PROVISIONS AND PRODUCE.

FISH AND OILS,

*Coal, Iron, Tin, Salt, &c.Mercantile Summary.

— We will pay 20 cents a piece for six copies of the JOURNAL OF COMMERCE of the 12th inst.

— A new fountain, costing $5,000, to be set up in front of the Parliament Buildings, has arrived at Ottawa.

— Will "a subscriber" (Kingston) state clearly the case respecting his query as to Letter of Credit?

— The bankrupt stock of the late firm of Empey, Johnston & Co. has been sold to J. D. Williamson of Guelph, Ontario for $60,000.

— An egg packing establishment is to be started at Barrie. The eggs will be collected for 35 miles around at the rate of 1,000 dozen a day if possible.

— In order to promote as far as possible the comfort of their passengers, the owners of the Allan Line have appointed intermediate and steerage stewardesses to each of their vessels.

— A chinaware manufactory is about to be established in London, Ontario. A number of experienced hands will be brought out from England.

— "The Norval Manufacturing Company, Limited," is the name of a joint stock enterprise recently incorporated in Toronto for the manufacture and sale of woolen and cotton goods.

— When the Intercolonial railway is opened throughout its whole length, next month, the time between Halifax and River Du Loup will be twenty-two hours.

— Letters patent have been issued to the "Delaware (Middlesex County) Cheese Manufacturing Company," with a capital stock of $2,000, divided into two hundred shares of ten dollars each.

— The charge for carrying grain from the West to Atlantic ports has declined on average ten cents per bushel within the past three years. Upon the two hundred million bushels annually shipped to tide water from western sections this amounts to a saving of $20,000,000.

— It is announced that Mr. Mills, M.P., of depression committee notoriety, will deliver an address before the London Chamber of Commerce to-day, selecting a subject that will be interesting to the mercantile world: the subject of the relation of the Government to Trade and Commerce.
