VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

ONE-MAN STREET CARS. To the Editor of The Advertiser: Re increased costs in the operation of the London street railway, I would suggest "one-man cars" to remedy the situation. These have been given a good test in several western cities, and have

Take Calgary for example; there they Take Caigary for example, that of the have seventy cars in daily operation, run by one man each, and on the sam schedule time as when operated by two men. If this were introduced here i would release about 80 men for more would release about 80 men for more standard release. would release about 80 men for more necessary work, and would reduce the operating costs about seventy thousand dollars a year, which in turn would increase the profits by the same amount, and they should then be large enough to satisfy the shareholders.

Wouldn't this be a real practical wartime measure, and more satisfactory than an increased fare?

PRESBYTERIANS OF DISTRICT CONSIDER UNION MEASURE

Consolidation Proposed as a Wartime Economy Measure.

The London Presbytery proposes to take steps this week towards the consolidation of weaker charges, at least as a wartime measure. On Wednesday evening a proposition will be laid before the congregation of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, West London, 'to link up with the Hyde Park congregation. A vacancy exists in the Hyde Park charge at present, owing to the recent resignation of the minister, Rev. Mr. Irwin, to accept a call to Bracebridge. This leaves the field open for union with

Cannot Pay Salary.

Recently a canvass has been made of the congregations of the presbytery which up to the present have not been meeting the minimum stipend for ministers, $1,200, fixed at the last meeting the Ceneral Assembly. Some of the of the General Assembly. Some of the congregations felt that they were not in a position to pledge increase of givings to this extent during the war. In these cases, linking up with an adjacent charge is considered the best solution, or union with a neighboring Methodist congregation, which is not in a strong position. The union of Presbyterian and Methodist churches in Newbury and in Port Stanley is under consideration.

This does not mean that there is any lack of that interest that springs from contrasting characters, but merely that the play is so truly human that it does not portray anyone being so altogether bad that the inner light has never a chance to shine.
