a Played, probably, to prevent the Bishop being driven out of play, or exchanged for the Knight.

b Weakening the Centre Pawns. c Preparing the way for the en-trance of the Kt at QB4.

d White now makes preparations for an advantageous break on the Queen's side, which Black is unable to prevent.

e The ending is played by the Doctor in capital style.

f If Black now takes the Kt White plays Q to B8 ch, afterwards checking with the R winning the Q; but White cannot then take the Kt on account of the threatened mate, so that there was considerable play left -Gazette.
