

PERSONAL AND NEWS ITEMS.

Dr. Wm. Bentley, of Sarnia, has gone on a trip to Calgary.

Dr. and Mrs. Macdonald, of Wingham, sailed on 31st May for Britain, where they intend spending some weeks.

Dr. A. E. Gammage, of Chicago, an old Chatham boy, paid a visit to his parents at the latter place.

Dr. Gustin, of St. Thomas, who has been seriously ill, is improving steadily.

Dr. J. A. Grant, of Ottawa, has left for Victoria, B.C. Mrs. Grant and children will join him about the end of next month.

Dr. R. W. Rutherford has returned to Chatham, and he will resume his practice at once.

Dr. A. M. Rosebrugh has located his office at 76 Prince Arthur avenue, Toronto. He has closed his office on Shuter street.

Dr. Allen Baines, of Toronto, recently had a severe attack of gallstones and cholecystitis. He has now recovered and is about again.

Dr. H. G. Arnott, of Hamilton, was very ill with an attack of blood poisoning, but is now around again.

Dr. E. A. Haist, of Crediton, has removed with his family to Hamilton, where he will practice.

Dr. Stewart, of Fort William, who has been laid up with typhoid fever, is able to be about again.

Dr. Arthur Voaden has returned from Kingston, and will resume his duties in St. Thomas.

Dr. B. S. Bailey, of Gladstone, Man., and Miss Florence Passmore, of Winnipeg, were married 18th April.

Hamilton proposes establishing a sanatorium for consumptives, towards which the Ontario Government will give $4,000.

Drs. Deveber, of Lethbridge, Roy, of Edmonton, and Douglas, of Assinboia, have been added to the list of senators.

Oscar Margolese, M.D., of Edinburgh, has decided to start practice in Winnipeg, and has taken rooms on Jarvis street. Dr. Margolese came from the old country but recently.

Dr. Charles O'Reilly, formerly medical superintendent of the Toronto General Hospital, has returned from his lengthened trip to Britain and has located at 52 College street, Toronto.

The marriage of Dr. John J. Gardner, of Montreal, to Miss Catherine Josephine Macleod, eldest daughter of the late Mr. William Macleod, of Summerstown, Ont., took place in New York a couple of weeks ago.

Dr. Sutherland, of Springhill, N.S., who is well known in Amherst, expects to leave about the first of May for a four months' visit to the hospitals in London.