Directors: H. H. FUDGER, J. W. FLAVELLE, A. E. AMES. FRIDAY, July 14, 1899. Busy Store, Even in Jul

It is part of our creed to "keep everlastingly at it," and keep the business constantly in evidence regardless of extreme heat or extreme cold. Selling white goods in January and crowding other interests during the dull season has revolutionized mid-winter business, and now we're making it worth your while to buy FURNITURE AND NEW STYLE FURS now, instead of waiting till fall or winter. The idea is to develop new business upstairs and down, and give new chances for economy all along the line. The store is always cool and attractive, and our hundreds of helpers are just as ready for quick service now as during the busier days

With new goods coming and summer goods going, new attractions added and new facilities planned, the interest is incessant. We've no use here for dull days or dull people. The more you make comparisons, the more you'll be satisfied to pay these prices :---

Extras and Fees. Tendering in all these works was very close. There were abcut 35 tenders in for all. But in addition the following contracts Were awarded for special works: Expanded metal, cinder and concrete fooring Co., $11,187; rolling shutters, $4000; total $15,187. This makes the net total cost $151,442 for the work proper. The World predicted two days ago that it would be less than $2000 in excess of the $15,000. The excess is $1442. To this must be added, however, $7500, the amount allowed for architect's fees, ing 5 per cent. commission on $150,000. So that the grand total of cost is $150,942. Lynd Spoke Out. Lynd Spoke Out. The Board hesitated for a moment, but only for a moment. The Mayor was look-ing about him for some method of tutting it down to the $150,000. He suggested doing away with the roofing or a paut of ft provided to shelter the Front-street con-nection between the upper and lower halves of the new market. But Ald. Denison was jubilant at his vindication, and Ald. Hallam, also acting as controller-without-portiono, was insist-ent.

"Suppose we refer it to Mr. Siddall to see if he can cheapen it in any way," sug-gested the Mayor.

gested the Mayor. "Then you accept his plans?" queried "Then you accept his plans?" queried Ald. Denison. "Yes," drawled His Worship. And Ald. Lynd clinched it. "Oh, I think, Mr. Mayor," said he, "that if we go to Council with those tenders they will accept them. You must remem-ber, you know, that we will make up about $4000 by the sale of the debentures, so that we will only have $5000 in addition to fnance for." No Time to Hesitate.

It was no time to Hesitate. It was no time to hesitate, and the Board, as though they had been waiting for some-one to stick his head out of his shell, hesi-tated no longer after this outspoken com-mittal. Give name and address in full. Please write very
