

PLYMPTON

Mr. Jeffrey Wakefield's fine house is nearing completion.

Miss Elba Wakefield is recovering from an attack of influenza.

Mr. T. O. Frank, Pontiac, is visiting with friends on the London road.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Peacock, Sarnia, are holidaying with friends on the London Road.

Mr. Wilbert Teeple had an operation on his eye in Victoria hospital, London, on Saturday.

Mr. John McDougall spent the week end with his daughter, Mrs. J. A. Clements, Sarnia.

Duncan Williamson and Joseph Bryson were interested spectators at the Plowing Match last week.

Messrs. H. and W. Dunn and Miss A. Dunn spent Sunday with their cousin, Mrs. Doug. Grieve.

Mrs. B. McCormick and Mrs. J. McCormick spent a few days recently visiting relatives in Sarnia and Pontiac.

Miss A. Grace Minnelly has resigned her school at Mandamin, and is home at present on account of the ill health of her mother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Carter, and family and Mrs. Carter, Sr., Brigidon, spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. J. McCormick.

Rev. Gillies Eadie, Changte, Honan, China, gave a splendid address on the work of the missionaries in China, in South Plympton Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon.

Misses Catherine, Eva and Agnes MacDougall attended the opening of the War Memorial Hospital in London, on Saturday, in company with Miss Gladys, who is training in Victoria Hospital.

FOREST

The town council will not take any action on the resignation of Mayor D. R. McCall until after the first of the month in order that a special election may be avoided. Mayor McCall resigned because of a difference with the council over the administration of police matters and declares that he is definitely out of the town's affairs.

The Penny Bank reports for May and June of this year have been issued. The report shows that the Forest School pupils have saved on an average of 38 cents for each pupil attending school.

Mr. Chas. King has sold his property on Clyde street to Mrs. D. Brand. Mr. King has rented Jos. McLean's residence on the old park property.

While going out to visit her sister, Mrs. Hall, in Warwick, Wednesday of last week in a Ford Coupe, Mrs. J. H. Pickering and son Jack were driving along the 4th of Warwick, when near John Scoffin's farm they met a horse and wagon loaded with gravel. The driver of the wagon didn't give Mrs. Pickering very much of the road and in passing the auto struck the wagon breaking the reach. The force of the collision threw Master Jack with considerable force against the windshield but fortunately did not hurt him. Mrs. Pickering also escaped injury. The auto suffered a badly bent front axle.

PETROLEA

Petrolea's tax rate for this year is 52 1/4 mills.

Jeffrey Engleheart of New York was the guest of Major George Moncrieff of Petrolea for a few days this week.

Miss Jean Esson who has been employed with the Orton Motor Co. has taken a position as book-keeper with C. Humphrey Co.

The Petrolea council decided last night to make a two year contract with the Petrolea Utilities Co. by which they will receive gas at 55 cents during the winter months. Added to this price the company will charge 25 cents for the meter rents. Last year's price was only 15 cents.

The Presbyterian league has reorganized for the winter months and great enthusiasm was shown by those present to make the coming year a success. An election of officers was held and resulted as follows: President, Miss Frances Barrett; vice president, Vaughn Ellis; treasurer, Cameron A. Bell; secretary, Miss Helen Monds; corresponding secretary, Miss Nellie Ewart. The meetings of the organization will be held on Monday evenings.

George Fisher, an aged resident of Petrolea passed away at the hospital on Saturday in his 86th year. He was born in Tickhill, Yorkshire, England, in 1862 and came out to Canada on the same boat which brought another Petrolean, Thomas Bicknell, to the new world, when about twenty-five years of age. For twenty-one years he farmed on the 12th line of Plympton and for another six years on the 8th line of Enniskillen, coming to Petrolea where he took a position as janitor of the Masonic Temple which he held until his death.

B. AND E. TOWNLINE

Mr. Alfred Parke visited with Mr. Vance Jardine over the weekend.

Mr. Geo. Bullock, teacher of S. S. No. 15, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stonehouse.

A number from the vicinity took in the plowing match held in Petrolea on Thursday last.

Several are contemplating taking in the Hallowe'en party at Shiloh on Tuesday.

A number from here enjoyed the fowl supper and concert held in the Wyoming Methodist church Monday evening.

This vicinity was largely represented at the anniversary in the Methodist church, Wyoming, Sunday.

Mrs. Ted Mathers and little son, Bobbie, returned home to Sarnia after spending a week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Hara.

KERWOOD

Mr. R. A. Brunt of Windsor was a weekend visitor.

Mr. James Beeton of Niagara on the lake called on old friends last week.

Mrs. Boyce of St. Thomas visited at her brother's, Mr. W. R. Smith, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson spent the weekend with friends in Rochester, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fisher and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Brigham.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Richardson and family of Mt. Brydges spent Sunday with their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Richardson Sr.

Rev. Cosley Morris B.A., will preach morning and evening at the anniversary services. This is Mr. Morris' first visit to this circuit. As his ability is well known many will be glad to hear him.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's church will meet at the home of Mrs. Geo. Freer on Nov. 2nd. This is a special meeting to finish the sewing for the bazaar to be held Nov. 25th at the home of Mrs. de Gex.

It was a good sight to see the men placing in the cement platform in front of the Methodist church Monday and Tuesday of last week. The work was well done and is a credit to the workman. Appreciation is due Mr. Clarence Fuller for the use of his mixer. It greatly improves the appearance of the church.

The advance of the Swiss Bell Ringers advised the Program Committee for our anniversary concert that many of the people wanted to hear them. The Methodist people of Kerwood invite the people to their fowl supper next Monday evening and there they will hear the Bell Ringers at their very best. You will need to come early or you may have to stand during the concert.

ARKONA

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson spent Sunday with relatives at Glanworth.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Lampman were in Port Huron over the weekend attending the funeral of Mr. Lampman's aunt, Mrs. Eliza Seymour.

Mr. J. Jackson and family of Parkhill, have moved into town, having purchased the Teeple property on North street.

The ladies of the Methodist church purpose holding their annual bazaar on Friday, Nov. 10th. Full particulars next week.

The W. L. sewing class under the able management of Miss Phillips, Government Instructress of Toronto, will be attended and making good progress.

Next Sunday the November Quarterly Communion service will be held in the Arkona Methodist church. All members urged to be in their place at this service. Service at 7 p.m.

Arkona Masonic lodge had an official visit from R. W. Bro. Rich. Williamson, D. D. G. M. of St. Clair District on Friday evening, when the Fellowship degree was exemplified by W. Bro. Dowding and officers of the lodge in a faultless manner. A number of visiting brethren were present from Watford, Forest and other lodges. After the close of the lodge a most appetizing lunch was served and a very pleasant hour spent in speech and story.

Mrs. Chas. Morningstar of Detroit is spending a few weeks with her father, Mr. Cliff.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Harnish, Mrs. E. Morningstar and Mr. Lloyd Richter left on Friday on a motor trip to Macombe, Mich.

Snappy stylish overcoats for the young men placed into stock this week.—Brown Bros.

Miss Stewart, teacher at the White school spent the week-end at her home in Bothwell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilcox and daughter Rhea of London spent Sunday with Mrs. Wilcox's father, Mr. Cliff.

Botany Serges, gabardines and homespun for ladies' suits and dresses placed into stock this week.—Brown Bros.

ALVINSTON

Mr. Orville McNally spent a few days last week in London.

Mr. Harvey Hutchison of Simcoe is visiting with friends in town.

Mr. William Vosburg, of Picton, is visiting at the home of his brother, John Vosburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Little and children of Pontiac, Mich., are visiting with relatives in town.

Mr. Charles McCarter visited over the weekend with his nephew, Mr. Cecil Wall, at Weston.

Misses Florence Wiltzie and Corine Howe spent the week-end at the latter's home in Lawrence.

Mrs. Warren of Portage la Prairie is spending a few days at the home of her sister Mrs. Margaret Luke.

Miss Helen Cowan of Courtwright spent the weekend at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Anthony Gilroy.

Mrs. Leitch and daughter of Detroit are visiting at the home of the former's sister, Miss Minnie Caruthers.

Mrs. M. A. Temple left on Saturday for Ingersoll where she will spend a few days as the guest of her sister, Mrs. John McCarter.

Messrs. Charles and Robert McCarter of Brooke accompanied by Mrs. Clara Wall and son Charlie, of Thamesville, motored to Hamilton last week to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Davies.

The first meeting of the Presbyterian Young People was held in the basement of the church on Monday evening and a very enjoyable evening was spent. After the opening exercises the business part of the meeting was carried out after which a musical program, composed of saxophone and violin selections, instrumentals and vocal solos was very much appreciated. The officers for the following year were chosen as follows: President, Robert Morrison; vice president, Nevin McPhail, secretary, Mary Livingstone, treasurer, Effadora Campbell, pianist, Helen Irving.

OPENING OF SARNIA C. I. AND TECH.

Formal opening of the Sarnia Collegiate Institute and Technical School was made Friday, the ceremonies being divided into two parts, an afternoon and an evening program.

Some of the features of the new building are 32 class rooms, power-operated machine shop, electrical shop, wood working shop, departments of marine engineering, draughting, domestic science, with a complete model home; cafeteria, swimming pool, 25 by 75 feet, with girls' and boys' dressing rooms with shower baths attached; commodious gymnasiums, etc. The latest installations in heating, lighting and a complete telephone system, to all class rooms are other features, with an auditorium with seating accommodation for 1,040. The total enrollment this year is 700 collegiate students and 650 technical students, the numbers in the latter department having doubled since last year.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions.

F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

DISTRICT EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION

The annual convention of the Strathroy District Epworth League of the Methodist Church was held in the Bethesda church on Wednesday, October 25, 1922. The afternoon session opened at 1.30 p.m. with 150 delegates registered.

The first hour was taken up with singing and prayers, over 50 prayers being made. Rev. T. A. Steadman, pastor of the church, gave the address of welcome, responded to by Rev. F. J. Rutherford of Mount Brydges. Rev. Manson Doyle of Toronto gave the leading address of the day. In the afternoon he spoke on "Our Objective and How to Obtain It", bringing out clearly that the young people of today must help people to get that God-consciousness in their souls. Miss Beatrice Foster of Kerwood sang a solo acceptably.

From 5 to 6 Miss Mansfield of Watford led the delegates in recreating games. The ladies of Bethesda served a delightful banquet to the delegates. Mr. J. H. Richardson, retiring president was chairman of both sessions.

The evening session opened with the presentation of the banner by the Uttometer League to the Zion League of Watford, which holds it for this year. Rev. Doyle spoke splendidly on "True Wealth" followed by an address equally fine from Rev. W. K. Hager on "My Creed." The solo by Mr. Gerald Robertson and the duet by Miss Clarke and Mr. Hair were very much appreciated. A resolution heartily commending the provincial government in their action against the race track gambling curse and pledging support to Hon. Mr. Raney, attorney general, in his efforts to eliminate the evil, was unanimously.

The election of officers was as follows:

Hon. President—Rev. W. K. Hager, Watford.

President—Miss Florence E. Edwards, Watford.

1st vice president—Rev. M. C. Parr, Appin.

2nd vice president—Miss Margaret Taylor, Uttometer.

3rd vice president—Miss Olive Bullick, Uttometer.

4th vice president—Mr. Russell Johnston, Kerwood.

5th vice president—Miss Edythe Moffitt, Watford.

Summer School Correspondent—Miss Winnie Wilton, Mt. Brydges.

Conference Representative—Rev. Rev. T. A. Steadman, Watford.

Secretary Treasurer—Miss Ila Cook Watford.

INWOOD

Mrs. Alice Trowhill returned home Saturday after a week's visit with her son, Mr. Robert Trowhill, North Bay.

Dr. S. F. and Mrs. Tichbourne were in Toronto for a few days recently.

Messrs. J. P. MacVicar, J. Y. McKeown, George Maddock, Charles Maddock and others from the vicinity are deer-hunting in New Ontario.

Mrs. Joe Armstrong and Mrs. Elva Penfound returned recently from a visit in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Crawford and baby Jack were in Sarnia last Friday.

Mrs. Margaret Silk has returned home after spending the summer in Forest and Sarnia.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bishop and daughters, Marvel and Elaine, motored to London last Sunday.

Mrs. R. J. Richardson entertained a few of the junior helpers of the Women's Institute last Saturday evening. Several games were played after which homemade candy was served.

Mr. W. A. Leitch has returned to his position on the staff of the Royal Bank after two weeks holidays spent at his home in Oakdale, and at Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Carroll and daughter Mae of Aughrim were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. R. J. Richardson.

Mrs. Wallie Neil spent a couple of days recently at the home of her father, Mr. John Mater at Sunnyside. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Warner have returned from a business trip to Toronto and the Niagara Peninsula.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Agnes Ayres and Rudolph Valentino in a Scene from the Paramount Picture, "The Sheik", a George Melford Production.

LYCEUM THEATRE, WATFORD, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 8th

Only Eight Weeks 'Til Christmas!

RIGHT NOW IS THE TIME TO ORDER YOUR

Cards of Greeting at The Guide-Advocate

We have been successful in securing a few entirely new designs for our patrons this year, that can be printed to your order and sold at lower prices. You are invited to call at this office and see our samples as early as possible.

As the end-of-the-year rush commences in all printing plants on December 15th, we can not accept any orders for Personal Greeting Cards after December 1st. Write out your Greeting now and give us your order at once.

OUR PRICES ARE STANDARD

One Dozen $2.00

Two Dozen $3.00

nities

lot of s will be chance s cheap
A Sterount is

BANK

se e dealing with this Bank you fully equipped h resources in 000 and with connections

Centres in Canada
in all Branches

Montreal
100 Years

College
SCHOOL

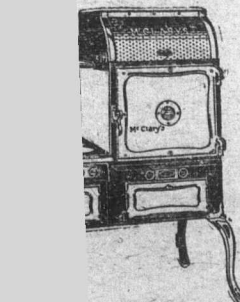

ent

ings about any nt and the oven.

both these points:

The heating collected from spilled oil and remain hot:

orcelain enameled
apt clean. It operce heated it stays.

ry's
Range

Winnipeg, Vancouver,
Calgary, Saskatoon
ton

Crae & Co.

it would be advan-
this fee collected, collector is to be in-
ect same as from Nov-