A DISTINCTLY Catholic devotion—The Way of the Cross—was introduced for the first time it is said, in the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. Mary the Virgin, New York, at the incoming of Lent.

Catholic journals were never in better fighting condition than at present. Despite the cry of hard times, they all appear to be prospering, and occasionally a new warrior appears on the scene equipped and ready for the battle in support of justice and truth.

In these times a man with a large family of daughters on his hands may profit by the following suggestion: An old lady who had several unmarried daughters fed them largely on a fish diet because, as she ingeniously observed, "fish is rich in phosphorus, and phosphorus is useful in making matches."

SADLER'S Catholic Directory, Almanac and Ordo for 1894 again makes its appearance on our table. This is its sixty second annual publication and both in appearance and information is fully up to its usual form. It is published by D. and J. Sadler & Co., 33 Barclay St.
New York and 1869 Notre Dame Street, Montreal. Price $1.25c.

ONE of the strongest arguments in favor of the Catholic position on education is the existence of the lawless, traitorous and slanderous P. P. A. Such an organization could not have been possible in this country, if the present generation of manhood had been properly taught their duties to God, to their neighbors and to their country.

Our non-Catholic friends, who have heard, believed and reported horrid untruthful things about Catholics have an opportunity of judging for themselves at all times. They are at the same liberty of visiting the Catholic institutions that the Catholics enjoy and ten chances to one, they would never be asked their religion. They might even penetrate into the dark depths of the confessional and receive a welcome without injury to body or soul. Sermons during Lent in our churches are on subjects that would greatly interest our Protestant brethren. They will be made welcome.

It is a great consolation to those who have charge of the care of souls to see large numbers taking advantage of the special Lenten devotions, to increase fervor and to make reparation, as far as possible, for the negligences of the year.
Some, however, do not deviate from their ordinary path or rule, and seem to be sufficiently contented with themselves if they assist at Mass on Sunday, and permit the special devotions to pass without attention. Of course, it is their loss. They, unfortunately, place themselves on the level of the Scriptural Pharisees and imagine they are good enough and need not cry out for mercy.

MANUFACTURERS of spoons do not enjoy a very high rank as writers, but the majority of them have produced many stirring articles.

It's a feat to fit feet, and we have the skillful who know how. Bourbeau's

THE reason it is no joke to step on a tack in the dark is because it is impossible to see the point.

If a man keeps on grinding he will make his point in the end. So it is with advertising.

WE need labor for the unemployed, not charity, and school funds for the children whom Greenway would like to see school-less.

PRINCE COLONNA is now a candidate for the Italian Chamber of Deputies. He may now expect to see all the episodes of his career in print.

THERE are two things essential to success—a good wife and advertising. If more men would advertise, and advise and co-operate with their wives there would be less poverty and more bright and happy homes.

FOUR nuns have begun to teach in the public schools of Pittsburg. The parochial school in which they had been working was closed and they passed the examination and secured appointments in the secular schools.

WHEN women vote it is to be hoped they won't be allowed to bet their new spring bonnets on the elections. Otherwise their husbands would certainly be ruined when the time to pay up comes.

LENT is now more than half passed. It therefore behooves every good Catholic to make the inquiry whether he has fulfilled his full duty in its faithful observance, not only in the letter, but in spirit.

ONE year ago there were but one Catholic mission and two missionaries in Oklahoma. There are now twelve missions and ten missionaries in the field, with over one thousand communicants.

A good idea would be to furnish the electric car motorman with an indicator which would show just what speed he is making; also, a patent apparatus for spearing him in the back when he runs past, and leaves you waiting for the next car to come.

THE winter months increase the ranks of the unemployed. Those having a little to spare can do much towards helping those less fortunate by attending the concert of the St. Vincent de Paul Society at the Bijou Opera House on the 16th of March.

"From the Ball Room to Hell," is the title of a book by a reformed dancing master, published by the Henry Publishing Co., 57 Washington Street, Chicago. There are some logical truths given in plain language, that parents and guardians might read with profit.

WE have just received a copy of Hoffman Bros. Catholic Directory for 1894.
It is, as usual, full of the latest and most complete information of a Catholic nature usually found in such works.
Address Hoffman Bros. & Co., Milwaukee, Wis., U. S. A. Price per year 50c.

HERE's a nut to crack: an eminent Republican writer says: "It is probable that no class of immigrants maintain after their arrival as high an average of social morals as they had at home. And this has been true from the beginning of the country, and true of the migrations from the Eastern States into the Mississippi Valley, and equally true of the migration from the whole country to the Pacific Coast."

THERE is no doubt whatever that the A. P. A.'s are arming, but for what purpose it is hard to say. Perhaps to shoot themselves. This would be a laudable outcome of their insanity. The greatest enemies they can find anywhere are those of their own ranks. They can find none greater outside of their own body. But then they should pay for their arms without the necessity of going into court. That shows them to be both cowardly and dishonest.

THE Very Rev. Father Renaud, S. J., Superior-General of the Canadian Jesuits, has been called to Italy by the General of his Order, on very important business. He is replaced, during his absence, by the Very Rev. George Kenny, S. J., at present Rector of the Catholic church, at Guelph, Ontario. Many of our Winnipeg readers will remember Father Kenny as the eloquent and zealous Jesuit Father who, in company with our own Father Drummond, preached a most successful mission at St. Mary's Church, in the autumn of 1886.

THE New York Catholic News says:
"One of our readers sends us a little story that is an evidence that even children of tender years recognize the selfishness of the noble Sisterhoods of the Catholic church. In one of the public schools in St. Paul, Minn., the teacher, a daughter of a prominent Freemason, asked her class: 'What is the difference between a Sister and a school teacher? None of the pupils offered to answer the question for some time.
Finally a little girl of eight, said: 'I know.' 'What is it?' asked the teacher.
'A Sister works for God, and a teacher works for Mayor Fitch,' responded the child."

How Baby Was Saved, and How a Young Lady Regained Health After Doctors and Friends Had Given up Hope —Grateful Parents Speak for the Benefit of Other Sufferers.

From the Collingwood Enterprise.

Situated some fourteen miles from the town of Collingwood, on the border line between the counties of Simcoe and Grey, is the thriving village of Sing-hampton. It was the duty of the writer to visit this charming locality, recently, on a mission of more than usual interest, and to Mr. George F. Riddell we are indebted for the really startling facts elicited as a result of the trip. Having resided in the locality since boyhood, Mr. Riddell is one of the best known citizens in the village, and his word is respected as that of an honest intelligent man. He was found engaged in his work at Mr. Pearson's mills, and cheerfully went with the reporter to his residence, where Mrs. Riddell was found with her little girl. The little girl is two years and four months old, very bright and intelligent. Her name is Lizzie Bell, but her parents informed the reporter that they call her the "Pink Pills baby," and they gave these reasons: When Lizzie was ten months old she was taken ill, the trouble being ascribed to her teeth, and so bad did she become that she was quite blind for two weeks. A doctor said there was no hope for her, and the parents shared his opinion, for the child was exceedingly puny and weighed only nine or ten pounds when a year old. Mrs.
Riddell said, "We frequently could not help wishing the little one was at rest, so much did she suffer." Mr. Riddell about this time, heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and determined to try them.

As baby continued taking the pills she began to grow well and strong, and has gone on steadily improving. "I think," said Mrs. Riddell, "that baby would long since have been in her grave had it not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I unhesitatingly recommend them to all as a most reliable remedy."

Mr. Riddell said he had been ill for some time himself, feeling nervous, worried and losing his appetite. His left hand also seemed to be losing its strength, and his weight decreased to 132 pounds. He resolved to try Pink Pills, and in six weeks he regained good health and appetite, while his weight showed an increase of 32 pounds. He is enthusiastic concerning Pink Pills with good reason.
While in Singhampton the reporter heard much talk of another remarkable case, and being anxious that all the facts obtainable should be placed before the public he called at the home of Miss Ellen Cousins. The young lady was absent visiting friends, but her mother cheerfully gave the facts of this truly remarkable case. Miss Cousins was troubled with dyspepsia since childhood, and as she approached maturity other complications followed. At sixteen years of age she weighed 125 pounds, but her troubles so reduced her that she lost away to a mere skeleton of 56 pounds, and at this stage her trouble was aggravated by erysipelas in both legs. Medicines of various kinds were tried without avail until the doctor finally advised that none be taken, and that the diet be carefully watched. Then another doctor, who it was said had cured a girl similarly afflicted, was tried, but three months' treatment produced no good results, and Miss Cousins was in such a condition that the family and friends sat up one night fully expecting death to ensue before morning. The spark of life flickered, and on the suggestion of a friend two boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were procured. After taking them a slight gain was noticed, and two boxes more were got, and since that time Miss Cousins has gained eleven boxes, and has continually gained in health and strength and her weight has increased from 56 to 85 pounds. Mrs. Cousins said that they look upon Ellen as one raised from the dead, and they cheerfully recommend Pink Pills to all sufferers from similar complaints.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have a remarkable efficacy in curing diseases arising from an impoverished condition of the blood, or an impairment of the nervous system, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, nervous headache, nervous prostration, and the tired feeling therefrom, the after effects of a gripe, influenza, and severe colds, diseases depending on humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Pink Pills give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions, and are a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, and in the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of any nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper (printed in red ink). They are never sold in bulk, or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers substitutes in this form is trying to defraud you and should be avoided.

These pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ontario, or Schenectady, New York, and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. They may be had from any dealer, or will be sent by mail on receipt of price.
