how the leaders cannot be dised, even though they lost all their maining games while Hamilton won

Winning the pennant for the second onsecutive year by Buzz Wetzel means consecutive year by Buzz Wetzel means his fifth pennant in eight seasons as a leader in minor leagues, having finished second on his three other years.

To Oscar Delotelle went the honor of pitching the victory that crowned Manager Wetzel's 1920 effort in the Mint League, the Red Sox, under Knotty Lee's leadership, failing to make much of an impression on the offensive, otty Lee's leadership, failing to make ch of an impression on the offensive, ting but six bingles, and two pair those were bunched in the second 1 sixth for a run at a time, but y three of the total were regular to knocks, two going to Orme and to other to Moorefield.

Tom Estelle, without the privilege of faking a spitball or throwing one once in a while, was easy picking for the Tecumsehs, who connected for 14 wallops, which were mingled with some ragged fielding of thrown balls by his ort for seven runs.

mpire O'Hearne was compelled to considerable quelling of fault-finding his decisions on balls and strikes, as usual it was the Red Sox, who noted for this when the contest ipping other than their way. ADY AND MOOREFIELD.

With two out in the beginning of the becomd inning. Brady connected out of fowling or Kennedy's reach for a lingle, and stole second and promptly tomped home on Moorefield's hit to Crichlow. Estelle ended their rally by colling out to Pittenger.

Orme singled to start the eighth, but remained on first while the next three Brants were retired on pop flies. London tied the score in their half of the second inning. Briger starting off with a single and went to second when Murphy let Moorefield's throw get away from him at first. Crichlow drove Briger in with a hit, going to second when Murphy threw Westlake's return low to Werre at first, trying to nip Crichlow off the sack.

Manager Wetzel's London Tecumsehs cinched the 1920 Michigan-Ontario Baseball League championship by defeating Brantford in the second game of the series yesterday afternoon by 7 to 2. London has 15 more games to play, and with a lead of over 15 games to play, and with a lead of over 15 games to play, and with a lead of over 15 games to play, and with a lead of over 15 games to play, and with a lead of over 15 games to play, and with a lead of over 15 games to play, and with a lead of over 15 games over the Hamilton Tigers, who have 14 games still scheduled, it can easily be seed to score when kuhn singled. Kuhn was out trying to go to third on Briger's single to Orme. Crichlow got his second in the the fourth, went to second on Pittenger's bunt, to third on Dowling's infield out and scored on Delotelle's single to Dye, and Delotelle was thrown out trying to make third base "a la Ty Cobb."

Shay opened the fifth mning with a double to left and was safe at third when Calbert's roller to Clark at third. Kuhn bounced a hit off Werre's glove, scoring Shay. Briger bunted and the two heavy weights moved up a notch. Calbert scored on Crichlow's roller to Clark, and the offensive ended when Pittenger also rolled out to Clark.

BRIGER'S THIRD HIT.

Briger got his third bingle in the ighth, but was forced at second by richlow. Crichlow was safe at second when Murphy dropped Brady's toss of Pittenger's grounder. The pair worked a double steal and scored on Delotelle's double after Dowling had
