

London Philatelic Ass'n.

The above is the title of a new society recently organized in London, but composed of a large number of advanced and younger collectors. Address were delivered by Messrs. Wicks, Stachler, Davenport, Boyd, Benson and others. Owing to the late hour the election of officers was deferred until a late date. With good office-holders there is every prospect of a successful local society in this district.

Like Mother Used to Bake.

It wasn't really her fault that the biscuits burned a little on the bottom, and he ought not to have raised so big a row about it. "I suppose such a thing never happened in all your mother's cooking?" she said sarcastically. "Never," he assented. "Occasionally she used to get them so light that they would float up to the top of the oven and get scorched that way, but they never burned on the bottom." —Cincinnati Enquirer.
