the race between Indian war cances. There were	as threw to Stephens, who, however, failed to put it into the net. Scholefield saved of from the throw out and threw well it if front of the goal and Frank Smith se re cured and shot, but missed. Then Stephens for a shot, but missed.	SUMMARY. 1WestminsterH. Latham19 min.	"Repeat that last." "Click-br-r-r"(in English). W the — are you talking about? S that Dutch. This is an English tow report received by way of Sidney which much of his time is spint, an	he man; brouled in a burning sun by da drenched in rain by night, lying but 30 yards off an enemy who shoots you you show as much as a finger; they con hardly eat or drink by day, and as the were usually attacked at night they g but little sleep, and through it all the were as cheery and willing as could be set of the sleep, and through it all the were as cheery and willing as could be set of the sleep of the sleep of the marry any but a professional man." "Mabel always said she would nev marry any but a professional man." "And has she fulfilled her desire?" "Yes. Her husband is Professor This field dieton. He has an educated goat and mutrained monkey that he achdeting the	hey ter a nard race, testing the merite of the got men in no slight degree, the Phensan hey crew came in the victors by a good lead over their rivals. The Icarus crew was second and the Leander third. One of the most interesting events of ver the afternoon's sport followed—the race between Indian war cances. There wer eight crews: competing—Valdes, Kuper hid-Island, Themthemlage, Cowichan, Sam d a ich, Limmi, Whatcom and Port Madi	as threw to Stephens, who, however, failed to put it into the net. Scholefield saved of from the throw out and threw well it if front of the goal and Frank Smith se re cured and shot, but missed. Then Stephens for a shot, but missed.	SUMMARY. 1.—Westminster. H. Latham 19 min. 2.—Westminster. A. Turnbull 35½ " 3.—Westminster.—A. Turnbull 9½ " 4.—Victoriais. snaWilson	