

S. P. C. K. 90 volumes for our Sunday School library valued at $35.00. These books will be much appreciated.

The Incumbent had the pleasure, on Christmas Eve, of presenting an easy chair to Mr. A. B. Jones, Randboro' from some members of that congregation. Mr. Jones has been for many years a most unselfish worker as Church Warden, Lay Delegate and in every possible way for the Randboro' Church. He is now an invalid, but his faithful help is in no wise forgotten.

At Learned Plain we welcome Miss V. Bowen back from California to her old post as organist.

Christ Church, Island Brook has been the scene of five weddings during the past twelve months.

Our Churches were tastefully decorated for the Christmas Services. These Services were well attended, some people driving nine and ten miles to be present.

The Incumbent has reason to know that in England some at least do not wait until they know all about a missionary's work before wishing to help in it. He was lately the recipient of a lot of illustrated text cards for distribution from a good lady in England, and among them one package printed in Eskimo. Although he has been asked by people in this Diocese where Newport Mission is, he does not need to inform the readers of the Diocesan Gazette that he had no use for these.
