"MADE NEW AGAIN."—Mrs. Wm. D. Ryckman, St. Catherines, Ont., says: "R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., I have used your 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and 'Pleasant Purgative Pellets,' for the last three months and find myself-(what shall I say)—'made new again' are the only words that express it. I was re-duced to a skeleton, could not walk across the floor without fainting, could keep nothing in the shape of food on my stomach. Myself and friends had given up all hope, my im-mediate death seemed certain. I now live (to the surprise of everybody) and am able to do my own work."

The death is announced of the eminent of the death is announced of the eminent poet and professor, Gottfried Kinkel, who expired at Zurich recently. Prefessor Kinkel, who was in his sixty-eighth year, was very well known in London, where, after his flight from a German prison, he spent ten years as a political refugee.

It is just forty-two years since the privilege of franking came to an end in England.

Mr. McDonald's experience with the Great German Remedy is thus announced by him. "It is very gratifying to me to be able to give a written testimonial respecting the unequailed merits of the world renowned remedy, St, Jacobs Oil, as an alleviator of pain. I was for years sorely troubled with a swollen leg. In vain I tried all the prescriptions of medical men. At last in deep despair. I resolved to test the virtues of St. despair I resolved to test the virtues of St. Jacobs Oil, the Great German Remedy, and to my great joy before one bottle had been exhausted I found my self completely cured. Trusting that St. Jacobs Oil may meet with the success it deserves, I close this statement, by reiterating my indorsement of its efficacy.
