

Chapter Highlights

The financial statements and accompanying notes have been prepared by the Finance and Administration Division in accordance with the Financial Administration Act and appropriate, generally accepted accounting principles in Canada, and include the amounts that are based on management's best estimates and judgments.

