THE TORONTO ACADEMY.—This Seminary was first established in the year 1846, at the instance of the College Committee of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, and through the exertions of a few gentlemen of Toronto, connected with that Church. The founders of it endeavoured from the very commencement of the undertaking to obtain the co-operation of other Christian denominations; and in the year 1849 they resolved to make a special effort to effect this desirable arrangement. This effort has been crowned with success, and, in consequence, the original denominational character of the Institution has been removed—its basis extended—its field of usefulness enlarged, and its permanency and efficiency placed upon a more secure footing.

The great objects, for the attainment of which the Academy was originally established and is still maintained, may be briefly stated as follows:—

1. That the Pupils, in all departments of their Education, should be placed under the care and training of Masters of a decidedly Christian character—whose instructions and deportment should be pervaded by, and diffusive of a Christian spirit.

2. That Bible instruction should form a fundamental part of the course, and be continued in a regular systematic manner, so that the pupil should eventually go forth, possessed of a thorough knowledge of the contents of the sacred volume.

3. That the course of Education should be so arranged in its several departments, English, Classical, Mathematical, and Commercial, as that no undue preponderance should be given to any one of these, to the neglect of others, but that each receiving its just measure of time and attention, the various mental faculties of the pupil might be duly cultivated, and their proper balance in his future character secured.

4. That the course of Education and all the practical arrangements of the Seminary should be, as far as possible, adapted to the peculiar circumstances and wants of the community in this young country—and especially to those of young men of piety and talents, desirous of obtaining the preliminary training necessary to fit them for the Philosophical and Theological studies, preparatory to the work of the Holy Ministry.

5. That a Boarding House should be provided in connection with the School, worthy of the confidence of Parents and Guardians,—the vigilant, affectionate and Christian superintendence of the young being secured in its regulations and administration.

Such are the leading objects which is sought to attain in this Institution. For the attainment of these, under the Divine blessing, the Directors pledge themselves to use their best endeavours, by the careful preparation and steady enforcement of a code of Rules and Regulations, for the conducting of the Institution; by vigilant personal inspection of its practical operation, and especially by the choice of suitable Masters, and the maintenance under these of a kind and efficient discipline. In regard to this latter point they think it right to state, that corporal punishments, although by no means formally excluded, have practically been seldom resorted to in the Seminary, and are reserved mainly for cases of moral delinquency in the younger pupils—it being understood that when any immoral habit, or a spirit of insubordination, or a deliberate disregard of the rules of the Institution discovers itself, the offender in such case, whether Boarder or Day Scholar, shall be removed, and that all possible caution will, in these respects, be exercised in the admission of pupils.

It is proposed to include, in the regular course, instruction in the French Language and in the principles of linear Drawing, without any addition to the ordinary fees; Vocal Music and Penmanship, under the direction of the best Masters, having been already thus introduced.

The year will, as heretofore, be divided into Four Terms of Eleven Weeks each, commencing and terminating as follows:—

From 17th November till 11th February.

(Vacation—From 25th December till 3rd Jan.)

From 12th February till 30th April.

From 1st May till 15th July.

(Vacation—From 16th July till 1st September.)

The School will be divided into Six Forms, with reference to the attainments of the pupils, and will ordinarily embrace a Six Years' Course; each pupil at entrance having his place assigned in the Form for which his previous progress may appear to fit him, and having moreover full opportunity afforded him, in the Monthly or Quarterly Reviews, to obtain promotion to a higher Form by superior diligence and success in his studies.

The Fees, which are payable at the commencement of each Term, will be as follows:—

No pupil will be admitted until he can read English fluently.

KNOX'S COLLEGE.

THE WINTER SESSION of this Institution, for 1850-51, will commence (God willing) on Thursday, the 17th October next.

By the interim Regulations approved of by the Synod, each Presbytery should have a standing Committee of Examiners, consisting of two Ministers and an Elder, for the examination of all Students, as to their moral and religious character, and of all intending Entrants, as to their previous history and training—their natural talents, discretion and piety—and in general the promise they give of capacity for usefulness in the Ministry.

Certificates founded on these examinations, will be required by the Court from all applicants for admission either to the College Proper or to the Preliminary Department.

Ministers are requested to call the attention of Students or intending Entrants to this notice, and it is hoped that Presbyteries will arrange the time and places of their meeting, so as to accommodate, as far as practicable, those, who according to the terms of the Regulations referred to, may require to appear before them, before coming to College.
