BAD FINANCE A MUDDLEHEAD SOCIALISM

Characterization of Budget Mr. Balfour at Manchester Last Night—Mr. Chamberlain Says Adjust Road Duties

LONDON, Eng., Nov. 13.—In a speech last night at Manchester Mr. Balfour speaking of the budget said it was a combination of hard and soft Socialism, and a method of dealing with license abominable and unjust. The idea of any man could be improved by destroying private ownership of land was perfect folly. No man could be taxed according to the kind of property wherein his wealth happened to be invested. The issue raised by the budget could not be decided by a majority of 1908 whatever was the result of the trial which was going to take place.

Mr. Chamberlain, also speaking at Manchester, said attacks on tariff must be met by the frank avowal that if they were to have taxes on factories they must also have taxation on imported food, though they might be, it was absolutely essential for the policy of finance and the future of British culture that these taxes be offset by the adjustment of existing duties.
