LUNGS PIERCED; M'LEOD MAY DIE

Thrown from the Rig by Horse, Which Bolted at an Automobile.

Caesar McLeod, of 484 St. James street was very badly injured last night on Queen's avenue, in a runaway. His chest was crushed and he received internal injuries.

McLeod was driving a colt along Queen's avenue, near Waterloo, when an automobile approached. The horse gave no signs of fright as the machine came up, and the chauffeur did not stop as is usually done in cases of this kind. When the car got close to the animal, the latter shied very quickly and raced madly to the curb. McLeod had no time to check the horse and when the rig crashed into the curb he was thrown out and became entangled in the wheels. The horse was stopped and McLeod was taken out of the wreckage.

Dr. Stevenson was called and the injured man was removed to his home. His condition was found to be serious. His chest was crushed and a couple of his upper ribs were broken. The lungs were pierced and were considerably congested. It appears that the driver of the auto, as well as McLeod, was deceived by the action of the horse. It all happened in an instant.

SWELLED UNION RANKS

Ten New Members Received by Local Branch of Bricklayers and Masons.

An open meeting of the local branch of the International Bricklayers' and Masons' Union was held on Saturday afternoon, when ten new members were received. This means that practically all of the bricklayers and masons of the city are now identified with the union.

The meeting was the result of the visit to the city of Fourth Vice-President Izard, of the International Union, and it was stated today that the chief aim of the local union in taking in the new members is to abolish what is known as the open shop. There is no question of wages between the union and the employers. It appears that in the past bricklayers have come to the city to work and have not joined the union simply because it was not necessary, and the organization now feels that it is in a position to get every man in the ranks and secure the same wages for all.

The union charges same of the contractors with discouraging men from joining the union in the past and with paying them less than the union scale.

MANAGER WILL HEAR MEN

Dismissed Street Railway Employes To Be Given Another Hearing.

The street railway situation remains unchanged. On Saturday afternoon Manager King met a committee of the employes, and further discussed the recent dismissal of the three men whose reinstatement is being sought. The result of the meeting was an offer by Manager King to hear the men personally, and if they had any new reasons to advance why they should again be taken into the service of the company.

At a meeting of the union motormen and conductors on Saturday night, the result of the interview was announced, and it was agreed to defer action until tomorrow night, when another meeting of the men will be held. In the meantime the dismissed employes will wait on the street railway manager.

Mr. Mangus Sinclair, the International Street Railway Union officer, of Toronto, stated to the Advertiser yesterday that the union was still hopeful of a settlement being reached.

The senator remarked that he felt as if he were in a bathing suit and peekaboo bonnet. When the audience laughed Senator Doliver turned to President Benson and said: "I have said nothing funny. I believe the people are laughing at my clothes." He then took off the gown and dropped it upon the floor, where it remained until he had finished.

THE DEMON DYSPEPSIA.—In olden times it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ambient air, seeking to enter into men and trouble them. At the present day the demon dyspepsia is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so possessed should know that a valiant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are ever ready for the trial.

NEW COMPANY ARRIVES

Change of Talent at the Springbank Summer Theater.

Patrons of the Springbank Theater will this week see performances by a new company of players. Tonight and two succeeding nights, "A Wife's Honor," a society drama that has taken well in many of the large cities across the line, is to be presented, with the comedy-drama, "The Gambler's Sweetheart," the remainder of the week.

Between the acts extra specialties will be introduced, including moving pictures, illustrated songs, a dancing soubrette and a black-face comedian.

If the new company is as good as that which closed its engagement on Saturday night, it will be sure to please.

The management of the theater has placed a canvas canopy over the theater. This will mean that performances can be given every evening, regardless of the weather conditions.

LOCAL CHURCH NOTES

Rev. F. Cornish, curate of Trinity Church, St. Thomas, and a graduate of Huron College, conducted the services at St. Matthew's Church, East London, yesterday in the absence of the rector, Rev. Wm. Lowe, who is holidaying.

Wednesday will be the 35th anniversary of Rev. Canon Dann's ordination as deacon. The occasion will be marked by holy communion in St. Paul's at 10:30 a.m.

The pulpit of Knox Church, South London, was yesterday occupied by Rev. Mr. Henderson. The pastor, Rev. J. G. Stuart, is in Toronto.

The choir of St. James' Church, South London, under the direction of Mr. F. Willgoose, the new organist, is increasing in a satisfactory manner. There were 23 members of the choir present yesterday.

Rev. I. G. Perdue, the newly-appointed curate of St. Paul's Cathedral, occupied the pulpit at the cathedral last evening, and preached a very thoughtful and forceful sermon. Mr. Perdue is a comparatively young man, and a talented lecturer.

POUNDED BIG CHIEF

Micmac Squaw Nearly Kills Husband and Chief of Tribe.

Fredericton, N. B., July 21.—Chief Antony Sacobie is still titular head of the New Brunswick Micmacs, but practically he is dethroned, and his wife reigns in his stead. Incidentally it may mentioned that Mrs. Sacobie weighs 220 pounds, and that the nominal chief is lying at death's door as a result of a terrible beating she gave him today.

Yesterday Mrs. Sacobie, who has opinions of her own, went to a picnic and left the old man at home. The chief followed later and tried to bring her home, but received a beating which nearly killed him. The big squaw picked up a club from the side of the road and ponded her lord and master over the head, shoulders and arms. Antony also says that she used a big knife, and his head was badly cut.

It was only the timely arrival of a couple of men that stopped the committal of a murder instead of an unmerciful assault. Mary Sacobie is now thought to be nearing St. John, on her way through to Nova Scotia, via the highway road.

Reserving Accommodation in Sleeping and Parlor Cars.

A number of the railway companies, including the Grand Trunk Railway system and Canadian Pacific Railway, to better meet the wants of the traveling public, have decided commencing August 1 to adopt a new rule and ask the support of the public in carrying it out. Great difficulty has been experienced in the past by intending passengers making reservations, and not claiming same or giving any notice that they had changed their minds, and considerable loss has been sustained by railway companies in providing cars and even extra section for trains that were not required.

The new rule provides that sleeping and parlor car reservations made on verbal or city telephone applications unless paid for in advance will not be held later than two hours prior to the departure of train for cars scheduled to leave prior to 7 p.m. and 5 p.m. for cars scheduled to leave between 7 p.m. and 10 a.m.

As the companies will redeem tickets presented to agent from whom purchased or station ticket agent at same place prior to departure of train for which they were sold, any passenger who for some reason cannot make trip as intended will be protected against loss.

GREAT YEAR FOR BASEBALL

Cincinnati, O., July 23. — President Pulliam of the National League, who was here today, said that never before in the history of baseball had there been anything like such a record for immense attendance and receipts as thus far this season.

"The beginning was in the fourth of July games between Chicago and Pittsburg, at Pittsburg," said Pulliam, "at which 35,000 people gathered. The Chicago club's shares of the receipts at the games were nearly $9,000. The next three games of the series played in Pittsburg drew approximately 25,000 people, running the grand total for the series of five in the smoky city to 60,000, an average of 12,000 per game. Out of these games the Chicago club drew $15,000, while the Pittsburg club, with its extra grandstand and box admission, gathered in much more. The last game of the series was played in Chicago a week ago last Sunday. In round numbers, there were 20,000 paid admissions to that game. That meant that Pittsburg received $5,000 as its share of the day's takings, while the Chicago receipts were perhaps a third larger.

"I'll venture to say that the receipts for the six games were in the neighborhood of $50,000, of which the Chicagos got about $23,000 and the Pittsburgs $27,000. Of course, these figures are not official, but they are pretty close to the mark and show in what a flourishing condition baseball is. Up to the present time there is not a club in the National League that is not ahead of the game, while one club has already declared a dividend, with the season only half over."

BATTLE CREEK TO STAY

Battle Creek, Mich., July 23. — The baseball people of this city will not surrender their position in the Southern Michigan League without a struggle, and the attempts of Flint to take Battle Creek's place will be resisted even if it involves an appeal to the National Protective body.

The management here announces that they will place a team in the field once more inside of a few days. Sunday is named as the date on which the new nine will make its first appearance. And while no information is given out regarding the personnel of the team it is said there is a big surprise coming for Flint, when the line-up is made public. The fans here are looking for a number of Flint's best men and it is said there will be no trouble at all about getting them either.

The temporary lapse of Battle Creek's playing will not hurt in the standing nor involve any forfeiture of games, since Saginaw has taken all the Battle Creek games scheduled for this week and is playing them as belonging to the Lumber City.

With the nine that is expected here, the city counts on as good as .500 in the percentages, and there is no question that the baseball enthusiasm, which has been team-supporting all along, will give increased patronage as the team shows improvement.

A CORNER FOR THE FANS

Outfielder Bates, of the Bostons, has an unequaled record this season. On two occasions he put the ball over the left field fence in the ninth inning, and won the game for Boston with the score 1 to 0.

The absence of two left-handed hitters like Donlin and Browne has made considerable difference in the hitting of the champions and made things easier for opposing infields.

The plaster cast has been taken off Mike Donlin's ankle and it is said he will be able to resume playing by the time the Giants return from the next western trip.

Fred Clarke has informed his Pittsburg players that henceforth all fines will be charged up to the salaries of the offenders. He says the club is through paying fines.

Up to July 2 the willowy Willis, of Pittsburg, had pitched and won ten straight games for the Pirates. On July 4 he lost his first game in eleven and was only beaten 1 to 0 at that.

Patsy Donovan might have had Pitcher Beebe early in the season for Gessler, but at that time Brooklyn was not ready to let the latter go.

Burch, the new fielder of the Cardinals, is playing a brilliant game on the field, and at the bat. He cost the club $1,100.

Jim Morgan, who is playing third base for the Boston Americans, graduated in law at Georgetown just three days before he donned a Boston uniform. He played very little ball this spring, and that accounts for his poor fielding at the start.

Owner Frank Farrell, of the New York Highlanders, says that Pat Dougherty was the most unpopular baseball player that ever played for him, and under no circumstances could Patrick ever again play for the Highlanders.

Kid Gleason has been released a dozen times in print, but he is still on the job. Kid is the Patti of baseball.

Jimmy Williams, of the New Yorks, could not cover more ground than he is covering if he were equipped with wings. No player is more reliable on ground balls.

Arthur Brouthers, the third baseman, has been released by the Athletic club to the New Orleans club.

Charlie Armbruster is catching better ball for Boston now than at any time since he joined the club. He has been hitting some of late, too.

Not one of the Pirates has been benched so far this season, in spite of their fierce aspect on the diamond.

Charlie Hickman has come to life again for Washington, and lately has been hitting the ball in old-time form.

Boston's new outfielder, Hoey, from Holy Cross, is living up to his reputation as a hard hitter. The pace he is setting will worry quite a few of the top-notchers.

Rossman is Cleveland's best pick-up this season. He is a timely hitter and should be in more games than he is.

If Lajoie keeps on as he has been batting of late, he will head the American procession of batsmen in a walk.

Manager Stahl, of the Nationals, feels the slump in the team's playing. He cannot account for it and can give no reason for his own poor work.

Waddell's new twister is termed "the combination smoke ball and Delsarte dip." This ought to fool the batters.

Pat Dougherty's eye returned in the outlaw league. He can now hit the umpire as well as the ball.

Tannehill is the only one of the Boston pitchers who has landed more games than he lost.

BOSTON'S MAY BE SOLD

Boston, Mass., July 23. — It will not be in the least surprising if the present owners of the Boston National League succeed in disposing of their holdings before the present season is over, although they will undoubtedly continue to run the club to the close of the season. More than one party is considering the matter, and none other than President Pulliam, of the National League, has been mentioned in connection with the ownership, and he has been quoted as saying that he would like nothing better than to take hold of the club if he succeeds in obtaining the backing. The fact that he is in such close touch with Director Conant, of the local club, gives some flavor of the probability of such a deal. It is needless to say that the advent of Mr. Pulliam into baseball in this city would give a decided boom to the National League club here. He had plenty of experience with all phases of running a club with the Louisvilles and Pittsburgs, with which he was connected for a very long time.

STONE PREMIER SLUGGER

Detroit, July 23.—George Stone, but seven points behind Elberfeld, and with more base hits to his credit than any man in the league, and a bigger total of bases batted than any man excepting Harry Davis, may be classed as the premier slugger of the Johnson organization today. Eberfeld still has the higher figure, but his record does not count against one made by a man in the game all season long. Chase leads Lajoie, but the big Clevelander is almost certain to beat out the New Yorker, even if he fails to pass his St. Louis rival. Ty Cobb is the only Tiger in the list, Crawford having fallen back into the .290 division again. And apart from this pair, Detroit has not a man hitting better than .260. If Detroit's hits were not more timely than numerous, the team would be fighting Washington for seventh.

Of the pitchers, Siever still leads the club, and is fourth twirler in the league, Townsend not being considered. It is worthy of note that of the first seven twirlers in the league—again dropping Townsend from consideration—Rhoades and Joss, both of Cleveland, are the only righthanders. The southpaws are doing well this year.
