METALS AND HARDWARE.—A Kidston (Glas-gow) circular just to hand, says: "Some-thing approaching the activity of old times has been experienced in the Warrant market during the past ten days, and under a bull movement Scotch warrants touched 44/-, but movement Scotch warrants touched 44/, but receded again. More than half the Scotch furnaces have been damped down owing to the coal strike, and should this continue no doubt the balance will be dealt with in the same way." The same circular says that Scotch steel makers intimate an advance of 2/6d., and the work are practically idle. Scotch bars way." The same circular says that Scotch steel makers intimate an advance of 2/6d., and the works are practically idle. Scotch bars are dearer, but English bars are cheaper. The local market is very dull indeed, there being an almost total absence of movement, and most of the hardware houses are taking stock. No revival of demand is looked for till after the middle of January. ## TORONTO MARKETS.

TORONTO, December 14th, 1893.

DRUGS.-Business is fairly good, and trade aintains a steady character. Values remain maintains a steady character. Values remain pretty much unchanged. The prices of some Mediterranean goods are stiffening. Quinine is now quoted at 26 to 37c.; opium at $4.40 to 4.60. The N. Y. Commercial Bulletin of the 12th inst. says: "Senega root is exceedingly dull. Quince seed is firmer. Poppy seed is easy. An increased business is reported in mustard seed. Cocca butter is very scarce. Oxalic acid is firmer. Peppermint oil is offered sparingly. Opium and quinine are strong. Cascara sagrada is easier. Golden seal root is firmer. Snake root scarce and firm." maintains a steady character.

DRY Goods .- Things are on the quiet side Day Goods.—Things are on the quiet side among importers. However, a quiet sorting trade is being done, and this for the most part consists of parcels of holiday goods, handkerchiefs, neckties, gloves, etc. Most houses are through with stock-taking, some, however, are still actively engaged in it. Values of textiles are pretty steady, kid gloves, however, have taken an upward turn and are from 50c. to $1 per doz. higher. Preparations for the spring trade are being made rather cautionaly. cautiously.

FLOUR AND MEAL .- Trade in flour continues FLOUR AND MRAL.—Trade in flour continues light in volume; prices are steady but have little or no strength; quotations stand as fol-lows:—Manitoba patents, $3.75; strong bakers, $3.50; patents, $3.15 to 3.20; straight rollers, $2.80 to 2.90; extra, $2.70 to 2.80. A steady trade in oatmeals is being done. Mill-feed is in good request, bran being quoted at $12.50 to 13, shorts at $14 to 14.50 per ton.

GBAIN.—Wheat has gained another cent in price during the week; the most active move-ment is that to millers; the export enquiry is largely confined to red winter. Barley is steady and unchanged; receipts are light and just sufficient to meet the local demand. Oats are firm, prices remaining unaltered; ship-ments are going forward to the Eastern Provinces. Peas continue on the quiet side, but offerings have somewhat fallen off. There is
