MISSIONARIES RETURN TO ENJOY FUBLOUGH

Quite a Movement of Men an Women Who Are Serving the Master in Foreign Fields.

Many missionaries are now on the move, or preparing to soon be on the move, either coming on furlough from or going to foreign fields from Canada, and, despite the great exodus provided by the various denominational societies, urgent appeals are still coming in to the head offices from the seats of is in Collingwood.

Rev. A. C. Borden Returning. Rev. Dr. Sutherland, general secretary of Methodist foreign missions, received notification of the arrival at Vancouver, B.C., of Rev. A. C. Borden, M.A., and wife from Japan. He returns to Canada permanently, and will be attached to the Nova Scotta conference. The church intends giving him ence. The church intends giving him a year for rest and recuperation, during which he will not be obliged to take up work. Before leaving the Orient he was chosen by the missionary council in Japan as their representative on the Canadian general mission board for the ensuing year, which meets in Vancou-ver Monday, October 5. This meeting has been so arranged as to give op-portunity of a farewell and Godspeed to a large reinforcement for the Can-adian Methodist mission in West China, which will sail from Vancouver on Wednesday, October 7. The party will consist of about 30 men and women. Of these, perhaps, four are sent by the women's missionary society and the others by the general board. Bethe others by the general board. sides those intended for evangelia work, the party will include two medical missionaries, one dental surgeon, specialist in science for educational intendent of building construction, a trained nurse, an accountant, two special nurses for the Chin Tu Hospital, and a lady teacher for the school for missionaries' children. Other Methodists coming home on furlough are Rev. J. L. Stewart, B.A.,B.D., educationist, who lands in Ontario Sept. 1 from Chin Tu, China, after an absence of a year; another, Dr. Cox, medical intendent of building construction, a of a year; another, Dr. Cox, medical missionary, who will return by way of Europe. While in Europe he will spend some time taking post-graduate work in London hospitals, which he will later continue in this country. It is learned that in the Province of Sz'Chuan, China, four missions, the Canadian Methodists, the Methodist Episcopal, the M. S. Baptists, and the English Friends have united for higher educational work. A site aggregating some sixty-four or sixty-five English acres has been secured outside the walls of Chin Tu. A portion of this has walls of Chin Tu. A portion of this has been secured for central buildings of universal work. The remainder has been divided about equally between the four societies named, giving to each four societies named, giving to each an Railroad, July 31. The foreign secretary's reference to Germany, which was drawn out by a discreet speech by Sir Charles Dilke, was rather unexpected and was much canvassed afterwards in the lobbies where it was regarded by many of the members as intended to counteract the bad impression likely to be produced in Germany by Lord Cromer's speech in the house last Monday, when he declared that it was the first duty of the government to prepare for the European conflict which probably would be forced upon Great Britain

The inference also was drawn that the government was desirous of arriving at an understanding with Germany similar to that already reached with France and Russia.
