TORONTO MARKETS.

Toronto, 25th Sept. 1870.

Business has been brisk in a good many departments of trade during the week, and improving prices have done much to improve the tone of affairs and the spirits of business men. The provision dealers rejoice over a sharp advance in cheese and butter, the former having gone to 50/; grain and flour are excited; the iron trade in the states is fairly in the clouds, so buoyant are the ideas of dealers in some lines, while marked advances are shown in Britain. The Stock market both here and in Montreal, shows improved prices almost ail over the list; there is a genuine demand by investors, too, and some considerable transactions in bank stocks took place during the week.
