

- Onondaga, Lake, 432.
- Onontio, the Indian name for the governor of Canada, 72.
- Ontario, Lake, 29, 90, 92, 127, 135, 154, 155, 162, 428, 431.
- Orange (Albany), 125, 222.
- Orange, Prince of, see William of Orange.
- Orbitello, siege of, 7.
- Orleans, threatened by the royal army, 4; won for the Fronde, 5.
- Orleans, Duchess of, 14.
- Orleans, Duke of, see Gaston.
- Orleans, the Island of, 291.
- Orleans, the Point of, 273.
- Oswego, 82.
- Oswego River, the, 431.
- Otréouati (Big Mouth), the famous Onondaga orator, 99; sketch of, 100; his skill in drawing, 101; asserts the independence of his tribe, 102; his interview with La Barre, 109; his reply to La Barre's harangue, 112-114; his son and brother captured by Denonville, but released, 147; approached by Denonville, 178; consents to a conference with the French, 179.
- Ottawa Indians, the, 79; threatened by the Iroquois, 80; the Iroquois express pacific intentions towards, 82; 87, 116, 118, 123, 126, 152, 153, 160; "the Rat" plots against, 181; 215; trading at Montreal, 264; 331, 424, 425, 426, 444, 465; at the grand council, 471.
- Ottawa River, the, 138, 203, 214, 301, 303; the main artery of Canada, 313; efforts of the Iroquois to close, 313; 330.
- Ouelle River, the, 275.
- Ourehaoué, the Cayuga war-chief, 204; taken to France, 204; Frontenac makes use of, 204; his return demanded by the Iroquois, 209; his devotion to Frontenac, 210; death of, 396.
- Outrelaise, Mademoiselle d', her friendship for Madame de Frontenac, 15; death of, 16.
- Oyster River, the settlement of, 383; the French attack, 383, 384; the massacre, 385; advantage of the massacre to the French, 389.
- PACIFIC OCEAN, the, 172.
- Palace Gate, the, 272.
- Palatinate, the, burning of, 200.
- Palisaded houses of New England, the, 390.
- Palluan, Baron de, see Buade, Antoine de.
- "Palmier," the, 412.
- Papacy, the, Louis XIV. binds Canada to, 417.
- Paper currency, issued by Massachusetts, 298.
- Paris, 6.
- Passadamkeag, village of, 380, 382.
- Passamaquoddy Indians, the, 387.
- Peace-pipe, the, 474.
- "Pelican," the, commanded by Iberville, 412; engages with the English merchantmen, 412; her victory, 412; destruction of, 413.
- Pemaquid, 233; captured by the Abenakis, 235-237; 364; English outpost at, 355; Phips rebuilds the fort at, 375; Frontenac plans to capture, 375; the French fail to capture, 376; English conference with the Abenakis at, 378; the French plan to capture, 397; the attack on, 399; its importance under-rated by the English, 401; its