

HARTFORD, 7 miles. There are two handsome villages in this town ; one near the junction of the White river, and the other near the junction of the Queechy river with the Connecticut. In both there are several mills and manufactories. From Hartford the river is crossed to HANOVER, (noticed at p. 56) from whence a stage may be taken daily for Burlington, Vt. or Boston.

FINIS.

BIBLIOTHEQUE
MUSEE HISTORIQUE
DE LA VILLE DE BURLINGTON