

HOTELS OVERCROWDED SO SURPLUS FORCED TO STAY OUT OF CITY

1917 Exhibition Will Go Down
as Unique in This Respect.

An attendance so great that hotel accommodations for the overflow had to be furnished in St. Thomas, will mark the Western Fair of 1917 as the biggest and most largely attended of any in the city's history. Since the beginning of the week every hotel in the city has been filled and has been obliged to refuse further accommodation. Some of the larger hotels turned away as many as 400 people on Wednesday.

After attempting to obtain rooms at every hotel in town hundreds of visitors went to St. Thomas to obtain sleeping quarters for the night.

Cafes and restaurants in the city also gave evidence of the immense crowds. Every place in the city where meals could be obtained was filled to the doors on Wednesday, not only at meal times but throughout the afternoon and evening. Many of the larger places were filled until long after midnight. Anxious as they are to obtain business the restaurant-keepers have been obliged to refuse admission to hundreds. The increase in table supplies which formerly required but fifteen loads of bread a day since the beginning of the week have been using a hundred.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the sympathy and kindness shown by the officers and nurses and returned men through the benevolence of Mrs. M. J. HALL.
