*SALARIES OF OFFICIALS ON BILINGUAL COURSES

Question No. 1,848—Mr. McCleave:

With regard to the answer to starred question No. 1,832, given to the house by the parliamentary secretary to the Prime Minister, is it the intention of the government to make full salary payments while senior officials are attending courses to promote or perfect their bilingualism?

Mr. John R. Matheson (Parliamentary Secretary to Prime Minister): Mr. Speaker, the answer is yes.

IMMIGRATION OFFICES IN WEST INDIES

Question No. 1,850—Mr. Dinsdale:

Following the recent Canadian-Caribbean commonwealth conference, is it the intention of the government to open immigration offices in the West Indies and, if so, where and when will these offices be established?

Mr. J. C. Munro (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Citizenship and Immigration): No. The question of Canada establishing an immigration office in the West Indies was not raised during the commonwealth Caribbean-Canada conference. With the present volume of applications, prospective immigrants in the Caribbean can be serviced as effectively, and at less cost, by travelling teams despatched from Canada.
