The Standard, No 19 Vol. 13 ORTRONTIER AGRICULTURAL & COMMERCIAL G

ST ANDREWS, N. B. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1848. 115 at the end of the Year Price 12 6 in Advance.

POBTRY. THE DESERTED HALL,

BOROUGH

PILIS,

OWAY

GH CURED OF COMPLAINT ; H February 1845.

OWAY revented the pas-lore this time for your Pills as you y of serding you at the same time effected cure of a ch, which all the at home, and all en sites to effect allohd and Ma-lias Energy, should by Fangy, should at fourthe for you

ALDEOROT GH URDERY OF

ADING Themes Toillor Che h. April 1845.

town xy town you then X as gh, a respectable, miles of this place y for five years, without receiving is and Ointunent, raing benefit that ean up being so to her household to state that abe new roble. I han y ing it was t some iet tace, bei g'in a cutirely b the town, have cured iff constipation of to life ary parents should strongly re-

Ac DMAS TAS:08 AND I UNSTI-QWLLS yiten Barter. Eag. asglies & & & Montg incryshirs rd 1945.

usly-disposed per-luable fills You

THEN BAXTER.

David Williams Berumaris, Island wary 14 h. 1243. LOWAY.

rested you to send be name of Hugh them, was almost f breach 5 and had when, he appeared it, is now easy and the is averagin.

ils will cure ant. Breath, howers in may he, even-thin bed thirwigh of the follow-

Rheumatten

Berufun or Kings avil a. Stone & Ginsel a. Tie-Uolosaug Venereal Affections tee Tomours plaint Ulcers

Worms of all · kinds

whatev's cause

No. 2010 Andrews St. Andrews Ite; John M. is. and Jastos and Boxes at nended

Li Lights.

Il kinds

RES

DARD.

VEDNESDAY, ...

Pmith. - 0

Andreici, N B

aid in advance. end of the year.

Hil arreats are paid

n orders, or continue ten directions nd under, 3s

12 lines 3d per line 2 lines 1d per line is may be spreed on luais who have no bo paid for in ge-, de. gruck off and for on deliver 78

B Mr. John Gotteral W. Campbell Eng James Albes Eng

James Albert Log Triet. Moore Log Jas Brown Esq Mr. J. Gedda Mr. Clarke Hans Mr. B. Dougl Mr. D. Gilmen

Wilford Fisher and bir binnry B Back

SENT84

or sale at this

le this note, if you wa

LOWAY. h I purchased at 40

ter expected 1

To a mortal heart hew humbling ls a view of you old Hall, Into dust and darkness crumbling, While rude winds shake root and wall. Mess is round the casement spreading, And no more il e wiadows blaze When the weary day is shedding His last and and quivering rays.

Under the neglected arbor Foxes in the night-time back." And the bat and a ider harbor In its chambers drear and daik. Weeds, about the door-stone growing, Whisper of decay and blight-On the hearth no ember glowing Sheds a warm and cheerful light. Near the ruin is a river,

And the waves schile flowing on, From their lips of crystal, ever Breathe that word of mourning-coust Round the place old poplars cluster, And the leaves give out strange tones" When the moon flings pallid lustre

On the roof and basement stones. Saddened and disorted dwelling 1-Of a wronged and broken heart, While the dirge of hope is kneiling

Oh !. a mournful type thou art Flowers of love untimely perished, In its barren realm hie waste,

Like thy garden grounds once cherished By thy moulding hand of taste.

Creatures that haunt places lonely In thy empty halls are bred, "And that HEART is peopled only

By the shadows of the dead. As you move, with look sudding, Lights the home of days gone by. In this beart - A NOBLER RUN

SADLY BLIMMERS MENORY. THE SONG OF THE MOON."

When the sun's at rest, Fat away in the west, mount on my silver cur, 3 And slowly I rise. .

From the twilight skies, And ride o'er the earth afar. In the midnight hour I clamber the tower Where the lowly captive lice; And I gladden his sight

DEAD OPEN AND SHUT. OR THE WAY THEY, PLAY, IN ARKANSAS.

its tolation and peopler all antigges, washard to be excelled . Montgomery atorsed was a black nigger ? cried Jonathan; turning to him proposed that he should be alternately enit . A Brave Bor .- The Newark Advertiser with a turious look. Why, you see, I is de Gineria's nid de Burthe General soon gave him to understand has sayed four lives, although he is not vet Why, you see, I is de Grineral's and de Few who have travelled much on the broad Mississippi at ar early day out what have game;" at the same time be handed then of Mongomery, and hence but knew of the bade. The losing party saw the discention of the ing called Mongomery, and hence but knew of the bade. The General was none the lex there your that this game can don't be played and only be p

The loop graft way like a section of the control of the c

' I say, Gineral,' called out the Yankee a respects to that ar nigger of yourn, and don't get playin' none of your ' dead open and shu

as long as he was in sight.

character of their host, and make a pack horse of both the therefail that statisht attain at the world be very attain at any more present of the procured within the torus and make a pack horse of twenty one, himself than here marks the term of the born Easier and the landlord, while the born easier and the landlord, while the born a plan where you at the term of an long and the term of an long and the term of the born easier and the landlord, while the landlord, to answer as his own pack horse, and though assured in ne could only play in they play han 15-when, with a motion quick as light, which had not previously been considered a find horn gan-fints, to pack through the state, ed on for a time, when the Generakapp aring the could always accommodate hinself. In get out of patience, insisted the game should the cycle of the General, which had not previously been considered a ning. He drove his brawny fist shap between chargeable arise. There can be no questi-the could always accommodate hinself. The counted is be charged, as he was over one thousand dolored the deck. The counter that the labor of the head is £2,000 when the loser of the head is £2,000 when the lo

Far down in the deer My vigils I keep -Where the reefs of coral lie And mirrored I shine In the caves of brune Midst the seawerd drapery,

In the hasvest night. I send forth my light-To the reapers a welcome boo As the joyous train. Midst the golden grain, Sing the song of the " Harvest Moon, "

With my pale moon light-The light of his native skies.

Away, far away, Where true lovers stray-By wood, and by shady bowers-I guide their long walk, As they rapturously talk Of the bliss of coming hours.

When weary and wan, The wayfaring man In darkness is prone to stray, My friendly light, Like an angle bright, To his homestead points the way

I peep when I please, Through the opening trees Where the sporting children play ; And I listen the song Of the mifthful throng, As they chaunt their foundelay

As at times I gazo On the comet's blaze. / When the trembling stars grow dim. Affrighted I shroud My form in a cloud, And sing my midnight hymn

As at times I gaze On the comet's blaze. When eclipses o'ershadows my face ; But brighter I rise, In my home in the skice From the dark intruder's embrade

After their leaving, the General still caused fair request, as he had frequently said he knew air, on the same time snatching, the money, he was too hard in accussing his honest friend him a chance to win back his money. The of hard in accussing his honest friend him a chance to win back his money. The yanion, to the disconforture of their enemies, told him his accusations were no ways error. By this time all was ready for their morn-neous. The Yankee ground his teeth and ing departure, and Monsieur, thinking he eous. The rankee ground his teen and high parater and second best, was anxious to supid fool, blaze away blow out that infer-It's target well for you that I aint at hum; leave, ; but the General declared that his, nal Yankee's brains-he's not fit for dog's lecture remarked-

At this the Frenchman assured the six feet open and shut? Yet you say. Generale? Me no under the General on usside. Vot you say, Generale ? Me no under- chagnin, and to add to their veration, the ply a voice of the Yankee-in the real nasal twang but i Down Easter that the General only jested. You are much mistaken, replied the Gene stand you, say. Is you had open and shut -yras heard calling out-ral, as if you had burnt your finger. I never with one card, ch ?

ral, as it you had burnt your noger. I never with our card, the servicing else but accuse a man but what I am willing to back. Open and shat with everything else but my accusation with my money; and I will cards, said the General, with a coarse laugh to be you a hundred dollars that to search the interval with everything else but my accusation with my money; and I will cards, said the General, with a coarse laugh is the your an example. If the placed himself in an attitude to explain one or two horn gun-flints, and as many nut-his game, which was done, by placing his megs.

"I will bette you five hundred dollars, said man to say whether they were open or shut, oath ; "that cussed Yankee has beat my the Frenchman," that my friend carry not Monsieur, hardly knowing what to make game ' dead open and shut,' by loading my Wooden nutmeg nor no horn gun-flint in his of it, said . Open. How much will you bet me ? inquired the horn flint." von lettle saddle har. I take all such bets,' replied the Genera' General turning to cuffy-who was showing his ivory and plazing the above named sum in his hand, dollare. Suppose me bette you von leetle hundred gain, with a hearty kugh-placing his thumb ollare. Done, said the General, at the same time is nose, and giving his ingers a few ex showing the astonished Frenchman his clos- i respects to that a nigger of your and don This was immediately covered by the French-! man, while the Yankee dismounted and prepared to settle the matter by unloading his sad- ed hands. I am sorry to inform you that you have lost,-and a smile of peculier meaning with a Yankee again :' and he added to the dle bags.

For some moments all gathered around in played around his mouth. breathless silence, when the Yankee to his Ah ! save me shall no understand von great astonishment, drew forth the above nam- such game, Generale.

ed articles. . Well, you see I have won, continued the General, once more placing his hands be Must understand it, by Jupiter ! thundered | with delight, showing the whole breadther his whites, his eyes opening to an extraordina-course. This was repeated several times un-gnn-flints

ry magnitude, and his nose flattened like a til Monsteur declared he could no longer play. ryinger, crying-You didn't catch de General dis ar time, eral-by thunder ! this must be played is gosh a mighty ", wid dim ar horn gun fints." Monsteur then inferred him to his worthy Nersener-

Monsieur said, that he though it an un. he saw the other's bands flying through the though usually less appreciated.

In the reason of the second se

A married man who never gets a curtain.

MATRIMONIAL DICTIONARY. Dear-Is a term of entreaty, usually emply affection. It is sometimes used at home, but is generally received with suspicion.

Dack-A term of affection that goes in with · I say. Gineral, this ere's putty consider- the wodding day, and goes out with the hony-

i thirts

Psha !- A powerful contradiction or ingun with wooden nutmegs, and putting in a voluntary disse

Nonsense-Anegative of intense contempt. Deary Me !-An exclamation of great imtence-a word expressive of the fugets. Bother-Means trouble, irritation, teas. alenceing vexation.

Accidenti-The roof the new building over the Iron Works at Pembroke, Me., fell flourish of his fingers by giving his other arm. in, a few days since, killing one man.

the motion of turning a crank and keeping time by moving his right foot up and down The New Ocleans Jeffersonian, from a conversation with a gentleman from Mante-Until the day of the General's death," no everer chastisement could have been inflicted rey, Jearns that General Taylor could not upon him, than to have simply said-' hor move from his present quarters unless accora--' wooden nutmegs'-' big Yan panied by 30.060 men.

Tre and C fre-It will be proposed to f Nonsense - A, negative; of intine con tress in I studish a small duty on tea? fee, Ly which 3 millions may be

Poor Condition Original issues in Best copy available A