winds

temperature; falling barometer; shifting to south and west. BRIEF LOCALS.

Small sleeve buttons are most stylish. Plush skirts make handsome balmorals Sealskin borders are on green cloth suits. Bearskin robes will be used in sleighs. Plain sleeves are preferred to puffs by fa-

Lectures will be resumed at the P. E. di-vinity school Monday. Fifteen car loads of hogs passed through to Boston yesterday. stripes are seen in rich goods One wide border of fur is more stylish than two or three narrow ones.

Anyone exposing venison for sale after this date is liable to prosecution. The road between the Humber and Etobicoke will be laid with gravel. A branch of the Toronto co-operative sociation will be established at Carlton. Twenty cadets are in attendance at the military school. They get 75 cents per Rev. J. E. Trotter has commenced his pastorate of the Beverley street Baptist church.

Subscriptions are being taken up in Riverside for a new Episcopal church on the Kingston road.

A new Orange lodge was organized ct Georgetown last night. Several city brethren were present. Reeve Speight, accompanied by his son Arthur, left Markham Tuesday for a trip to the southern states. Candidates for the wardenship of the county are looming up. Mr. Duncan and Mr. Rowen are the favorites.

The county commissioners had a conference with County Solicitor Kerr yesterday as to the tramway trouble. The new chapel in the new section of the houre of providence will be dedicated by the archbishop at 10.30 a.m. to-day. The new school trustees-elect at Parkdale are J. M. Wingfield, T. Moore, Geo. S. Booth and B. Gooderham, Several ladies

The Stratford Herald nears an action the drowning accident, "Life within the Hub." "Death in the mill pond" The Stratford Herald heads an account of would have been more appropriate.

Mrs. Smith, the victim of the whisky-fire accident on Lombard street Wednesday night, was yesterday removed to the hospital. She will probably recover. Mlle Addie, who assists Herrmann in his performances, makes up as a nice young man, and half the girls in the audience fall The Yorkville Baptist church has again extended a hearty and unanimous call to Rev. E. Harris of St. Thomas. There is every probability of his accepting it.

The first quarterly meeting of the board of the Baptist home missionary convention of Ontario will be held in the Jarvis street otist church, Wednesday, Jan. 18, at 11

Alpha lodge, Parkdale, last night presented Major Gray with a past master's jewel. The presentation was made by Chas. P. Sparling, the new W. M. of the

The Orange Sentinel understands that steps in the direction of the amalgamation of the various junior branches of the GP r are being discussed and very favorably

A crazy crank from Woodbridge nam Sleight imagined he was boss at the Union station yesterday morning, and ordered all the officials to fly around. He was quickly suppressed.

The annual general meeting of the trustees of the Protestant Episcopal divinity school corporation will be held at St. James' school-house, Thursday, January 12, at 3 p.m. The Barber Bros. want to procure the dock at the foot of Frederick street for the purpose of erecting a large woollen factory thereon, which would give employment to not less than 100 hands. A despatch from Newmarket says the officers elect of Doric chapter royal arch masons, grand registry of Canada, were installed Wednesday night by R. E. Comp. J. Ross Robertson, G. Supt. Toronto.

Peremptory list at the assize court today: Friendly v. Carter; McKenze v. Baillie; Agricultural insurance company v. Phillips; Walton v. Grand Trunk railway;

Lyons v. Hendrie; McKnight v. Toronto. The word "taffy," which is now used as a vulgar synonym of flattery, is by no means of recent origin, as many suppose, but was really coined 200 years ago, and has been in use in London fully that street car yesterday a young man named Vickers, living at 464 Sherbourne street, was seized with a fit and fell over the dash board across the track. He was badly cut about the face and head but not run over.

quest on the body of the young man Collins, killed by a Credit Valley train.

Tuesday night. The verdict was accidental death, no blame being attached to the train hands. The body was taken to Brad-

The bulletinist of the Evening Globehung out on his board last night, "A man with four wifes." He is the brother of the reporter who had the following item in a recent issue, "There are 492 panes of glass on Toronto street, not counting the little bulls-eyes in the sidewalks," has been living upon bear meat, a subscrib-er having sent him a whole carcass. It may be inferred that his articles for a while, judging from the one he prints with reference to an item in The World last week, will be very savage.

At the annual election of officers of the above society the following named gentlemen were elected for the current year in the case of Martin v. Cerscallen to re strain the defendant from collecting the assets of the late firm of Martin & Carscallen, barristers, &c., of Hamilton, and leave was granted for the plaintiff to file further affidavits and continue the injunc-
At the annual election of officers of the above society the following named gentlemen were elected for the current year: M. O'Connor, president (by acclamation); P. Boyle, 1st vice-president (by acclamation); P. Boyle, 1st vice-president (by acclamation); P. T. Kirby, 2nd vice-president; Jas. E. Murphy, secretary; L. McCarthy, asst. secretary; P. Doyle, treasurer; Jno. Kavanagh, librarian: Messrs. T. J. Lee, Jas. Callaghan and Chas. March, and M. Roach committee.

The case of Monteith v. Merchants' despatch company occupied the attention of Justice Osler in the assize court yester. lay. Plaintiff entrusted a car-load of clover seed with defendants for shipment to London, England. The seed only got as far as Liverpool, which caused plaintiff a considerable loss. Hence the present suit for amages. The court reserved judgment. Grip was greeted with a full house at Shaftesbury hall last night. Mr. Bengough's lecture was bright and sparkling, brimming over with kindly though racy humor. The cartoons were excellent and as under the artists rapid pencil the features of some well known celebrity were re-

THE BURNT CONTRACT.

cretary Craig Dismissed—The Question of Prosecuting Craig and Godson-Ald. Ryan thinks the whole investigation was an expensive farce. -Future arrangements. The board of works held a special meet ing yesterday to consider Judge Mackenzie's report on the burnt contract, the George Wright, York street, has been presented by his boarders with a gold chain and pendant.

The board of trade will not discuss Mr. Capreol's ship canal scheme until this afternoon.

Jack Hanlan crossed the bay on his ice boat yesterday. This is the first trip of the season.

Subscriptions are being taken.

The question of pay having arisen the solicitor said that in the case of Johnston vs. the city, Mr. Justice Galt had decided that an official was entitled to a month's pay or notice, notwithstanding the provispay or notice, notwithstanding the provis-ion of the municipal act to the contrary. The motion was carried, after a clause had been inserted to the effect that the dismissal was for misconduct in the office of secretary.

On motion of Ald. Mitchell and Ryan $50 was voted to Mr. Littlejohn for extra work as secretary of the board during the past two months, and on motion of Ald. Ryan Mr. Rust was granted $25 for extra Ryan Mr. Rust was granted $25 for extra work during the same period.

The question of inture arrangements was deferred, the engineer saying that his idea was that Mr. Littlejohn should perform the duties of secretary of the committee merely, and that the remainder of the late secretary's duties should be performed by the other officials of the board of works department.

The chairman said the next question was officials of the board of works department. The chairman said the next question was whether any action should be taken against Godson or Craig. The chairman put several questions to the solicitor to some of which he said he was not prepared to give an answer. It was therefore moved that the matter be deferred. Ald. Ryan said he did not see any use in going on with the matter be deferred. Ald. Ryan said he did not see any use in going on with the farce. The whole investigation was an unnecessary expense, which might have been prevented by simply dismissing Craig in the first instance. The motion to postpone was carried.

Craig has been employed in his position of secretary since 1878, and up to the pre-ce 1878, and up to the sent time has been receiving a salary of ### $800 a year. THE CIVIC ELECTIONS.

official Returns-Mr. Low Elected Instead of Mr. MacNabb-Mr. Roddy Gives His Casting

Vote in Favor of Ald. Adamson. At noon yesterday, in the presence of about 100 electors, the city clerk declared the official returns of the municipal elections. The following is the list, the first three named in each ward being elected: St. Patrick's.—Evans 774, Turner 537. Low 485, MacNabb 480, Baxter 457, Rolls

Stephen's.-Bell 471, Evans 366, Webda 315, Murray 306. St. George's — Maughan 406, Boswell 343, Ryan 334, Tinning 194, St. James'—Love 600, Scarth 581, Boustead 573, Arthurs 525, James 273,

St. David's .- Booth 691, Adamson 494, Fleming 494, Hines 59. St. Andrew's.—Clark 559, Farley 552, Defoe 432, Mitchell 378, Gegg 248. St. Thomas—Carlyle 465, Sheppard 348, Trees 329, Riddel 320.
St. John's—Irwin 618, Downey 611,
Kent 549, Fleming 423.
St. Lawrence—Davies 439, Taylor 437,
Hallam 399, Beard 257.
There being a tie in St. Davids

There being a tie in St. David's ward between Ald. Adamson and Mr. R. J. Fleming Mr. Roddy gave his vote in favor of the former, giving as his reasons that Ald. Adamson had been a long time in the council and was so at present, and that council and was so at present, and that the electors by giving him an equal num-ber of votes with Mr. Fleming had not shown an intention of rejecting him.
In St. Patrick's ward it will be seen that ### the official returns elect Mr. Low instead of Mr. MacNabb as was at first supposed. A CASE OF DRAW.

About four months ago Mr. James Laut opened a large tea stere on Yonge street. To every purchaser of five pounds of tea he gave a ticket which entitled the owner to a chance in a drawing for a piano to be given on Christmas eve. Some of our read-Mr. J. Herberta Mason, of the Canada Permanent Loan and Savings' company, has kindly consented to act as treasurer for the fund in course of collection as a New Year's gratuity for the drivers of the Sherbourne street cars.

While riding on the front platform of a street car yesterday a young man named Vickers, living at 464 Sherbourne street. was proved—the good quality of the tea was proved beyond despute, adding to the enormity of Mr. Laut's guilt, and there was no claim that the drawing was not

THE CITY'S FOUR PER CENTS.

At the meeting of the executive yeste day the treasurer said an offer had been made of 91 per cent for the $50,000 worth made of 91 per cent for the $50,000 worth of four per cent sewer debentures, and that the same person would purchase them at par if the interest was made 4½c. The propriety of putting the debentures on the English market was discussed and it was explained that in this and other cases the difficulty in precipiting them lay in the difficulty in precipiting them lay in the difficulty in negotiating them lay in the smallness of the amount. It was decided The editor of the Markham Economist to defer consideration of the sale until the

FATHER MATTHEW'S TEMPERANCE

At the annual election of officers of the

THE FUR COAT BRIGADE,

PROCESSION OF "LAMBS," "BEA. VERS," AND "COONS."

Adventures of a Sheepskin-Hermann's Seal-The Khan Gets a Buffalo Coat. Fur coats are getting common in the city as the streets during the present cold snap can testify. Men from Manitoba full of town lot schemes and big ideas are floating around, in costly furs of one kind or another; so are the local celebrities; so too are the cabmen; and when the letters supposed to have come from the proud owners of Persian lambskin coats appeared in these columns yesterday no little merriures of some well known celebrity were revealed to the audience, the applause told that the hit was appreciated. On the whole Grip gives the best entertainment to which Toronto audiences are treated.

ment was occasioned thereby. It appears not half the "Lambs" were noticed, and accordingly a lot of other letters were received and are given below. Men who received and are given below. Men who wear "Beavers" thought they had been slighted, and they came into the office and asked why they had not been mentioned—even Hon. Edward Blake sailed past with his measure stride and encased in past with his massive stride, and encased in a shiny unplucked beaver coat as if he, too, thought his was at least as good as Sir Chas. Tupper's "Lamb." A regular procession of "Coons" passed the World window with disdainful airs. One or two came in and asked when the "Coons" were to have a show. Hermann the wirard else arbibital. Hermann the wizard also exhibited to us his $475 "Seal."

The letters received from the owners of lambskin coats are as follows:

There are lots of them in town, but it takes a great man to felf one with dignity. Hector Cameron, Q. C., M. P.
Though I wore mine I was defeated for school trustee.—M. O'Connor.
I have ordered one the duplicate to Alex.
Morris.
Wait till you see it.—Ald

Scarth. We raised the price a quarter of one per cent. a gallon so that I could get one.— George Gooderham. I came up specially to show The World nine—Adolphe Hugel.

skins are cheap in Yokohama and I could have bought one in Persia for $25—George W. Lewis.
Wait till you see mine—Billy Farley.
But it is mine that takes the bun—Aleck I have insured my Persian in our com-pany—Bro. McLaughlin.

I got mine after coming to Toronto—Ino.
R. Mitchell.

The Meads all wear Persians. brother got me mine and its worth $250 —Jos. Mead. Winnipeg lots paid for mine-J. J. Foy. THE COONS AND BEAVERS.

A list of the "Coons" and "Beavers" is now being formed. Those who wish to figure in it should send in their names at

Since he left The World and went t Since he left The World and went to Winnipeg the Khan has made quite a stir in the press of that city. Another old Torontonian — Mr. J. S. Coolican who sports a real "Seal" by the byg—presented his Khanship with a "Buffalo" and the recipient chronicles the affair in the following lines in the Winnipeg Sun:

A KOAT FOR KHAN. The Khan is safe, no more can Frost or Blizzards do him Harm, for Kooli-khan gave him a Koat which A splendid buffalo Koat, the Hide of some young buffalo Bull, and when the Khan's inside the koat, the Koat is very Full.

The Jewelery King is not a Slouch; a regular Business Man, and now he's satisfied to think, no frost Khan Kool the Khan.

ALD. HALLAM DIVULGES When interviewed on the the subject of "Lambs," Ald, Hallam said he suspected the great majority of these coats had been in his hide warehouse, and that he had sold the skins to the furriers for $2 each. But it would never do to say so in print, said

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING. Oh, never use the big, big D .- Nicholas

I didn't let MacNabb that election. I laid I'll give you chance next year, Fleming-City Clerk Roddy. I still continue to be the nestor council.—Ald. Adamson. I am lost in the hole of the burnt contract. - Secretary Craig. When I first put this uniform on,

I said as I looked in the glass,
"Queen's Own may be good,
But it's well understood
That the Tenth will soon them surpass."

"Black uniforms look very dull,
And they can't come up to the red,"
So my Manley form
Ladies' hearts shall storm,
I'm a lobster's shell, I said.
From Impatience, by Adjutant Manley,

May I never write a line
If I can't lick Peter Ryan.
Keltik Karols, by Patrick Boyle. I'm Captain John of the Catholic League,

I'm up to every sly intrigue;
I'm up to every sly intrigue;
Peter I'd beat without fatigue,
When I was in the party.
**rom Rhymes of the Rhine, by John O'Donohoe. From Rhymes of the Rhine, by John O'Donohoe.

If I want to hold an inquest,
With the doors all closed and barred,
I will do it, I shall do it,
And my plan shall not be marred
By any paper cavilling,
Or saying "it is wrong,"
For you see I am a minister,
And my position's strong.

—From May Pole Rhymes by Adam Crooks.

St. Lawrence has a little Lamb,
Elected for the ward,
He is a gritand he will sit
Upon the trustees' board.

—From that January Thaw by Geo. C. Patterson.

Samuel Harris, the youthful house oreaker and thief, goes to the C. P. for six months. His pal Joe Leonard is booked for thirty days. The young man who swindled Nelson

POLICE NEWS.

Wood & Co. out of $11.55 got swift retri-Corner Johnson yesterday held an in Corner Johnson yesterday held an in Solution are the drawing was not button. Joseph Collins was sent to jail for a month. Wm. C. Hare got three months in the C. P. James Tye did not answer to the charge of assaulting Maria Cracknell, but the magistrate fined him $10 and costs or fifty days all the same.

The case against John Sellars of stealing of assaulting Glionni's mother, Turner was | to do so during the coming year. fined $2.

Wife-beating does not appear to be on the decline. Wm. Garvin was held at the western station last night on this charge. James McCarthy, a hackman living at 10 Sheppard street, was also arrested for the

EXHIBITION COMMITTEE.

At the closing meeting of this committee yesterday, the secretary reported a surplus in the accounts for the year of $11.80. The mayor moved a vote of thanks to the chairman, complimenting him and expressing regret at his retirement. Ald. Carlyle seconded the motion, which was carried unanimously, and Ald. Crocker made a suit-

WORLD BALLADS.

A COOLED DISH OF POLITICAL GRUEL on every lawful kay in the last two years,

For its cold beyond all doubt,

And folks require extensive fires, So "dear coal" let us shout Now Tilley let us curse, And Tupper who is worse; For, bless your soul, the price of coal Requires an extensive purse,

By protection it is done; Why, gracious! anyone In wealth must roll, to purchase coal At seven and a half a ton.

With all our lungs will shout. So now for office's sake A big push let us make . For, bless your soul, the price of coal Makes all the tories quake.

Yet shout not loud for fear It makes them feel so queer. But up here in the west Let the echoes never rest, For, bless your soul, the price of coal Is of all our cards the best.

Then hide your lack of sense In demagogue pretense,
And conceal the facts, by shouting tax-Lose pounds by saving pence. Now to break the tory ring, Let us fraud and fiction bring, And, oh my soul, of the price of coal, Dear brothers let us sing.

By protection it is done; Why, gracious! any one

PERSONS AND THINGS. The recently discovered opera by Domietti, "The Duke of Alva," will soon be zetti, "The Duke of performed in Rome.

thought there could be any identification of the money. But about a month ago a friend of Mr. Hart's sealed the contents of the box and mailed it to United States Treasurer Gilfilan. On Tuesday of last week a draft was received fron the treasury for $50, the face value of the three greenback notes. The remains of the national hank notes needed together week. A Philadelphia magazine editor found a Frence translation of Edward Everett Hale's familiar "A Man Without a Country," put it into English, and published it as new. tional bank notes, pasted together, were also returned, one of which, the treasurer says, is an Erie national bank note, and which will be redeemed by that bank. The other could not be identified. As it is, The baptist minister at Elkhorn, Wis., nade his tenture of pastorate uncertain by preaching a sermon on temperance, in which $30 of the $100 have been made good. gave the names of five citizens in the

The ninth volume of the French edition of Prince Bismark's speeches, comprising his parliamentary activity during 1880-81, has just appeared. The French translator is thus ahead of the chancellor's native editor.

Mrs. Langtry has been engaged at the Haymarket theatre to play Blanche, in "Ours," which will be produced about the end of January. There is also some idea of reviving later in the season, "Diplomacy," in which place about the the woman although much frightened had escaped unhurt.

ernor of Labuan, consul at Borneo, and lieut. -governor of Natal.

HERRMANN THE WIZARD

able of being ever surprised again by any-thing. The cabinet of wonders was his degree of limberness and toughness which can be imparted to the human frame, and evoked frequent applause. For pure manual dexterity it would be hard to excel the Japanese juggler in his wonderful balancing feats, which were thoroughly appreciated by the audience. Zoe, the automaton sketch artist, in response to a request from the andience draw a picture a request from the audience drew a picture of the late president. The magician was well assisted by Mlle. Addie. The performance will be continued during the rest of this week and should be seen by every one who appreciates genuine

THE PITTSBURG PRISONER. with the many aliases, will lie in jail until documents and evidence are forthcoming from Pittsburg. The county attorney thinks that the legal difficulties in the way are not unsurmountable. Detective O'Mara has returned home to confer with the authorities before further proceedings are

The Pittsburg Commercial Gazette tells how a clue was obtained of Miller's where abouts. There is a woman in the case Her name is Sadie White and she lives in Pittsburg. Miller wrote to the girl, telling her he was going to Toronto. This letter fell into the hands of the Pittsburg detectives, who telegraphed to the Toronto police to hunt up Miller. The rest is aleady known. Miller has the hardihood to deny his name, and says that he is not the man who escaped.

The following are the numbers of births, marriages and deaths registered at the city hall during the year just passed, and 1880: Births. Marriages. Deaths. 880 .... 2650 .... 2545 The figures for 1881 might have been increased had those guilty of non-registration sung by the editor of the Globe with grea effect Let us the N. P. flout, horus by Hamilton Times, London Advertiser Kingston Whig, Ottawa Free Press, and crowd of grit boys-

(Kingston Whig.)

John A. we'll put to route, With coal we'll smoke him out, And clear grits we, "monopolee

Down east they may us hear, For if coal is low, down there you know,

At seven and a half a ton lace who had fied of alcholism.

of reviving later in the season, "Diplomacy," in which place she would

Sir Henry Bulwer, just appointed gover-nor of Natal, is a newphew of the late em-inent Lord Lytton and of Sir Henry Bul-wer, afterward Lord Dalling, the friend of wer, alterward Lord Dalling, the friend of Webster, and for a long time minister at Washington. He is 46 years old. He has been private secretary to the governor of Prince Edward island, resident commissioner in the Ionian islands, treasurer of Trinidad, admisistrator of Dominica, governor of Lahuan consult at Perpen, and Herrmann and his troupe made their first appearance at the Grand last night. Bursts of applause and shouts of astonished laughter frequently interrupted the performance. Herrmann is simply bewildering; after the spectetor has watched him for half an hour he feels as though he were incaprowning performance. The acrobatic feats of the Lorellas, besides being extremely udicrous, were a good illustration of the

James W. Miller, the escaped convict

VITAL STATISTICS.

been actively prosecuted. It is proposed THOSE TELEGRAPH POLES. The mayor has instructed Mr. Barker

The mayor has instructed Mr. Barker of the Mutual Union telegraph company to telegraph for the charter of the company, in order that he may see whether they have a right to place their poles on the streets, and under what restrictions if any.

A Bad Season for Lumbering.

Owing to the absence of snow the timber cut in the woods cannot be hauled to the streams. The prospects are not encouraging for a good season's operations. Up to date low wages have been paid the shanty-

RETAIL CLOTHING.

marked them down to Wholesale Prices.

ever

being greenbacks and two national bank there and made a very nice nest of the bachelor's savings. In fact, the notes were cut as fine as a carding machine could have done the work, in pieces from the size of a pin head to that of a finger nail.

No one who saw the "remains" ever thought there could be any identification

Saved by Presence of Mind.

A Musician's Suicide

NEWPORT, R.I., Jan. 5. - Jabez Smith. isician on board the United States train ing ship New Hampshire, yesterday deliber ately jumped overboard and was drowned that of an apprentice on the Minnesota.

MILLINERY.

he to the thieves exists.

Mail Robbers at Lockport.

THE CREAT ONE PRICE CLOTHING HOUSE. 115, 117, 119 & 121 KING STREET EAST,

OPPOSITE THE CATHEDRAL. We have a Fine Assortment of WINTER SUITS and OVERCOATS left, which we are determined to clear out before Stock Taking. We have COME AND SEE OUR STOCK AND HEAR OUR PRICES.

OAK HALL, THE KING OF CLOTHIERS

ing at extraordinary low prices.

RETAIL DRY GOODS.

township, Crawford county, Pa., Coon Hart, gave to Mrs. Coulson, the lady of the house, his pocketbook for safe keeping. It contained five $20 bills, three of them being greenbacks and two poticed. Edward M'Keowns notes. As Mr. Hart had no occasion to use the money, the box was not called for until the 1st of April last, when on opening the box it was found the mice had been

> Flannels, Blankets, Comfortables, Cloakings, Sheetings, White Goods, Prints, Household Linens, etc., clearing at actual cost. Hosiery, Underwear, Gloves, Gents' Furnishings, Laces, Ribbons, Buttons, Corsets, Leather Goods, inen Handkerchiefs, Silk Neckwear, Lace Ties, Collars, Jabots, etc., clearing at prices that will astonish OUR GREAT ATTRACTION JUST NOW is our immense purchase of Knitted German Wool Goods in awls, Squares, Opera Cloaks, Clouds, Childrens' Ulsterettes, Hoods, etc., which we are offering at Retail

Silks, Velvets, Satins, Dress Goods, Shawls, Mantles, etc., clear-

"Ladies, If You Want a Bargain Just See Them."

We will make no statements regarding the value any further than they are the Best Bargains" ever shown by any house in this Market, and to invite your inspection. It will pay you. Everything desirable. No trash. EDWARD M'KEOWN.

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING.

LOVELL BROTHERS.

Steam Printers & Publishers. Fine work of Every Description a Specialty.

39 AND 41 MELINDA STREET TORONTO HAILWAY SHOW CARDS A SPECIALTY AT THE

It is supposed the cause was an intimation that he was to be discharged for drunken MAIL JOB DEPARTMENT. ness. This is the second suicide since the arrival of the training fleet, the other being Designs and Sketches Furnished. Commercial,

LOCKPORT, N.Y., Jan. 5.—The mail wagon running between the postoffice and depot here was robbed last evening of the Buffalo mail bag, containing letters and packages for Buffalo, Binghampton, Elmira, and adjacent points. A bag was found here this morning. All the letters were gone. There were no registered letters, but it is supposed that many letters were valuable. No class to the this passes exists. Book and Job Printing,

MERCHANTS YOU CAN HAVE Bill Heads, Circulars, Cards,

G. C. PATTERSON & CO.'S. No 4 Adelaide Street West.

To Her Royal Highness Mr. JOS. B. REED has been appointed to the Agency of this Company. The business of the Toronto Agency will in future be PRINCESS LOUISE

All the Season's Novelties in MILLINERY FRENCH FLOWERS and AMERICAN FANCY GOODS.

Mourning a Specialty. MISS STEVENS, 255 YONGE STREET.

Opposite Holy Trinity Church. TORONTO. SHIRTS.

THE PARAGON SHIRT First Prize.) HAVE NO OTHER

Institution. NO. 4 QUEEN ST. EAST.

Established - 1874. There is nothing so permanently beneficial to the sufferer as Norman's Electro-curative Belts, Bands and Insoles. They immediately relieve and permanently curs Astha, Liver Complaint, Lumbago, Nernently Charles, Neuralgia, etc., and a host of trouble ver which medicine has little or no control. Circulars and consultation free. Medicated and other baths always ready for ladies and gentlemen.

182 Yonge-st., Third Door north of Queen. Samples sent per mail

BOOK AND JOB

Attention given to Book Work. Esti-

Railway. Law, Show, LOCKPORT, N.Y., Jan. 5.—The mail

ntrance to Job Department on Bay street. COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE, TORONTO.

School Re-assembles on Monday, the 9th inst., at 9 a. m. PEES PER TERM: Etc., Printed Cheap and There is a Preparatory Form, ARCHIBALD MACMURCHY, Rector. neat at

> SPECIAL NOTICE. Lancashire Insurance Co'y

carried on under the name and style of REED & ROGERSON. S. C. DUNGAN-CLARKE & CO. REED & ROGERSON.

TORONTO AGENTS,

OFFICES: 20 Toronto Street, 20 Wellington Street East BARGAINS! BARGAINS

Great Clearing Sale of

For 30 days at cost and under, 246 AT CLARKE'S 201 Queen Street West.

J. B. COOK, THE PHOTOGRAPHER, Albert Hall,

191 and 193 YONGE STREE

Has all the lastest kind of scenes. Rustic, Conservatory, Boating, and Swinging Pictures all the rage. Cabinets, . . 83 per Dozen. Tablettes, $1 per Dozen up AMBROTYFES, Six for Fifty Cents. [246 SPIRITUAL MANIFESTATIONS !

Parlor Seances held at 104 RICHMOND STREET WEST every Monday, Wednes day and Friday evenings at 8 p. Admission, - - - 50 Cents. Arrangements can be made for Private

UNDERTAKERS

M. M'CABE & CO.
UNDERTAKERS,
333 QUEEN STREET WEST.
ORDERS ATTENDED TO NIGHT AND DAY.

V. P. HUMPHREY.

JNDERTAKER. 199 Yonge St., Opp. Agnes 51 J. YOUNG,

THE LEADING

UNDERTAKER 28 TELEPHONE COMUNICATION. BOOTS AND SHOES.

WM. CHARLES. CUSTOM BOOT AND SHOE MAKER. 113 CHURCH STREET,

19 Adelaide Street East, The Canadian Question,

CANADIAN INDEPENDENCE By WILLIAM NORRIS.

A TREATISE ON

PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CTS. To be had at the following book sellers Willing & Williamson. Toronto: J. Lyght & Co. Hamilton; Duncan Stuart & Co. Hamilton; J. Henderson, Kingston; R. Wellington, Oshawa; Robt Cooper, Chatham; A. Henry & Bro. Napanee; Henry McCrim, Strathroy; Lewis Allen, Whitby; William Brown, Walkerton; Franklin House, Cobours; Edward Laird, Barrie; A. McLaughlin, St. Thomas; D. McMaster, Sarnia; R. Sproul. Brantford; S. Buslee, toderich; E. Morrison, Belleville; Davidson & Co. Peterborough; Thos J. Day, Guelph O. L. Middlemass, Port Hope; R. C. Fairfield, St; Catharnes; A. F. Sharp, St. Mary's; C. Wright. Windsor; F. Nesbett, W. Modstock; A. J. Donly, Simcoe; W. G. Scott, Prescott; Thos Morton, Picton

J. EYRES & SONS. . Puller & Sons, Perth, Se DYERS TO THE QUEEN. STEAM DYE WORKS 329 YONGE STREET, TORONTO, ON Leader Lane, off King street East Silk and Woollen Dyers, Scourers, &c Gents' clething, kid gloves and teathers a specialty!
Silks, velvets, damnsks, repps, shawis, table congraand wyterproofs, lustres. Mc inoes cleaned, dyeaand possed.

Te to exhibition, 1879, awarded first extra prize for doing silks, etc. 1880, diploma—highest award possible.

483 YUNGE-ST., TORONTO. CATERER.

Confectioner Urnamental Special attention given to supplying Weddings, Evening Parties, &c. A full supply of all requisites, including Cosaques, Silver Dishes, Centres. Cutlery, Table Linen. Table Napkins, &c., constantly on hand.

Wedding Cakes & Table Decorations OUR SPECIALTIES. 861

By (m)
Rectable;
Reeper an both are we toba. Ad

A S POI
H. Sharks

A S. COI
Pointment.
Box 130, W

A S SAII
L. 499, Sprin

A CLER situat
English, Front teaching,
Henry, 26 Q

S TUATI
Good house
Wenty. Bo

A S POR
Address

Adver pub such "To "M" for 60 ce, word

 $\overline{\mathbf{B}}^{\mathrm{y}}$

ences for open for self use

By ha Good re

NUT St.

A S L

8 Carlette

B OOH

ARGE grates, shed room, ARM 40x60

MITHIN of Q family. Add A N UNFT ten mi Yong st. A Reference fur BO Two RO in prive Ellsmbeth et. Two Office. Box 1.

MONEY I may be described and the service of the prive rate &c., bought; e purchase good confidential; e strictest integristreet West, I SPE A DDRESS eners (ex my J2,000 catal of A THIN LYPE) with ma Plated Locket, painted in oil. TRAIT. Phote TRAIT. Phote

BLOOD BI'S sufficient HALL'S HERB DRESS PLA manner. 2 Rever

FLOUR-FLOUR-FLOURIST quality, 83 15 a bag. R.

ADIES' FIN latest styl Rossin house ble LUMBER F Joists 2-6 to 850; 2x4 scantili
to $8; bills cut t
Church street.

OVERCOA
DAMS' Factor