

arriving from an area infected with one of the quarantinable diseases within the incubation period of the disease concerned (as stated in the International Sanitary Regulations). Additional medical examination may, however, be required in accordance with the International Sanitary Regulations.

3.9 Recommended Practice. Public authorities should normally perform customs inspection of inbound passengers' accompanied baggage on a sampling or selective basis. Written declarations in respect of passengers' accompanied baggage should be dispensed with as far as possible.

3.9.1 Recommended Practice. Public authorities should, wherever possible, waive inspection of accompanied baggage of departing passengers.

3.9.2 Recommended Practice. Where inspection of accompanied baggage of departing passengers cannot be waived completely, such inspection should normally be performed on a sampling or selective basis.

3.10 Standard. A valid seafarer's identity document or a passport shall be the basic document providing public authorities with information relating to the individual member of the crew on arrival or departure of a ship.

3.10.1 Standard. In the seafarer's identity document, public authorities shall not require more than the following information:

- Family name
- Given names
- Date and place of birth
- Nationality
- Physical characteristics
- Photograph (authenticated)
- Signature
- Date of expiry (if any)
- Issuing public authority.

3.10.2 Standard. When it is necessary for a seafarer to enter or leave a country as a passenger by any means of transportation for the purpose of

- (a) joining his ship or transferring to another ship,
- (b) passing in transit to join his ship in another country, or for repatriation, or for any other purpose approved by the authorities of the country concerned, public authorities shall accept from that seafarer in place of a passport the valid seafarer's identity document, when this document guarantees the readmission of the bearer to the country which issued the document.

3.10.3 Recommended Practice. Public authorities should not normally require presentation of individual identity documents or of information supplementing the seafarer's identity document in respect of members of the crew other than that given in the Crew List.

B. Measures to Facilitate Clearance of Cargo, Passengers, Crew and Baggage

3.11 Recommended Practice. Public authorities should, with the co-operation of shipowners and port administrations, take appropriate measures to the end that satisfactory port traffic flow arrangements may be provided so that
