

ARTICLE 2

Extraditable Offences

1. Extradition shall be granted for conduct which constitutes, under the laws of both States, offences that are punishable by imprisonment or other deprivation of liberty for a maximum period of at least one year, or by a more severe penalty. Where the request for extradition relates to a person convicted of such an offence who is wanted for the enforcement of a sentence of imprisonment or other deprivation of liberty, extradition shall be granted if a period of at least six months of imprisonment or other deprivation of liberty remains to be served.
2. If the request for extradition relates to a number of offences, each of which is punishable under the laws of both States, but some of which do not meet the other requirements of paragraph 1, the Requested State may also grant extradition for such offences.
3. If the request for extradition relates to a sentence of both imprisonment or other deprivation of liberty as provided in paragraph 1 and a pecuniary sanction, the Requested State may also grant extradition for the enforcement of the pecuniary sanction.
