Has Headquarters in Argentine, and Operates in French Capital.

Paris, Nov. 18.-Several members of a gang of international thieves, whose headquarters have been in the Argentine Republic, but whose operations have been confined chiefly to Europe, have been captured by the Paris police. The gang carried out a series of burglaries in the booty. They also, it is said, paid professional visits to London and Berlin. Quite recently the Paris police received word that this rogues' syndicate, made up principally of Italians, was sending a not lose sight of them for a moment.
